

TEDDY ROASTED

Mr. Willett, of New York Fiercely Attacks Roosevelt

ON FLOOR OF HOUSE

"The Passing of Roosevelt" His Theme—Calls Him a Gargoyls, a Pigmey Descendant of Dutch Trades People...

Washington, Jan. 18.—Characterizing President Roosevelt as a gargoyle and as "this pigmy descendant of Dutch trades people," and charging him with having established a court in the White House...

After declaring that in the face of all sorts of conditions Americans were possessed of a universal sense of humor...

"He plays tyrant, to be sure, he is a tyrant who fears the carnival tinker. He sees things that have a bad smell, but the fresh breeze of Capitol Hill doesn't let the odor linger."

"He tries our patience, but he is always good—to laugh at. Thank Heaven for the things that make us laugh. Without them we might easily become raw, untamed Anglo Saxons..."

"And Mr. Chairman, should the gentleman who view this curious figure with feigned admiration ask me how any son of Adam can be at the same time a hayseed, a jocular and a gargoyle, I can only answer that this particular hero is an eccentric exception to all rules..."

"He exists in a strain of the old Huguenot, but the French gentleman doesn't fly into a passion and lash the horse of a timid young girl whose only offense is inadvertent, passing the royal party in a public highway..."

"He tells us that Southern aristocrats were among his polygynous ancestors, but I can inform him that it is the wife of a Robert Toombs or of a Jefferson Davis had been treated by his Mrs. Minor Morris as he would have been called out or branded as a coward if he had been a thousand times a president."

"He is proud to insist that the family whose name he bears comes from Holland; but his ready surrender to the politicians of his own party makes it clear enough that fate burghers, who put up their shutters at the first beat of the war drum must have been his progenitors. He beats the Dutch, however, as even his severest critics must confess."

Mr. Willett charged that the President had bulldozed President Castro, had seen the Philippines brutally treated, had marooned Col. Stewart, whom he did not like, had kept a young lady from earning an honest living by telling the truth, had allowed "scandalous conditions" to exist in the army and navy, had compelled his subordinates "to act as hunting dogs for the Czars of Russia in trafficking down men who fought for liberty," had practically re-established the John Adams alien and sedition laws, had forced denials from the navy by allowing intolerable treatment of sailors "at the hands of the aristocracy of Annapolis officers," had permitted the degradation of soldiers at West Point, who had been put to mental work, and had given a Scotch verdict in connection with the alleged Panama Canal scandal.

"We have a King and a Court now," Mr. Willett exclaimed. "As good an imitation of the real thing known to the nobility of monarchical trading Dutchmen can concoct."

The President, Mr. Willett declared, showed his teeth at all real heroes, "because real heroes are gallant and war-worn to their bones."

COMING TO AMERICA

Many Laborers to Leave Stricken District

JUDGE CALLED DOWN

"The Magnet" Judge Omitted Cotton in Giving the Official Bulletin of the American Farmer.

The Augusta Chronicle says recently Judge, the pictorial publication, printed a magnificent cartoon, called "The Magnet," in which catalogued the "official bulletin of the American Farmer," as follows: "2,643,000,000 bushels of Indian corn grown in the year 1908—value of this crop, $1,615,000,000. This sum would pay all the interest-bearing debt of the United States; would dig the Panama Canal; would build fifty battleships."

The greatest hay crop in history gathered last year, 68,000,000 tons mown down, 12 per cent above the average of the preceding five years. Value of the crop, $621,000,000.

"660,000,000 bushels of wheat harvested in 1908, worth $620,000,000. The most valuable wheat crop hitherto produced. Value of the oat crop last year, $321,000,000. The yield was 789,000,000 bushels. The barley crop of 167,000,000 bushels—and with a value of $86,000,000—has been exceeded only once."

"The largest rice crop ever raised—27,000,000 bushels, value about $18,000,000.

"The sugar-beet crop not only the largest in history, but nearly one-half as large again as the average of the five preceding years.

"The value of the sugar-cane crop has only been equalled once. Sugar-beet and sugar-cane crops together are worth about $94,000,000.

"Value of products from American cows close to $800,000,000. Aggregate value of animals slaughtered and animal product of the farm is nearly $3,000,000,000.

"Agricultural products exported in 1908 valued at $1,017,000,000. "No wonder the ships sailing for American ports are full."

Commenting on this publication, Mr. George Nees, of Augusta, wrote Judge as follows: "Augusta, Ga., Jan. 11, 1909. "Publishers Judge, New York City, N. Y., Gentlemen: "I note in a recent edition of your publication a cartoon called 'The Magnet,' in which you catalog the products of the American farmer. In looking over the same I am rather surprised that you should have omitted therefrom the most important of all articles and that is the great Southern staple, cotton."

"As you doubtless know, the exports of cotton and its by-products, from the United States far exceed in value those of any other commodity. The aggregate worth of same for the past year being more than five hundred millions of dollars.

"I might also say that in the settlement of balance due by our country abroad our exports of cotton are indispensable, for we can rely upon the money from our exports of cotton every year, while no other product of the soil can be depended upon with the same certainty."

The following tribute to cotton from the pen of that gifted Southern writer, the late lamented Henry W. Grady, is interesting: "What a royal plant it is! The world waits in attendance on its growth. The shower that falls whispering on its leaves is heard around the earth. The sun that shines on it is tempered by the prayers of all the people. The frost that chills it, and the dew that descends from the stars is noted, and the trespass of a little worm on its green leaf is more to England than the advance of the Russian army on her Asian outpost. It is gold from the instant it puts forth its tiny shoot. Its fiber is current in every bank, and when loosing its fleece to the sun it floats a sunny banner that glorifies the field of the humble farmer, that man is marshaled under a flag that will compel the allegiance of the world, and wring a subsidy from every nation on earth. It is the heritage that God gave this people forever as their own when he arched our skies, established our mountains, girt us about with the ocean, loosed the breezes, tempered the sunshine and measured the rain. Ours and our children's forever! As princely a talent as ever came from His hand to mortal stewardship."

"Inasmuch as your publication has quite a large circulation in this section, I beg of you, in future, kindly do not leave off your official bulletin of the American farmer the chief product of this great Southland—the section of our common country that is developing in vaster strides than any other portion of it. (Signed) Yours truly, "GEORGE NEES."

Judge, in reply, has written Mr. Nees as follows: "New York, Jan. 13th, 1909. "Mr. George Nees, 9 Library Building, Augusta, Ga. "My Dear Sir—I thank you for your courteous letter of the 11th and have called it to the attention of the cartoonist, who must plead guilty to your charge, without reservation. "Very truly yours, (Signed) "JNO. A. SLEICHER."

Chicago Storm Bound. Chicago, Jan. 18.—A thick blanket of fog and smoke settled over the city and lake, extending almost the entire length of the city from north to south, early today, imperiling traffic and necessitating reduction of running schedules to the minimum rate of speed prescribed for fog conditions on all traffic lines.

THE LIEN LAW

BLACKLISTED BY THE STATE FARMERS' UNION.

UNSAVORY SCANDALS

GRAVE GRAFT CHARGES ARE LAID AGAINST Four Ministers in Connection With Hot Campaign for Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 18.—The political sensation of years was sprung here yesterday when four well known Baptist ministers of the city were accused by another minister, equally as well known, of having dickered with the managers of W. A. Magee, candidate for the Republican nomination for mayor of Pittsburgh.

The proposition, according to Rev. A. W. Fuller, pastor of the Second Baptist church, was one made to himself and Revs. Simo, Webb, Henderson and Scott, all in charge of churches last Wednesday, when they were called into the office of William A. Roberts, a rich business man and friend of Magee.

Rev. Dr. Fuller's statement is substantiated by witness, whom he had placed on the outside of the room and in the effect that the five ministers "boast" Magee from the pulpit, and at the same time deliver a letter which John Steel, another candidate for mayor, had written each minister personally.

For this each of the ministers present was to receive ten and there $100. Dr. Fuller says Rev. Mr. Scott, who made the arrangements with him, and who appeared to be conducting the affair outside of Roberts, assured the financier that all were willing to accept the terms, to quit fighting Magee, but he, Fuller, balked absolutely and refused to have anything to do with the matter.

Dr. Fuller declares that when he left the room, each of the ministers save himself had handed over the Steele letter, which was part of the bargain, the closure of which was to be each $100.

The statement of Dr. Fuller as to the conversation in the room between them was substantiated by several persons who overheard it. The matter promises to develop into a rather unsavory scandal.

Mr. Roberts declares that Dr. Fuller is angry with him, because he has refused to give him further advancement on a mortgage which he holds against his house, while the other ministers accused declare that they did nothing wrong, that Dr. Fuller, more than anyone else, arranged the meeting in the office of Mr. Roberts.

For this each of the ministers present was to receive ten and there $100. Dr. Fuller says Rev. Mr. Scott, who made the arrangements with him, and who appeared to be conducting the affair outside of Roberts, assured the financier that all were willing to accept the terms, to quit fighting Magee, but he, Fuller, balked absolutely and refused to have anything to do with the matter.

Dr. Fuller declares that when he left the room, each of the ministers save himself had handed over the Steele letter, which was part of the bargain, the closure of which was to be each $100.

The statement of Dr. Fuller as to the conversation in the room between them was substantiated by several persons who overheard it. The matter promises to develop into a rather unsavory scandal.

Mr. Roberts declares that Dr. Fuller is angry with him, because he has refused to give him further advancement on a mortgage which he holds against his house, while the other ministers accused declare that they did nothing wrong, that Dr. Fuller, more than anyone else, arranged the meeting in the office of Mr. Roberts.

For this each of the ministers present was to receive ten and there $100. Dr. Fuller says Rev. Mr. Scott, who made the arrangements with him, and who appeared to be conducting the affair outside of Roberts, assured the financier that all were willing to accept the terms, to quit fighting Magee, but he, Fuller, balked absolutely and refused to have anything to do with the matter.

Dr. Fuller declares that when he left the room, each of the ministers save himself had handed over the Steele letter, which was part of the bargain, the closure of which was to be each $100.

The statement of Dr. Fuller as to the conversation in the room between them was substantiated by several persons who overheard it. The matter promises to develop into a rather unsavory scandal.

Mr. Roberts declares that Dr. Fuller is angry with him, because he has refused to give him further advancement on a mortgage which he holds against his house, while the other ministers accused declare that they did nothing wrong, that Dr. Fuller, more than anyone else, arranged the meeting in the office of Mr. Roberts.

For this each of the ministers present was to receive ten and there $100. Dr. Fuller says Rev. Mr. Scott, who made the arrangements with him, and who appeared to be conducting the affair outside of Roberts, assured the financier that all were willing to accept the terms, to quit fighting Magee, but he, Fuller, balked absolutely and refused to have anything to do with the matter.

Dr. Fuller declares that when he left the room, each of the ministers save himself had handed over the Steele letter, which was part of the bargain, the closure of which was to be each $100.

The statement of Dr. Fuller as to the conversation in the room between them was substantiated by several persons who overheard it. The matter promises to develop into a rather unsavory scandal.

Mr. Roberts declares that Dr. Fuller is angry with him, because he has refused to give him further advancement on a mortgage which he holds against his house, while the other ministers accused declare that they did nothing wrong, that Dr. Fuller, more than anyone else, arranged the meeting in the office of Mr. Roberts.

For this each of the ministers present was to receive ten and there $100. Dr. Fuller says Rev. Mr. Scott, who made the arrangements with him, and who appeared to be conducting the affair outside of Roberts, assured the financier that all were willing to accept the terms, to quit fighting Magee, but he, Fuller, balked absolutely and refused to have anything to do with the matter.

Dr. Fuller declares that when he left the room, each of the ministers save himself had handed over the Steele letter, which was part of the bargain, the closure of which was to be each $100.

The statement of Dr. Fuller as to the conversation in the room between them was substantiated by several persons who overheard it. The matter promises to develop into a rather unsavory scandal.

Mr. Roberts declares that Dr. Fuller is angry with him, because he has refused to give him further advancement on a mortgage which he holds against his house, while the other ministers accused declare that they did nothing wrong, that Dr. Fuller, more than anyone else, arranged the meeting in the office of Mr. Roberts.

For this each of the ministers present was to receive ten and there $100. Dr. Fuller says Rev. Mr. Scott, who made the arrangements with him, and who appeared to be conducting the affair outside of Roberts, assured the financier that all were willing to accept the terms, to quit fighting Magee, but he, Fuller, balked absolutely and refused to have anything to do with the matter.

Dr. Fuller declares that when he left the room, each of the ministers save himself had handed over the Steele letter, which was part of the bargain, the closure of which was to be each $100.

The statement of Dr. Fuller as to the conversation in the room between them was substantiated by several persons who overheard it. The matter promises to develop into a rather unsavory scandal.

THE LIEN LAW

GRAVE GRAFT CHARGES ARE LAID AGAINST Four Ministers in Connection With Hot Campaign for Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh.

UNSAVORY SCANDALS

GRAVE GRAFT CHARGES ARE LAID AGAINST Four Ministers in Connection With Hot Campaign for Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 18.—The political sensation of years was sprung here yesterday when four well known Baptist ministers of the city were accused by another minister, equally as well known, of having dickered with the managers of W. A. Magee, candidate for the Republican nomination for mayor of Pittsburgh.

The proposition, according to Rev. A. W. Fuller, pastor of the Second Baptist church, was one made to himself and Revs. Simo, Webb, Henderson and Scott, all in charge of churches last Wednesday, when they were called into the office of William A. Roberts, a rich business man and friend of Magee.

Rev. Dr. Fuller's statement is substantiated by witness, whom he had placed on the outside of the room and in the effect that the five ministers "boast" Magee from the pulpit, and at the same time deliver a letter which John Steel, another candidate for mayor, had written each minister personally.

For this each of the ministers present was to receive ten and there $100. Dr. Fuller says Rev. Mr. Scott, who made the arrangements with him, and who appeared to be conducting the affair outside of Roberts, assured the financier that all were willing to accept the terms, to quit fighting Magee, but he, Fuller, balked absolutely and refused to have anything to do with the matter.

Dr. Fuller declares that when he left the room, each of the ministers save himself had handed over the Steele letter, which was part of the bargain, the closure of which was to be each $100.

The statement of Dr. Fuller as to the conversation in the room between them was substantiated by several persons who overheard it. The matter promises to develop into a rather unsavory scandal.

Mr. Roberts declares that Dr. Fuller is angry with him, because he has refused to give him further advancement on a mortgage which he holds against his house, while the other ministers accused declare that they did nothing wrong, that Dr. Fuller, more than anyone else, arranged the meeting in the office of Mr. Roberts.

For this each of the ministers present was to receive ten and there $100. Dr. Fuller says Rev. Mr. Scott, who made the arrangements with him, and who appeared to be conducting the affair outside of Roberts, assured the financier that all were willing to accept the terms, to quit fighting Magee, but he, Fuller, balked absolutely and refused to have anything to do with the matter.

Dr. Fuller declares that when he left the room, each of the ministers save himself had handed over the Steele letter, which was part of the bargain, the closure of which was to be each $100.

The statement of Dr. Fuller as to the conversation in the room between them was substantiated by several persons who overheard it. The matter promises to develop into a rather unsavory scandal.

Mr. Roberts declares that Dr. Fuller is angry with him, because he has refused to give him further advancement on a mortgage which he holds against his house, while the other ministers accused declare that they did nothing wrong, that Dr. Fuller, more than anyone else, arranged the meeting in the office of Mr. Roberts.

For this each of the ministers present was to receive ten and there $100. Dr. Fuller says Rev. Mr. Scott, who made the arrangements with him, and who appeared to be conducting the affair outside of Roberts, assured the financier that all were willing to accept the terms, to quit fighting Magee, but he, Fuller, balked absolutely and refused to have anything to do with the matter.

Dr. Fuller declares that when he left the room, each of the ministers save himself had handed over the Steele letter, which was part of the bargain, the closure of which was to be each $100.

The statement of Dr. Fuller as to the conversation in the room between them was substantiated by several persons who overheard it. The matter promises to develop into a rather unsavory scandal.

Mr. Roberts declares that Dr. Fuller is angry with him, because he has refused to give him further advancement on a mortgage which he holds against his house, while the other ministers accused declare that they did nothing wrong, that Dr. Fuller, more than anyone else, arranged the meeting in the office of Mr. Roberts.

For this each of the ministers present was to receive ten and there $100. Dr. Fuller says Rev. Mr. Scott, who made the arrangements with him, and who appeared to be conducting the affair outside of Roberts, assured the financier that all were willing to accept the terms, to quit fighting Magee, but he, Fuller, balked absolutely and refused to have anything to do with the matter.

Dr. Fuller declares that when he left the room, each of the ministers save himself had handed over the Steele letter, which was part of the bargain, the closure of which was to be each $100.

The statement of Dr. Fuller as to the conversation in the room between them was substantiated by several persons who overheard it. The matter promises to develop into a rather unsavory scandal.

Mr. Roberts declares that Dr. Fuller is angry with him, because he has refused to give him further advancement on a mortgage which he holds against his house, while the other ministers accused declare that they did nothing wrong, that Dr. Fuller, more than anyone else, arranged the meeting in the office of Mr. Roberts.

For this each of the ministers present was to receive ten and there $100. Dr. Fuller says Rev. Mr. Scott, who made the arrangements with him, and who appeared to be conducting the affair outside of Roberts, assured the financier that all were willing to accept the terms, to quit fighting Magee, but he, Fuller, balked absolutely and refused to have anything to do with the matter.

Dr. Fuller declares that when he left the room, each of the ministers save himself had handed over the Steele letter, which was part of the bargain, the closure of which was to be each $100.

The statement of Dr. Fuller as to the conversation in the room between them was substantiated by several persons who overheard it. The matter promises to develop into a rather unsavory scandal.

Mr. Roberts declares that Dr. Fuller is angry with him, because he has refused to give him further advancement on a mortgage which he holds against his house, while the other ministers accused declare that they did nothing wrong, that Dr. Fuller, more than anyone else, arranged the meeting in the office of Mr. Roberts.

For this each of the ministers present was to receive ten and there $100. Dr. Fuller says Rev. Mr. Scott, who made the arrangements with him, and who appeared to be conducting the affair outside of Roberts, assured the financier that all were willing to accept the terms, to quit fighting Magee, but he, Fuller, balked absolutely and refused to have anything to do with the matter.

Dr. Fuller declares that when he left the room, each of the ministers save himself had handed over the Steele letter, which was part of the bargain, the closure of which was to be each $100.

The statement of Dr. Fuller as to the conversation in the room between them was substantiated by several persons who overheard it. The matter promises to develop into a rather unsavory scandal.

THE LIEN LAW

GRAVE GRAFT CHARGES ARE LAID AGAINST Four Ministers in Connection With Hot Campaign for Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh.

UNSAVORY SCANDALS

GRAVE GRAFT CHARGES ARE LAID AGAINST Four Ministers in Connection With Hot Campaign for Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 18.—The political sensation of years was sprung here yesterday when four well known Baptist ministers of the city were accused by another minister, equally as well known, of having dickered with the managers of W. A. Magee, candidate for the Republican nomination for mayor of Pittsburgh.

The proposition, according to Rev. A. W. Fuller, pastor of the Second Baptist church, was one made to himself and Revs. Simo, Webb, Henderson and Scott, all in charge of churches last Wednesday, when they were called into the office of William A. Roberts, a rich business man and friend of Magee.

Rev. Dr. Fuller's statement is substantiated by witness, whom he had placed on the outside of the room and in the effect that the five ministers "boast" Magee from the pulpit, and at the same time deliver a letter which John Steel, another candidate for mayor, had written each minister personally.

For this each of the ministers present was to receive ten and there $100. Dr. Fuller says Rev. Mr. Scott, who made the arrangements with him, and who appeared to be conducting the affair outside of Roberts, assured the financier that all were willing to accept the terms, to quit fighting Magee, but he, Fuller, balked absolutely and refused to have anything to do with the matter.

Dr. Fuller declares that when he left the room, each of the ministers save himself had handed over the Steele letter, which was part of the bargain, the closure of which was to be each $100.

The statement of Dr. Fuller as to the conversation in the room between them was substantiated by several persons who overheard it. The matter promises to develop into a rather unsavory scandal.

Mr. Roberts declares that Dr. Fuller is angry with him, because he has refused to give him further advancement on a mortgage which he holds against his house, while the other ministers accused declare that they did nothing wrong, that Dr. Fuller, more than anyone else, arranged the meeting in the office of Mr. Roberts.

For this each of the ministers present was to receive ten and there $100. Dr. Fuller says Rev. Mr. Scott, who made the arrangements with him, and who appeared to be conducting the affair outside of Roberts, assured the financier that all were willing to accept the terms, to quit fighting Magee, but he, Fuller, balked absolutely and refused to have anything to do with the matter.

Dr. Fuller declares that when he left the room, each of the ministers save himself had handed over the Steele letter, which was part of the bargain, the closure of which was to be each $100.

The statement of Dr. Fuller as to the conversation in the room between them was substantiated by several persons who overheard it. The matter promises to develop into a rather unsavory scandal.

Mr. Roberts declares that Dr. Fuller is angry with him, because he has refused to give him further advancement on a mortgage which he holds against his house, while the other ministers accused declare that they did nothing wrong, that Dr. Fuller, more than anyone else, arranged the meeting in the office of Mr. Roberts.

For this each of the ministers present was to receive ten and there $100. Dr. Fuller says Rev. Mr. Scott, who made the arrangements with him, and who appeared to be conducting the affair outside of Roberts, assured the financier that all were willing to accept the terms, to quit fighting Magee, but he, Fuller, balked absolutely and refused to have anything to do with the matter.

Dr. Fuller declares that when he left the room, each of the ministers save himself had handed over the Steele letter, which was part of the bargain, the closure of which was to be each $100.

The statement of Dr. Fuller as to the conversation in the room between them was substantiated by several persons who overheard it. The matter promises to develop into a rather unsavory scandal.

Mr. Roberts declares that Dr. Fuller is angry with him, because he has refused to give him further advancement on a mortgage which he holds against his house, while the other ministers accused declare that they did nothing wrong, that Dr. Fuller, more than anyone else, arranged the meeting in the office of Mr. Roberts.

For this each of the ministers present was to receive ten and there $100. Dr. Fuller says Rev. Mr. Scott, who made the arrangements with him, and who appeared to be conducting the affair outside of Roberts, assured the financier that all were willing to accept the terms, to quit fighting Magee, but he, Fuller, balked absolutely and refused to have anything to do with the matter.

Dr. Fuller declares that when he left the room, each of the ministers save himself had handed over the Steele letter, which was part of the bargain, the closure of which was to be each $100.

The statement of Dr. Fuller as to the conversation in the room between them was substantiated by several persons who overheard it. The matter promises to develop into a rather unsavory scandal.

Mr. Roberts declares that Dr. Fuller is angry with him, because he has refused to give him further advancement on a mortgage which he holds against his house, while the other ministers accused declare that they did nothing wrong, that Dr. Fuller, more than anyone else, arranged the meeting in the office of Mr. Roberts.

For this each of the ministers present was to receive ten and there $100. Dr. Fuller says Rev. Mr. Scott, who made the arrangements with him, and who appeared to be conducting the affair outside of Roberts, assured the financier that all were willing to accept the terms, to quit fighting Magee, but he, Fuller, balked absolutely and refused to have anything to do with the matter.

Dr. Fuller declares that when he left the room, each of the ministers save himself had handed over the Steele letter, which was part of the bargain, the closure of which was to be each $100.

The statement of Dr. Fuller as to the conversation in the room between them was substantiated by several persons who overheard it. The matter promises to develop into a rather unsavory scandal.

Mr. Roberts declares that Dr. Fuller is angry with him, because he has refused to give him further advancement on a mortgage which he holds against his house, while the other ministers accused declare that they did nothing wrong, that Dr. Fuller, more than anyone else, arranged the meeting in the office of Mr. Roberts.

For this each of the ministers present was to receive ten and there $100. Dr. Fuller says Rev. Mr. Scott, who made the arrangements with him, and who appeared to be conducting the affair outside of Roberts, assured the financier that all were willing to accept the terms, to quit fighting Magee, but he, Fuller, balked absolutely and refused to have anything to do with the matter.

Dr. Fuller declares that when he left the room, each of the ministers save himself had handed over the Steele letter, which was part of the bargain, the closure of which was to be each $100.

The statement of Dr. Fuller as to the conversation in the room between them was substantiated by several persons who overheard it. The matter promises to develop into a rather unsavory scandal.

SOUTHERN STATES SUPPLY COMPANY

Machinery Supplies Plumbing Supplies

PHONE 164. COLUMBIA, S. C.

If It's GIBBES It's Good!

Next Week! Watch This Space.

WILL plane up to 12 inches in width, and up to 12 inches in thickness. Used for planing and moulding in medium and small planing mills and in the capacity of 100 to 200 feet per day. Will form steel cylinder heads. The best. Accurate. Quick. Reliable. For further particulars write to Southern States Supply Company, 164 Phone, Columbia, S. C.

FREE SAMPLE OFFER 15 DAYS ONLY

Beautiful, Bright, Sparkling, Famous

Ladies or Gentlemen's $5 BARNATTO Diamond Ring

Brilliance equals genuine—detection baffles experts—fills every requirement exacting—pleases the most fastidious, at only one thirtieth the cost of real diamond.

A Genuine Diamond

100 Per Cent. PROFIT

For you, absolutely without effort on your part. We want good, honest representatives everywhere, in every locality, city or country, in fact, in every country throughout the world, both men and women, young or old, who will not sell or pawn... The Barnatno Simulation Diamonds under the pretense that they are Genuine Gems, as such action with simulation diamonds sometimes leads to trouble or embarrassment.

CLASSIFIED COLUMN

For Sale—Indian games, brown Leghorns, buff Orpingtons and Beagle hounds. Poultry, $1 and up, according to quality. John L. Jolly, Anderson, S. C., Route No. 3.

Cabbage Plants—Garden plants, grown in the open air, will stand the coldest weather. Prices, one to four thousand, $1.50; four to nine thousand, $1.25; nine thousand and $1 per thousand. We have special express rates—Write us for our agent's price and proposition. N. H. Blitch Co., Meggett, S. C., the largest truck farm in the world.

The Kewanee System of water supply meets every requirement of domestic service and affords fire protection to country residences. Thousands in use. For information and prices address S. S. Larkman, Columbia, S. C.

We are buying Cow Peas—Advise us the number of bushels you have for sale and send us samples; we will make you our best price delivered Charleston. I. M. Pearlstone & Sons, 701-703 East Bay St., Charleston, S. C.

ORIENTAL RUG COMPANY, 1101 Cathedral St., Baltimore, Md. We make you handsome and durable Rugs from your old, worn-out carpet, any size to fit a room or hall. Let us send you a price list; just write for one.

Shop by Mail—Send for our Catalog of bargains, it's free. E. Dowd & Co., Mail Order Merchants, Box 302, Atlanta, Ga.

THE ONLY HOUSE IN COLUMBIA

CARRYING THE "Original Genuine Gandy Belt"

Carrying also Rubber and Leather Belts

Write us for prices on anything in Machinery Supply Line

COLUMBIA SUPPLY COMPANY, 823 West Gervin Street, COLUMBIA, S. C.