

BOYS SENT HOME

Clemson Faculty Dismisses Over 300 Students in All For

APRIL FOOL FROLIC.

The Decision Was Announced at the Wednesday Morning Drill. President Mell and Commandant Minus Make Talks to the Cadets Telling Them of the Need for Preserving Discipline.

Two hundred and fifty-seven students of Clemson College were dismissed on Wednesday morning from the institution. This number, with the forty-eight members of the junior class dismissed the Saturday morning before, aggregates three hundred and five cadets dismissed on account of the all-fools day escapade, when three hundred and nine boys absented themselves from the campus and all duties from early in the morning until late in the evening. Of the three hundred and nine boys only four were not dismissed. These were E. B. McCurdy, of Charleston, B. T. Knight, of Chesterfield, J. H. Hayden of Orangeburg, and J. R. Fisher, of Dorchester. On account of extenuating circumstances in their cases, these young men, were punished in some other way than by dismissal.

At the regular morning drill the names of the participants were called and they dropped out as they heard their names called. After all the property had been turned in to the quartermaster the boys as directed by Commandant Minus, assembled in the chapel.

After all the cadets of the institution were seated and after the regular chapel services were concluded President Mell arose and in a few words announced that he was extremely sorry that the escapade had occurred. He was very sorry, he said, that the guilty boys would have to be dealt with severely, but discipline was absolutely necessary and the college authorities must be obeyed by the cadets.

After President Mell had concluded Commandant Minus addressed the cadets along the same lines as Dr. Mell. When he had concluded he handed Cadet Adjutant Tindall an order to be published at once. This order provided for the dismissal from the college of 43 members of the preparatory class, 132 members of the freshman class and 85 members of the sophomore class. The few of Clemson college prohibit expulsion. Dismissal means that the connection with Clemson college of the 257 cadets dismissed is permanently absorbed. These cadets may enter other colleges in or out of South Carolina.

The members of the discipline committee have just gone through the hardest experience they have ever had. They have been patient and have heard every cadet under the serious charge. They have worked deliberately and with the determination of wronging no man. Their action in dismissing the cadets was based on the testimony of the individual cadets as to the circumstances surrounding each case. A heavy load has been lifted from the hearts of the committee members. They have acted conscientiously throughout the entire trouble.

Following is a list of the cadets by classes who were dismissed from the college Wednesday.

SENATOR TILLMAN AT ATLANTA

He Will Be Treated for Nervous Breakdown by Experts.

Senator B. R. Tillman of South Carolina reached Atlanta at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning accompanied by his wife, and went at once to the Robertson sanitarium on Capitol avenue, where he will remain for several weeks, possibly a month, after which it is his intention to go abroad. A dispatch to The State from Atlanta says Senator Tillman came here for treatment for nervous breakdown, the result of overwork. While his present condition is not serious, it is such, it is stated at the sanitarium, that it might take a serious turn at any time. A reporter who called at the sanitarium and asked to see the senator received word from him that he was not feeling well enough to talk now, and suggested that he return later in the week. While he is off but little in weight, he is exceedingly feeble and has little of his customary animation.

He had reached the point where a collapse was liable almost at any moment and he determined to prevent it if possible. While his present complaint is nothing more than nervous breakdown, it is said his main object in taking a prolonged rest is to prevent a threatened attack of paralysis, indicated by the almost numbness of his left arm and a pain in his left side. While it can not be definitely stated now, the belief seems to be that he has taken hold of the matter in time and that his recovery will be effected.

KILLED HIMSELF.

A Lexington County Farmer Takes His Own Life by Shooting.

The Columbia Record says Mr. T. B. Edwards, the middle-aged Lexington county farmer, who at an early hour Tuesday, despondent over the sale under foreclosure of his home-place, shot himself in the head with suicidal intent, died in the Columbia hospital. Mr. Edwards leaves several children. He lived about three miles out of the town of Lexington.

OWN UP LIKE MEN.

THE DISMISSED CLEMSON CADETS MAKE MANLY STATEMENT.

Acknowledge They Made Serious Mistake and Accepts Their Punishment As Just.

To the Editor of The State: The newspaper reports of the recent trouble at Clemson college being more or less incorrect and not altogether fair and impartial, we, the undersigned ex-members of the Junior class desire to give to the people of the State what we conscientiously believe to be a true and impartial statement of the facts. We do not believe that any one knowingly made an incorrect statement; but we do know that some of the newspaper reports were written by men who knew but little about the facts which they attempted to state. Consequently, some blunders were made, and we consider it our duty to the people of the State to correct, as far as possible, these mistakes.

Taking up these statements in order, we desire to make the following corrections:

1. The newspaper articles referred to above stated that several orders and warnings were published at retreat on the evening of March 31st. As a matter of fact, only one order was published, and that called attention to paragraph 126 of the "Regulations for the Government of Cadets." The order in question was as follows:

"Headquarters Corps of Cadets, 'Clemson Agricultural College, 'Clemson College, S. C., 'March 31, 1908.

"General Orders No. 42. "Par. 1. The attention of the corps of cadets is especially directed to paragraph 126 of 'The Regulations for the Government of Cadets,' which reads as follows:

"Any cadet who leaves barracks without authority at any time between retreat and reveille, shall be dismissed.

"By order of Capt. Minus." As far as we have been able to find out, no one left barracks without authority during that time. The newspaper reports made it seem that this order was intended for the next day, when the order itself plainly shows that it was not.

2. A statement was made that telegrams were sent to Prof. R. H. Fike informing him that his services were no longer needed. R. H. Fike is a cadet and not a professor; and the telegram was sent in a spirit of fun, merely to let Fike know that the participants were carrying on their April Fool celebration. Cadet Fike was in no way connected with the affair.

3. The statement that the rest of the students were very indignant over the action of their comrades is a mistake, as practically the whole student body treated the matter as a joke.

4. Cadet T. S. Allen was not a leader in the celebration. In fact, there were no leaders, everybody acting for himself. Cadet Allen did, after the juniors were dismissed from college, advise the rest of the students to remain at college, but did so because he thought that by using his influence he might help to prevent the lower classmen from leaving with the juniors.

5. There was also a slight mistake made as to the number of students in the junior class. There were only 81 students in the class; 48 of these were dismissed and one suspended. Of the rest, several were on the athletic teams and would have gone on the "dark" had they not been persuaded by their classmates not to go.

We do not wish to cast any reflection on any one; our purpose being to correct some statements that might create a wrong impression among the people of the State.

In conclusion, we, the undersigned, wish to say to the people of this and other States that we, the dismissed cadets of Clemson college, do not feel the seriousness of the offense and think that the punishment received was just; and that we have absolutely no ill feelings toward the action of the discipline committee of Clemson college. We realize that the mistake was a serious one but we do not feel that any disgrace attends our dismissal.

Killing at Badham's. Ben Thompson, a negro employed by Dorchester Lumber Company, was killed at Badham on Tuesday by another negro named Tom Middleton. Thompson entered the cabin of Middleton early that morning and shortly after a fight started between the two and the ending as stated. Ed Lee, another negro, supposed to be mixed up in the affair, was captured about five miles from the scene of the killing. Thompson's throat was cut from ear to ear. As yet the possessor of the knife has not been located. Badham is located between Prosperville and the South Sea.

WHAT IT COST

TO RAISE A POUND OF COTTON

BY

Actual Figures as Work Was Done on a Georgia Farm and Reported for the Cultivator.

Mr. B. J. Wooten, a Georgia farmer, furnishes the Southern Cultivator with the actual amount it cost him to raise his cotton. He says he started in January, 1907, in a rough way to see what his cotton cost him per pound to raise it. He had eight acres planted and here is what it cost him to make it:

First breaking of stalks (two days).....	$ 1.00
Cleaning-off stalks (3 days).....	3.00
Running off stalks (2 days).....	2.00
Cost of guano.....	23.50
Handling guano home.....	2.00
Cost of manure and hauling.....	5.96
Cost of stowing guano.....	3.00
Cost of stowing manure.....	2.00
Cost of covering guano and manure.....	4.00
Breaking out the middles.....	5.00
Cost of cotton seed.....	5.50
Cost of planting.....	1.75
Harrowing.....	1.50
Cost of tools.....	3.00
Cost of ploughing first time.....	2.50
Hoing first time.....	7.00
Hoing second time.....	2.50
Hoing third time.....	3.50
Hoing fourth time.....	2.50
Hoing fifth time.....	3.00
Hoing sixth time.....	2.50
Cost of baskets for picking.....	1.25
Cost of picking 6,100 lbs. (50c per hundred).....	30.50
Cost of hauling to gin.....	2.50
Cost of ginning.....	6.00
Cost of bagging and tiering.....	4.20
Hauling to warehouse.....	3.00
Horse feed.....	52.00
Total.....	$132.90

Amount of cotton made, four bales; weight of all together, 1,950 pounds; cotton seed, 3,900 pounds.

The Editor of the Cultivator, in commenting on the above figures says "we often see estimates of growing cotton; but we have never seen a full itemized statement of the whole expense from January to January. Of course it would be a difficult account to keep. There are so many incidentals and indirect expenses. But two things stand out; a farmer must make a bale per acre to make any money, and second, he should have other crops and some form of livestock to profitably employ his time when not engaged in working his cotton. If he desires to prosper, it would certainly take the seed, even at $1.00 per hundred to pay interest on land and taxes. So we would have Mr. Wooten's cotton to cost him about 9 1/2 cents. We are satisfied this is a fair estimate of the cost of the crop for 1907, for labor and everything else was high.

ARE EXPELLED. Forty-eight out of ninety-two members of the junior class of Clemson College and one suspended on Saturday for disobedience of orders on April 1. The boys left college and went to Pendleton some miles away on Wednesday, when they had been commanded not to do so. They also sent disrespectful telegrams back to several of the professors. After full investigation the discipline committee sentenced forty-eight members of the junior class to expulsion and one to suspension.

Nearly all the dismissed cadets say that they realize that they did wrong and that they deserve punishment. There seems to be an absence of resentment. In fact those dismissed are anxious that no student shall leave on their account or because of any pledge that they would stick to the class. T. S. Allen, captain of the football team, says that he was a leader after the affair got started and that he has no kick coming on his punishment. He expects to do all in his power to keep any other student from going because of any contempt or their sympathy. His sensible action will be followed by many of the dismissed cadets.

The following are the names of the dismissed cadets: Loadholt, J. N.; Barwell, Bellinger, G. D.; Columbia, Murray, J. D.; Columbia, Horn, E. S.; Prosperity, Pennell, C. H.; Abbeville, Jenkins, R. VERY STRANGE CASE.

PREACHER ARRESTED FOR MURDER AT BRANCHVILLE.

By a Pretended Detective and Carried to Bamberg, Where the Pretended Detective Disappears.

Branchville had a genuine sensation on Tuesday when Rev. William Jefferson, alias William Blackman, colored, was arrested there, charged with the murder of his wife and two children in Alabama in 1902. The arrest was made by W. B. Williams, Jr., a colored detective of Bamberg county. Rev. Jefferson (as the brethren call him) has been preaching to his people at Branchville for the past two years and seemed to be well thought of by his congregation, but alas, murder will out.

It is reported that Rev. Jefferson chose as his text on Sunday the following scripture: "Thou shalt not kill." It is reported that there was a reward of $300 offered by the State of Alabama for the arrest of Jefferson and that his reputation in Alabama is not at all good.

It is further said that when the detective found Jefferson and ordered him to throw up his hands that instead of doing as commanded by the officer that he attempted to resist arrest and that the officer fired at him with a shot gun and hit him in the abdomen with several small shot.

The correspondent of The State at Bamberg says "the case of Rev. William Jefferson, alias William Blackman, has been discussed here on account of the fact that he is in the county jail here and is in a very precarious condition. The other negro, B. W. Williams, Jr., who claimed to be a detective and made the arrest of Jefferson on the charge of murder, has very mysteriously disappeared, and that without claiming any reward, though according to his own statement there is a reward of $300.

"Jefferson says that Williams called him out to see some pictures and when he went that Williams said 'you are my prisoner' and without more ado shot him in the abdomen. Jefferson says that he has never been in Alabama and that he is of the opinion that Williams must have had some private grudge against him. He also claims that he has never committed any crime.

"All search for the accuser in the case fails to reveal his whereabouts. When Williams had taken the injured man to Magistrate Zeigler he left for somewhere, but where is unknown. The shooting occurred in Orangeburg county and should be handled by the authorities of that county according to law, but the condition of the wounded man may not warrant his removal at this time."

This seems to have been an outrageous affair, and should be sifted to the very bottom. Williams, the negro, who shot the preacher, should be apprehended and made to answer for his crime. Did he have a warrant? If he did, where did he get it, and on whose affidavit was it issued? These are questions that should be looked into.

BEATEN BY NEGROES.

Two Men Seriously Hurt and Their Assaults in Jail.

A dispatch to The State from Atlanta says J. B. Sturgeon was badly cut and knocked unconscious and B. B. Sims seriously cut by eight negroes on Saturday night.

Sims and one of the negroes had a difficulty over a box of rifle cartridges and blows were exchanged. After this the negro disappeared and Sims supposed that the matter was at an end. Later on, however, the negro returned with seven friends, all well armed with knives and sticks. They attacked Sims and Sturgeon, who came to his aid, inflicting probably fatal wounds on the latter. Sturgeon was unconscious but hope is entertained for his recovery.

Six of the assaulters have been arrested and bound over to await trial and the officers are making every effort to capture the other two. This is the culmination of the growing feeling of antagonism between whites and negroes in that section.

PRISONERS ESCAPE.

Eight Break Out of Prison at Guilford, N. C.

A dispatch from Guilford, N. C., says all of the surrounding country for miles is being scoured by armed men searching for a lot of negro desperadoes who escaped from the county jail Tuesday. Among the escaped prisoners are several charged with murder and others convicted of manslaughter, burglary and various crimes. Eight prisoners in all escaped and up to noon only one was captured. He was "Prince Alfred," a young negro, who is insane.
