THE COLONEL'S CORN.

On Thursday Col. Frank H. Creech took us in charge for a ride toward Morris Ford, going one road and returning another, enjoying every inch of the way the moving picture, four or five miles long, of trees and sunshine, cloud shadows and birds on wing, cotton with clustering open bolls and flower covered, corn ripening for the harvest wagon, pea fields waiting for the reaper and hay stacks, good signs of plenty and prosperity.

But the best sight of all was the Colonel's prize corn contest three acre field that so many have admired and envied. The corn was planted, fertilized and cultivated on the Williamson plan, with Crech improvements added and helping. The seed was of the Mason variety, the ears smaller than the popular old gourd seed, but heavier and more numerous, the short stalks bending beneath their golden weight. The seed looks as if the seed had been sown broadcast, and each stalk had tried to out beat all others. There are 81 rows to the acre, and actual count showed 476 ears to the row, a total of 14756 ears to the acre. At 147 ears to the bushel the yield will be 160 bushels to the acre. The corn will be gathered and weighed by a committee. The race for the corn championship lies between Col. Creech and Mr. W. L. Cave and no matter who wins neither will have to buy corn next year. The fertilizer applied by Col. Creech cost $22 to the acre.

And we have got our opinion of the man who shall hereafter reap his corn in the West but we are not going to tell it now.

A GOOD NEW LEAF.

From numerous trials telling mouths we learn that the farm ers of this county will plant this fall more small grain than they have ever done. The average will be limited by only the quantity and price of seed grain.

With more home grown oats, rye and wheat, the farmer will have to feed north for food for man and beast, more stock will be raised, the supply of compost for exhausted lands be increased and labor be in less demand and better behaved. Before the revolutionary war people in this section made most of the little money they needed by raising cattle and did better than their great grand children are now doing.

REV. GEORGE H. BUSH.

Last winter we had the pleasure of a call from Rev. George H. Bush, who though a native of Beech Island and living in and near Augusta had not visited Barnwell in forty years. Several months ago while preaching in Georgia he was stricken in the pulpit with paralysis. He was carried home to New Augusta where he died on the 17th inst. His wife, three sons and five daughters survive him.

ULMER NEWS.

Esten and Justin McMillan, Grover Harter and E. L. Sanders leave on the 25th for the N. C. O. I. at Edgefield. Misses Annie Halford and Florrie Harter have gone to Virginia Institute at Bristol, Va. Miss Dominick of Newberry has returned to her school.

Miss Louise Wilson will go this week to Columbia Female College. The Brown and Hampton Base Ball Clubs play at Fairfax on Thursday. We are glad to hear that Mrs. T. S. McMillan is improving after a severe spell of sickness.

Mr. Hugh Kearsse is quite ill with typhoid fever, we hope he will soon recover. Mr. and Mrs. Manly Wilkinson of Florida stopped a few days with relatives on their way to the Jamestown Exposition.

Mr. Thomas S. McMillan has been elected Principal of the school at Perry, and goes there in a few days. W. W. Wister.

FOUND AT LAST.

J. A. Harmon, of Lizesmore, West Va., says: "At last I have found the perfect pill that never disappoints me; and for the benefit of others afflicted with torpid liver and chronic constipation, will say: take Dr. King's New Life Pills." Guaranteed satisfactory. 25c at R. A. Deason & Co., Druggist.

WORKED LIKE A CHARM.

Mr. D. N. Walker, editor of that spicy journal, the Enterprise, of Louisa, Va., says: "I ran a nail in my foot last week and at once used Dr. King's New Life Pills. No inflammation followed; the salve simply healed the wound; Heals sores, burns and skin disease. Guaranteed at R. A. Deason & Co., Druggist, 25c.

OCTOBER OPENING.

Fall and Winter Millinery and Dress Goods.

Miss Hattie Martin has the great pleasure of informing her many friends and all feminine admirers of the good, the beautiful, the excellent in Millinery and Dress Goods that she has fully perfected her preparations to give them a service that can not possibly fail to please and profit the most exacting tastes and the most careful buyers.

Friday Afternoon and Evening, October 1st her Millinery Parlors will be open for the welcome inspection of her lady friends. On Wednesday and Thursday, October 2nd and 3rd the same opening will be held.

With complete and selectest stocks of the old established favorite goods and the newest and most beautiful fabrics for approval, she extends a most cordial invitation to the ladies of Barnwell, Abbeville and Orangeburg counties to call upon these Exposition Days.

Asken this week.

Lawson young ladies go to College this week. Mrs. Armstrong has matriculated at Burnside's Business College. Quarterly Statements of the Banks of Blackville and Barnwell are published.

Miss Hart of Augusta is on Barnwell this week with her father. Mr. Armstrong has accepted of cashier and assistant cashier with Mr. R. H. Walker at Appletown.

Rev. W. Blanton, pastor of the Baptist Church, spent his last week with Barnwell Friends. Church Conference called Rev. M. M. Benson to take for another year which he accepted.

The Board of Education met in last week and extended aid to the schools at Bamberg, Denmark and Pearl Oswald of Lexington and Walker of Appletown are fair and attractive guests of the school.

Service will be held in the Episcopal Church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Tracy Walsh officiating. The public generally invited.

Mr. J. B. Armstrong was quite sick on Tuesday with acute colic. His many good friends aided by his rapid recovery.

Rev. G. Britton, Secretary of the Baptist Sunday School Convention, sent out the Minutes of the convention held with Joyce, Branch Church.

Sales of the dispensaries in this county August amounted to $12,312.15, that is $10,711.30 for July, Barnwell August sales $8,040.68, July $4,588.

Saturday was the autumnal equinox, when the day and night were of equal length. From then until December 21st the days will grow shorter and the nights longer.

The Board of Education last week sustained the action of the Barnwell County Board in refusing to create a new school district, now a part of Healing Springs District.

Miss Pauline Richardson was last week added to the good faculty of the Barnwell Graded School, the large enrollment requiring another teacher in the Intermediate department.

Rev. Dr. R. W. Sanders held a fine meeting with good results at Steel Creek Church, September 16th to 19th. Three were added by baptism and other blessings were given.

Mr. James M. Denton of Washington D. C. reached Barnwell on Friday on her first visit to the Sunny South, and is spending some time with her uncle Mr. Leroy Molair, and making friends with all that form her charming acquaintance.

Cotton opened slowly last week. Some farmers report the per cent of lint as far below the average, while the seed are unusually large. That the cotton crop of the county will be an unprofitable one is an established and sorrowful fact.

Cotton receipts at ports on Monday were $1,755 bales. Sales of futures 300,000 bales. The market closed 30 points, $1.50 a bale lower, because the equivalent storm of Sunday was not so severe and was not accompanied by reports of damage to the growing crop.

The only son of Mr. John Walker of Thomasville on Monday, aged 5 years, after an illness of a few days. His body was buried on Tuesday at Cave's Church, Rev. M. M. Benson conducting the funeral service. He has crossed the dark river to find the loving mother that was called last year to the better land.

The Monument erected by the Woodmen of the World at Williston in honor and memory of their deceased brother, Mr. William Addison, will be unveiled on Sunday, October 6th, at 5 o'clock p. m. Col. Robert Lida of Orangeburg is expected to deliver the address during the occasion.

The public are cordially invited to attend. Mr. D. C. Burkhalter celebrated his sixtieth birthday on Tuesday in a grand and generous way. A superb dinner of blessed substantial and delightful desserts was enjoyed and this banquet feasted on a more perfectly prepared, seasoned and cooked picnic than ever known at that place. The address is beyond description. May our good friend live a hundred years and have such abundance until the year is complete.

Mr. B. R. Long showed us on Monday a good many bolls of cotton of various stages of growth that had been ruined by an insect enemy. On the outside of each was a dark spot, where a puncture had probably been made and the germ of a worm placed. In several of the bolls worms were found. In appearance like those that molest cotton. The ravages are confined to rich spots, where the yield has been considerably reduced.

On Monday night the white spirit of little Louie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Moore, passed through the valley of the shadow into the light that is beyond and forever. She had been slightly unwell for only a few days and the sudden summons has saddened many loving ones. She was only eight years of age, a fair flower bud, that the reaper has taken from the home, and hearts that so loved the sweetness of the little one now an angel of the Christ.

Congressman Patterson has gone to Washington to look after matters of importance to his constituents that will come up at the next session. He is taking especial interest in the increase and improvement of the Rural Routes that contribute so much to the convenience and safety of his constituents.

Through his influence and efforts the Saluda, Edisto and Santee rivers have been surveyed by government engineers as the first step toward their being dredged, cleaned of obstructions possibly made navigable and certainly becoming less harmful to health.

He is encouraged by favorable reports on some of his river bills and if hard work and a heap of it will count Judge Patterson will gather a good crop of results at the next session.

Pursuant to a commission issued by R. M. McCown, Esq., Secretary of State, books of subscription will be opened at the Bank of Williston, Williston, S. C., on Monday September 30, 1907 at 12 o'clock to the capital stock of The Williston Cotton Warehouse.

Capital $3,000; par value $100 per share. A. M. Kennedy, Q. A. Kennedy, Corporators.

CHANGE IN PLACE OF UNION MEETING.

On account of the extreme illness of the wife of Rev. W. M. Jones it has been thought wise to change the place of Union Meeting from Williston to Elko, both churches approving the change. All Messengers of Churches in this district will be governed accordingly. W. M. Jones, G. W. Garner, Comit.

Barnwell Baptist Association Union meetings will be held at Elko Resedy Branch and Georges Creek; churches, Saturday and Sunday Sept. 29 and 30.

OCTOBER OPPORTUNITIES, RIPENING RAPIDLY AT THE BARNWELL BUSY BEE HIVE.

Grateful for the generous and increasing patronage of the good people of Barnwell County I take pleasure in announcing that commencing Monday, September 29th and continuing through all October I will make the most Startling Surprise Sale of Fall and Winter Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes and Millinery ever known in this section of the State. Confine myself strictly to the above lines of merchandise I can better know the best places and times to buy and the goods that please the pockets and meet the needs and wishes of the people than the merchant who has many irons in the fire. Foreseeing and foreknowing that advances would surely come in all prices of merchandise I made my contracts for Fall and Winter goods at the very first opening of the buying season before prices started on the up grade; and in consequence can now sell to retail buyers at the same or less prices than slower dealers can buy at wholesale. My stocks are all new, complete in all lines, of the very best qualities and are offered at old time prices. For Men—Everything in Clothing, Overcoats, Suits and single Pieces, Shirts, Underwear, Hats, Shoes and all articles needed for the dress purposes or the daily wear of busy life. For Ladies—All the best and most beautiful dress goods of American and foreign manufacture. All the substantial for domestic life, all the minor articles so necessary to the feminine toilet and the loveliest millinery that ever added to the beauty and contentment of the fair sex; daintiest shoes, gloves, laces and embroideries. For Little Folks—School Suits and Shoes that will last long, look well and be weather proof. Time and space forbid fuller description, so we cordially invite the people of Barnwell and vicinity, all visitors from far or near to call and see the largest and prettiest stocks of goods and become acquainted with the lowest prices in South Carolina. For further information I ask your attention to catalogue circulars which will be mailed on request to any address or given in person to all who may call.

Very Sincerely, THE BEE HIVE, B. MAZURSKY, PROPRIETOR, BARNWELL, S. C.
