THE BARNWELL PEOPLE.

VOL. XXXII

.

BARNWELL, S. C., THURSDAY, AUGUST 19, 1909

the second second				, La
PLANT STRUCK	A FIEND HUNG	POOR BILL TAFT	WAR TO THE LIMIT	A FATAL FIGHT	MAN UNDER THE BED	. DIED A HERO
By Lightning and Manager Knocked Senseless.	PAYS THE DEATH PENALTY FOR HIS ATTEMPTED CRIME.	The Wicked Hitchcock Said to be Plotting to	WITH NO QUARTER ASKED OR GIVEN WITH CONTROL	A Gilted Lover and Brother Killed Brothers	BED A LAPI'S ANKLE.	Brave Engineer, Fatally Hurt Told Rescuers
	The Negro Who Attempted to As-	a second s	Of the Republican National Organi-	AF THE VALUE I SAV	The Bold and Daring Act of a Ne-	TO ATTENN OTUERO
EQUIPMENT RUINED	sault a Young-Lady Near George- town Confessed Before Execution.	UNDO ALL HIS PLANS	zation as the Stake Is Declared by the Progressive Republicans.	OF THE YOUNG LADY	gro, For Which He Will Pay Very Dearly.
The Wireless Telegraph Station at	At Georgetown on Friday Alfred	The second bound by Giving	War to the limit with no quarter	The Dead Men's Father in Attempt-	Mrs. Iverna Hicks, who lives in	Passengers who Were in Bristol
Charleston Torn Up by a Flash	ackson, alias "Slippery Joint," who was convicted of an assault and an	Week Kneed Democrate a Change	asked or given and with the control of the Republican national organi-	ing to Avenge Their Death by	Marietta, Ga., returned home at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday evening with her	Wreck Tell Graphic Story of the
of .Lightning-Manager .Ferrick				Shooting Their Murderers Kills a	two children and her brother-in-law,	Bravery of Engineer Bush, Who
Had Taken Off Head Harness	on a young white school teacher at	i is change for their support of the	is officially declared b ythe Progres-	Man Passing That Way by His	Charley Hicks, a 12-year-old boy.	Was Fatally Hurt in the Accident
When Bolt Struck.	the special term of court which was held on July 27, paid the death	Taft Program.	sive Republicans. The Republican National Conven-	Wild Shooting.	Her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Horn, with whom she and her	That Wrecked His Train.
The Charleston Post says William	penalty for his crime on the gal-	President Taft's well-directed ef-		The Latin temperament is ever	husband live, were away and the	Passengers who were on the
J. Ferrick, manager of the wireless	and the second s	forts in fixing his policy towards the	- Angeneration	ready to fly to extremes, and, par-	house was empty. The Atlanta Journal says Mrs.	Southern train wrecked near Bristol, telegraph plant at Hampton park,	ce which was passed upon him by	South are threatened with rupture		ticularly when jealously supplies the	Hicks entered and went into one of	Va., Thursday evening arrived at
was knocked senseless and his in-	Judge John S. Wilson to hang on	if not destruction as the result of	and how to revise it furnishes the	motive. Thus it was that the little	the downstairs bedrooms. She de-	Atlanta Friday night, bringing de-strument ruined Wednesday after-		the political games being played in		village of Genzano, near Rome,,	posited some bundles on a chair she	tails of the bravery of Engineer Samuel Bush, of Knoxville, who died noon by a lightning bolt which	Jenkins, just before leaving his	connection with the appointment of	posing forces. A dispatch from Chi- cago says:	Italy, was a few days ago provided	carried and then walked over to the bed in one corner and began to	Friday as a result of his injuries.
struck his office at about 4:30. The operator barely escaped being killed,	cell for the gallows, confessed his crime, saying that he had had a	Consus supervisors, says I. H. MCG.,	Senator Albert B. Cummins of	with all the elements of a lurid mel-	take off her hat. As she was doing	Bush was slowly and painfully the fact that he had removed his	dream in which the Lord told him		Iowa homeward bound from Wash-	odrama. Evaristo Apenni was mad-	so a negro reached out from under	working his way out of the wreck ear pleces just a moment before	to tell the truth before he died.	The News and Courier.	ington, flung down the gauntlet and	ly enamored of a certain Esmeralda		of his engine, scalded and fright- fully bruised, when the few pas-
the bolt hit, saving him from be-	Jenkins up to this time had denied		for all practical purposes officially and formally delivered the political	Bernono, who, however, had given	She tried to jerk loose, but the	sengers who retained their senses, ing electrocuted. It will be neces-	that he was the guilty party and at his trial he put up the plea of an	The second and the second second	ultimatum mblab anone bastilities	her heart to Arturo Caroggi.	negro held her tightly She scream-	dug into the mass of twisted and
sary to rush new instruments from New York to put the wireless sta-		to these places would be made by	between the Progressive and the old	Between the Apenni and Bernoni families a good deal of rancor had	ed and the little boy screamed al-	burning iron to meet him.
tion here into working order again.	While on the gallows he made no	Director Durand, of the census bu-	order, which has aligned in Wash-	arison on this account which had	so. Their cries frightened the ne-	He was nitted out upon the ground
Mr. Ferrick was sitting at his		reau, with the President's approval.		hitherto only found expresson in	gro, who loosed his hold on Mrs.	and a hurried call for physicians resulted in the discovery that there enty ching no build boing; more mil		The big items emphasized by Sen- ator Cummins as critical points to	scowling looks and muttered threats.	Hicks and began to scramble from under the bed.	was not a doctor on the train.
afternoon, as usual, ready to receive			be pushed to the fore by the Pro-	Evariato Apenni, boning with	She herself picked up her two	As the passengers began a hunt or send messages to and from the sea, and through some intuitive		H. Hitchcock, aided by the Republi-		rage, under the effects of a new	children and ran toward the front	for whiskey to stimulate him and feeling, most probably, with the		can referees from the various Dem-		repulse by the enchanting Emeraida, was walking through the streets of	of the house. The little boy, how-	were breaking open suit cases in lightning flashing in a lively manner	behalf of the condemned man on the	ocratic States.	of organized Republicanism men	Gengano, In company with his
about him, he took off his head har-			who will stand absolutely by plat-	brother, Saverio, when they met	ed. He tried to climb through a	look at his old engine, as hopeless ness for the time being. Hardly had	Scurry asked Jenkins if he had any-	for several days that so far as South Carolina was concerned no appoint-		Achille and Cesare Bernoni, broth-	window but he could only set nart-	When they came to him with the he done so, when a blinding flash	plied "No"		every convention, local, Congress-	ers of the fair enslaver, and the lat-	ly across the sill.	liquor, he begged them to look after accompanied by a terrific crash of thunder, swept through his office,	The sheriff sprung the trap at	without the approval of John G.	ional or State between now and 1912	ler's father. A few brief but ex- asperating words were exchanged,	The negro, too, ran toward the	the comfort of the passengers. Told and he knew no more until about		Capers and Leumas Blalock, and	where there are enough Progressive	and soon, long-bladed knives were	back of the house and being un-	that no passengers had been injured, twenty minutes later, when he found	sixteen and a half minutes before	that in Virginia, another rock-rib-	Republicans to make it worth while.	hissing through the air. The two	able to get through the door, turn-himself lying on his back half way	life was prohounced extinct by Drs.	bed Democratic State, Congressman Slemp and Alvah Martin would be		Bernonis, on the one side, and the	led to the window. He prushed the	this whiskey. I want you men to into his sleeping room, fifteen feet	onn bunjer, dunient and moorer.			two Apennis on the other separated	through the window and to the	smell my breath and testify, if need away. The large glass of the win-	of nervousness when he walked up	would be announced as to the ap-	ular schedules as expert investiga-	for a brief moment to get breath, and then fell to again with redoubled	ground.	be, that I had not been drinking ed, and investigation showed that	the steps on the gallows except that	pointingents.	tion demonstrates to be necessary	vigor.	Possies were quickly formed and	when this happened."
his ear-pieces, which he had remov-	perspiration was streaming from his	In addition to this it was learn-	and at the same time conforming	The second round was brief but	search for the hegro begun. Every	Although suffering horrible ago-

his ear-pieces, which he had remov-	perspiration was streaming from his	In addition to this it was learn-	and at the same time conforming	Vigor.	search for the hegro begun. Every	Although suffering horrible ago-
ed from his head just before the	face.	ed that Cecil Lyon, the head of the			negro who in any way ansewered	nies, the brave engineer would not stroke, were burned and useless,	The execution passed off quietly	Republican machine in Texas, has	tion.	nony foints for advantage been an	the description rendered was at	tounch the stimulant until four of and his family took charge of the	been here for several days holding		changed before the Anonnie' bairon	restou. About a.ou o clock it ounce	the men had smelled his breath and promised to bear witness to his sob-
were burned out and the city tele-			in commissioner at the earliest prac-	staugh home and the Dessents fall	daj morning a negro it or it jones phone receiver fused. Fortunately	One of the witnesses of the ere-	that everything is now cut and dri-	ticable moment to furnish this in-	to the ground montally wounded	old, named Alvin Gibson, was arrest-	"'All an engineer has is his rec-the office did not catch on fire with	cution fainted when the trup wee	ed for naming at least ten Repub-	tormation to Congress.	But the bettle was not yet over for	ed at a negro suburb of Marietta	ord," he said feebly, "and he cannot sprung and was taken to the jail	lican supervisors in the Lone Star	o. And, particularly, no oppo-	a new combatant appeared on the		afford to have anything against nouse of the doctors, and acto pros	State, which sends to Congress a	sition to Fresident fait-whom thei	Anld	The boy identified this weard and	that." And Engineer Rush went out crashed through the glass in front	ent for attention.	delegation of sixteen Democrats. That at least ten of the sixteen su-	oughly progressive program in hand		the officers are sure that he is the one by whom Mrs. Hicks was at-	upon his last run with his record, of him and struck his instrument,		pervisors will be Republicans is	for his administration_at least un-	who, maddened by the sight of his		spotless.
putting them out of business. He		practically settled, and it is possible	til the Presidential policy demon-	two sons lying on the ground with	back of the head of the negro who	Engineer Rush was a native of was somewhat bruised from the		that even a greater division may be	strates the contrary	their me-blood eboing away, pulled	seized her and is unable to say what	Bedford county, Virginia, being a shock and the violence with wheih	Many Lives Lost and Many Houses	made.	"What immediate step will be	out his revolver and fired two shous	was his appearance. The little boy,	member of an old and widely known he was hurled from his chair upon			taken by the Progressives?" Sena-	at the Apennis.	however, got a good look at the ne-	family in that section of the State, the floor, but beyond a ringing in	Are Destroyed.	Spencer Adams, the recognized	tor Cummins was asked.	. Weither bullet took enect. Acuit-	gro when the latter pushed him from	He had been in the service of the one of his ears today he is unhurt. A rush order has been sent by	A dispatch from Monterey, Mexico,	"boss" of North Carolina Republi-	"We shall present the issue flatly	ie bernoul, nowever, although lying	the window.	Southern Railway for more- than the wireless manager to New York	says the Santa Catarina River has	can politics, has also been talking	to every nepublican convention be-	wounded on the ground, had yet sufficient strength left to enable him	He says that the one now under	thirty years. He leaves an estate for new equipment his plant here.	returned to its banks, leaving a	over matters with Mr. Hitchcock.	tween the present and the National	to draw his revolver also. Four	arrest is exactly like the assailant of	valued at $100,000. and he thinks that by early next	score of desolation and destruction	When seen and asked what would be	Convention of 1912 where it is pos-	times be mulled the trigger and al.	Mrs. Hicks, even to a peculiar tear week he will be able to receive and	in the southern part of the city.	done in a general way regarding	sible for the issue to be presented.	though he missed his entegonist one	in his overalls. It has been found,	ELEPHANT SHARK CAUGHT. sand messages again, with his usual	Fourteen lives are known to have	these appointments, Judge Adams	Inat issue is. Suall the men now	of the shots struck a nasser by	too, that the shoes of this negro fit facility.	been lost, and estimates place the	knew nothing about them except	in control of the party s destines	Francesso Valente who was killed.	exactly into the impressions made	Fishermen Have Exciting Battle Further examination of the plant	number as high as fifty. The exact	what he had heard or read in the	be permitted further to distogard	Moonwhile on hearing the firing	by Mrs. Hicks' assailant in a plot of	With Die Elsh failed to show any damage to the	figures will never be known, as the		plain party declarations?"	carabineers hurried to the snot and	soft earth when he jumped from the	With Big Fish.
tall mast or to the superstructure	Barrio of San Luisito, where most			on their appearance the Apennis	rear window. He is being held for	A shark of the elephant species.
of the wireless equipment. The	of the damage occurred, is inhabit-			took to flight. The father of the	trial.	said to be the largest ever caught whole damage was confined to the	ed by the poorer classes mostly, and			Bernonis was arrested with the re-	Mrs. Hicks is unhurt, save for a	along the Jersey coast, is on exhioffice and instrument. It was a	many occupied houses were washed away. Over 600 houses have been		Gave Patient Chloroform and He	volver in his hand and his two sons	nervous shock from fright. She is	bition in a Long Branch, N. J. shop. providential escape from instant	washed away in this one district, and		A second s	were taken to the hospital, where	the wife of Will Hicks, a fireman	It is twelve feet long and weighs death that the manager had, and if	practically all those left standing are			they expired. After a brief chase	on the W. & A. road. Mr. Hicks was on his run at the time his wife	1,000 pounds. It was capturet of
he had not removed his ear pieces.		lican members of Congress and sev-	The sudden and excited departu e	Saverio Apenni was caught by the	man attached by the name	Long Uranch by a fishing crew after he would have been fatally shocked		en Democrats, and as President Taft	of Dr. Philip Sussman from the	police, but so far Evaristo has elud-	was attacked by the negro.	a vicious battle.
by the bolt.	en district a few days ago and spent		apartment of Mrs. Abranam Lazerc-	ed the vigilance of his pursuers. •	COMPANY TO MAKE PICKERS.	The shark, which is of the man-
The operator at Hampton park	the time in cleaning the deposits of		witz, in the East Side tenement, New			eating variety and with a reputation has been on duty here about two years, coming to Charleston from	mud from the houses. Many fami-	ter party in States like North Caro-	York, before daylight Wednesday,	RUN DOWN BY SURREY.		for combativeness, was feasting in New York, and has been in the wire-	lies have lost all their possessions		was explained later by the doctor to		Preparing to Equip Two of Fourch-	a school of mackerel when the half less service for a longer time, but	and there is great suffering among	Missouri, where there is a maraked	Coroner Harburger as being occa-	Rev. W. P. Jacobs Seriously Hurt in	er Machines.	ermen speared him. For a half hour the monster towed the fish-less service for a longer time, but he has never before had such a close			sioned by his fear that the woman	Washington		arman's bost around the ocean he-he has never before had such a close	them. In the city proper several houses caved in as a result of the			Washington.	The Augusta Chronicle says a	ermen's boat around the ocean be-
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub-	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of	Washington. Refusing to be taken to the hos-	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great.	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats.	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in-	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs.
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi-	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending.	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per-	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza-	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint-	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil-	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago.	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car-	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem-	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler-	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth-
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami-	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C.,	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers.
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec-	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle-	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth-
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor-	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in-	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers.
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice.	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi-	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE.
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, feaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi-	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform.	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company.	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, feaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi-	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami-	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop-	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office.
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company.	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion,"	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur-	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office.
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company.	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex-	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prose-	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company. CRUSADE ON COCAINE SELLERS.	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex- cept that where there is an odd num-	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told the coroner, "and I left the house,	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prose-	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who tied in the election for aldemen have
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company.	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the Santa Catarine.	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex- cept that where there is an odd num- ber of Representatives the odd main	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told the coroner, "and I left the house, telling the mother that I was going	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prose- cuted," said the minister, "as I know	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture of the mackine will be quickly pro- ceeded with.	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who tied in the election for aldemen have hit on a novel way to decide who
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company. CRUSADE ON COCAINE SELLERS. Two White Doctors and Fifteen Ne-	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the Santa Catarine. PARCHED BY DROUGHT.	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex- cept that where there is an odd num- ber of Representatives the odd main will be from the Republican ranks. It is known that nothing can be gained by the appointment of a few	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told the coroner, "and I left the house, telling the mother that I was going for my instruments. Had I remain- ed there until they discovered that	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prose- cuted," said the minister, "as I know it was not his fault."	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture of the machine will be quickly pro- ceeded with. The plan is to have the inventor	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who tied in the election for aldemen have hit on a novel way to decide who shall have the office. A dispatch from Greenville save: "The city
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company. CRUSADE ON COCAINE SELLERS.	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the Santa Catarine.	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex- cept that where there is an odd num- ber of Representatives the odd main will be from the Republican ranks. It is known that nothing can be gained by the appointment of a few Republican supervisors in any of	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told the coroner, "and I left the house, telling the mother that I was going for my instruments. Had I remain- ed there until they discovered that he was dead they and the neighbors	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prose- cuted," said the minister, "as I know it was not his fault." Despite the promise of the police to the injured man, however, the	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture of the machine will be quickly pro- ceeded with. The plan is to have the inventor go to one of the big manufacturies	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who tied in the election for aldemen have hit on a novel way to decide who shall have the office. A dispatch from Greenville says: "The city Democratic committee found that C.
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company. CRUSADE ON COCAINE SELLERS. Two White Doctors and Fifteen Ne-	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the Santa Catarine. PARCHED BY DROUGHT. Corn Crop in Northern Virginia	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex- cept that where there is an odd num- ber of Representatives the odd main will be from the Republican ranks. It is known that nothing can be gained by the appointment of a few Republican supervisors in any of the Southern States, and in those	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told the coroner, "and I left the house, telling the mother that I was going for my instruments. Had I remain- ed there until they discovered that he was dead they and the neighbors would have mobbed me."	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prose- cuted," said the minister, "as I know it was not his fault." Despite the promise of the police to the injured man, however, the	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture of the machine will be quickly pro- ceeded with. The plan is to have the inventor go to one of the big manufacturies of the least and perfect and turn out	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who tied in the election for aldemen have hit on a novel way to decide who shall have the office. A dispatch from Greenville save: "The city
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company. CRUSADE ON COCAINE SELLERS. Two White Doctors and Fifteen Ne- groes Arrested.	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the Santa Catarine. PARCHED BY DROUGHT. Corn Crop in Northern Virginia Almost a Failure.	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex- cept that where there is an odd num- ber of Representatives the odd main will be from the Republican ranks. It is known that nothing can be gained by the appointment of a few Republican supervisors in any of the Southern States, and in those sections overwhelmingly Democratic	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told the coroner, "and I left the house, telling the mother that I was going for my instruments. Had I remain- ed there until they discovered that he was dead they and the neighbors would have mobbed me." When the doctor did not return to	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prose- cuted," said the minister, "as I know it was not his fault." Despite the promise of the police to the injured man, however, the driver was arrested. Mr. Jacobs founded the Thornwell orphanage, of	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture of the machine will be quickly pro- ceeded with. The plan is to have the inventor go to one of the big manufacturies of the east and perfect and turn out two pickers. The sum named is	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who tied in the election for aldemen have hit on a novel way to decide who shall have the office. A dispatch from Greenville says: "The city Democratic committee found that C. H. Webb and W. T. Bull, candidates for aldermen from the first ward.
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company. CRUSADE ON COCAINE SELLERS. Two White Doctors and Fifteen Ne- groes Arrested. Savannah has begun a crusade	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the Santa Catarine. PARCHED BY DROUGHT. Corn Crop in Northern Virginia Almost a Failure. Dispatches from Winchester, Va.,	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, feaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex- cept that where there is an odd num- ber of Representatives the odd main will be from the Republican ranks. It is known that nothing can be gained by the appointment of a few Republican supervisors in any of the Southern States, and in those sections overwhelmingly Democratic it would probably be Mr. Taft's de-	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told the coroner, "and I left the house, telling the mother that I was going for my instruments. Had I remain- ed there until they discovered that he was dead they and the neighbors would have mobbed me." When the doctor did not return to the house in half an hour the mother	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prose- cuted," said the minister, "as I know it was not his fault." Despite the promise of the police to the injured man, however, the driver was arrested. Mr. Jacobs founded the Thornwell orphanage, of which he is president. In charitable	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture of the machine will be quickly pro- ceeded with. The plan is to have the inventor go to one of the big manufacturies of the east and perfect and turn out two pickers. The sum named is fully ample for that purpose. Eve-	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who tied in the election for aldemen have hit on a novel way to decide who shall have the office. A dispatch from Greenville says: "The city Democratic committee found that C. H. Webb and W. T. Bull, candidates for aldermen from the first ward, had each 718 votes. The committee
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company. CRUSADE ON COCAINE SELLERS. Two White Doctors and Fifteen Ne- groes Arrested. Savannah has begun a crusade against cocaine sellers and users	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the Santa Catarine. PARCHED BY DROUGHT. Corn Crop in Northern Virginia Almost a Failure. Dispatches from Winchester, Va., says the great corn field of North-	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex- cept that where there is an odd num- ber of Representatives the odd main will be from the Republican ranks. It is known that nothing can be gained by the appointment of a few Republican supervisors in any of the Southern States, and in those sections overwhelmingly Democratic it would probably be Mr. Taft's de- sire to give the places to the Demo-	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told the coroner, "and I left the house, telling the mother that I was going for my instruments. Had I remain- ed there until they discovered that he was dead they and the neighbors would have mobbed me." When the doctor did not return to the house in half an hour the mother discovered that her son was dead	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prose- cuted," said the minister, "as I know it was not his fault." Despite the promise of the police to the injured man, however, the driver was arrested. Mr. Jacobs founded the Thornwell orphanage, of which he is president. In charitable work he is known widely.	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture of the machine will be quickly pro- ceeded with. The plan is to have the inventor go to one of the big manufacturies of the east and perfect and turn out two pickers. The sum named is fully ample for that purpose. Eve- ry facility will be provided to en-	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who tied in the election for aldemen have hit on a novel way to decide who shall have the office. A dispatch from Greenville says: "The city Democratic committee found that C. H. Webb and W. T. Bull, candidates for aldermen from the first ward, had each 718 votes. The committee will meet again this morning and
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company. CRUSADE ON COCAINE SELLERS. Two White Doctors and Fifteen Ne- groes Arrested. Savannah has begun a crusade against cocaine sellers and users which ought to be followed all over	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the Santa Catarine. PARCHED BY DROUGHT. Corn Crop in Northern Virginia Almost a Failure. Dispatches from Winchester, Va., says the great corn field of North- ern Virginia are burning up. The	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex- cept that where there is an odd num- ber of Representatives the odd man will be from the Republican ranks. It is known that nothing can be gained by the appointment of a few Republican supervisors in any of the Southern States, and in those sections overwhelmingly Democratic it would probably be Mr. Taft's de- sire to give the places to the Demo- crats, but for the pressure coming	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told the coroner, "and I left the house, telling the mother that I was going for my instruments. Had I remain- ed there until they discovered that he was dead they and the neighbors would have mobbed me." When the doctor did not return to the house in half an hour the mother discovered that her son was dead and called the police. The coroner	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prose- cuted," said the minister, "as I know it was not his fault." Despite the promise of the police to the injured man, however, the driver was arrested. Mr. Jacobs founded the Thornwell orphanage, of which he is president. In charitable work he is known widely.	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture of the machine will be quickly pro- ceeded with. The plan is to have the inventor go to one of the big manufacturies of the east and perfect and turn out two pickers. The sum named is fully ample for that purpose. Eve- ry facility will be provided to en- able Mr. Furcher to manufacture the	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who tied in the election for aldemen have hit on a novel way to decide who shall have the office. A dispatch from Greenville says: "The city Democratic committee found that C. H. Webb and W. T. Bull, candidates for aldermen from the first ward, had each 718 votes. The committee will meet again this morning and take up the matter of the challenge
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company. CRUSADE ON COCAINE SELLERS. Two White Doctors and Fifteen Ne- groes Arrested. Savannah has begun a crusale against cocaine sellers and users which ought to be followed all over the South. Former Coroner Dr.	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the Santa Catarine. PARCHED BY DROUGHT. Corn Crop in Northern Virginia Almost a Failure. Dispatches from Winchester, Va., says the great corn field of North- ern Virginia are burning up. The severest drought of years is prevail-	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex- cept that where there is an odd num- ber of Representatives the odd main will be from the Republican ranks. It is known that nothing can be gained by the appointment of a few Republican supervisors in any of the Southern States, and in those sections overwhelmingly Democratic it would probably be Mr. Taft's de- sire to give the places to the Demo- crats, but for the pressure coming from the Hitchcock machine for a	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told the coroner, "and I left the house, telling the mother that I was going for my instruments. Had I remain- ed there until they discovered that he was dead they and the neighbors would have mobbed me." When the doctor did not return to the house in half an hour the mother discovered that her son was dead and called the police. The coroner will hold an inquest.	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prose- cuted," said the minister, "as I know it was not his fault." Despite the promise of the police to the injured man, however, the driver was arrested. Mr. Jacobs founded the Thornwell orphanage, of which he is president. In charitable work he is known widely.	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture of the machine will be quickly pro- ceeded with. The plan is to have the inventor go to one of the big manufacturies of the east and perfect and turn out two pickers. The sum named is fully ample for that purpose. Eve- ry facility will be provided to en- able Mr. Furcher to manufacture the pickers. He will leave for the east	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who tied in the election for aldemen have hit on a novel way to decide who shall have the office. A dispatch from Greenville says: "The city Democratic committee found that C. H. Webb and W. T. Bull, candidates for aldermen from the first ward, had each 718 votes. The committee will meet again this morning and take up the matter of the challenge voters. If the result is not changed,
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company. CRUSADE ON COCAINE SELLERS. Two White Doctors and Fifteen Ne- groes Arrested. Savannah has begun a crusale against cocaine sellers and users which ought to be followed all over the South. Former Coroner Dr. H. B. Stanley and Dr. W. W. Lee,	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the Santa Catarine. PARCHED BY DROUGHT. Corn Crop in Northern Virginia Almost a Failure. Dispatches from Winchester, Va., says the great corn field of North- ern Virginia are burning up. The severest drought of years is prevail- ing and for more than six weeks lit-	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex- cept that where there is an odd num- ber of Representatives the odd main will be from the Republican ranks. It is known that nothing can be gained by the appointment of a few Republican supervisors in any of the Southern States, and in those sections overwhelmingly Democratic it would probably be Mr. Taft's de- sire to give the places to the Demo- crats, but for the pressure coming from the Hitchcock machine for a division to be made strictly along	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told the coroner, "and I left the house, telling the mother that I was going for my instruments. Had I remain- ed there until they discovered that he was dead they and the neighbors would have mobbed me." When the doctor did not return to the house in half an hour the mother discovered that her son was dead and called the police. The coroner will hold an inquest.	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prose- cuted," said the minister, "as I know it was not his fault." Despite the promise of the police to the injured man, however, the driver was arrested. Mr. Jacobs founded the Thornwell orphanage, of which he is president. In charitable work he is known widely.	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture of the machine will be quickly pro- ceeded with. The plan is to have the inventor go to one of the big manufacturies of the east and perfect and turn out two pickers. The sum named is fully ample for that purpose. Eve- ry facility will be provided to en- able Mr. Furcher to manufacture the pickers. He will leave for the east in a few days.	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who tied in the election for aldemen have hit on a novel way to decide who shall have the office. A dispatch from Greenville says: "The city Democratic committee found that C. H. Webb and W. T. Bull, candidates for aldermen from the first ward, had each 718 votes. The committee will meet again this morning and take up the matter of the challenge voters. If the result is not changed, the names of the two candidates will
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company. CRUSADE ON COCAINE SELLERS. Two White Doctors and Fifteen Ne- groes Arrested. Savannah has begun a crusade against cocaine sellers and users which ought to be followed all over the South. Former Coroner Dr. H. B. Stanley and Dr. W. W. Lee, white, and Dr. E. M. Pickney, col- ored, were arrested a few days ago as a result of statements made in	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the Santa Catarine. PARCHED BY DROUGHT. Cora Crop in Northern Virginia Almost a Failure. Dispatches from Winchester, Va., says the great corn field of North- ern Virginia are burning up. The severest drought of years is prevall- ing and for more than six weeks lit- tle if any rain has fallen in the	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex- cept that where there is an odd num- ber of Representatives the odd main will be from the Republican ranks. It is known that nothing can be gained by the appointment of a few Republican supervisors in any of the Southern States, and in those sections overwhelmingly Democratic it would probably be Mr. Taft's de- sire to give the places to the Demo- crats, but for the pressure coming from the Hitchcock machine for a division to be made strictly along party lines with most of the ple on	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told the coroner, "and I left the house, telling the mother that I was going for my instruments. Had I remain- ed there until they discovered that he was dead they and the neighbors would have mobbed me." When the doctor did not return to the house in half an hour the mother discovered that her son was dead and called the police. The coroner will hold an inquest.	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prose- cuted," said the minister, "as I know it was not his fault." Despite the promise of the police to the injured man, however, the driver was arrested. Mr. Jacobs founded the Thornwell orphanage, of which he is president. In charitable work he is known widely.	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture of the machine will be quickly pro- ceeded with. The plan is to have the inventor go to one of the big manufacturies of the east and perfect and turn out two pickers. The sum named is fully ample for that purpose. Eve- ry facility will be provided to en- able Mr. Furcher to manufacture the pickers. He will leave for the east in a few days. One of the best known and one	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who tied in the election for aldemen have hit on a novel way to decide who shall have the office. A dispatch from Greenville says: "The city Democratic committee found that C. H. Webb and W. T. Bull, candidates for aldermen from the first ward, had each 718 votes. The committee will meet again this morning and take up the matter of the challenge voters. If the result is not changed, the names of the two candidates will be placed in a hat and a boy not
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company. CRUSADE ON COCAINE SELLERS. Two White Doctors and Fifteen Ne- groce Arrested. Savannah has begun a crusade against cocaine sellers and users which ought to be followed all over the South. Former Coroner Dr. H. B. Stanley and Dr. W. W. Lee, white, and Dr. E. M. Pickney, col- ored, were arrested a few days ago as a result of statements made in the police court by fourteen men and	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the Santa Catarine. PARCHED BY DROUGHT. Corn Crop in Northern Virginia Almost a Failure. Dispatches from Winchester, Va., says the great corn field of North- ern Virginia are burning up. The severest drought of years is prevall- ing and for more than six weeks lit- tle if any rain has fallen in the Shenandoah and Page valleys.	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex- cept that where there is an odd num- ber of Representatives the odd main will be from the Republican ranks. It is known that nothing can be gained by the appointment of a few Republican supervisors in any of the Southern States, and in those sections overwhelmingly Democratic it would probably be Mr. Taft's de- sire to give the places to the Demo- crats, but for the pressure coming from the Hitchcock machine for a division to be made strictly along party lines with most of the pie on the Republican side and what may	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told the coroner, "and I left the house, telling the mother that I was going for my instruments. Had I remain- ed there until they discovered that he was dead they and the neighbors would have mobbed me." When the doctor did not return to the house in half an hour the mother discovered that her son was dead and called the police. The coroner will hold an inquest. A STRANGE VISITOR.	Refusing to be taken to the hospital, although perhaps fatally injured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. William P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian clergyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, into practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prosecuted," said the minister, "as I know it was not his fault." Despite the promise of the police to the injured man, however, the driver was arrested. Mr. Jacobs founded the Thornwell orphanage, of which he is president. In charitable work he is known widely.	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture of the machine will be quickly pro- ceeded with. The plan is to have the inventor go to one of the big manufacturies of the east and perfect and turn out two pickers. The sum named is fully ample for that purpose. Eve- ry facility will be provided to en- able Mr. Furcher to manufacture the pickers. He will leave for the east in a few days. One of the best known and one of the best equipped manufactories	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who tied in the election for aldemen have hit on a novel way to decide who shall have the office. A dispatch from Greenville says: "The city Democratic committee found that C. H. Webb and W. T. Bull, candidates for aldermen from the first ward, had each 718 votes. The committee will meet again this morning and take up the matter of the challenge voters. If the result is not changed, the names of the two candidates will be placed in a hat and a boy not over ten years of age will draw out
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company. CRUSADE ON COCAINE SELLERS. Two White Doctors and Fifteen Ne- groes Arrested. Savannah has begun a crusade against cocaine sellers and users which ought to be followed all over the South. Former Coroner Dr. H. B. Stanley and Dr. W. W. Lee, white, and Dr. E. M. Pickney, col- ored, were arrested a few days ago as a result of statements made in the police court by fourteen men and women, mostly negroes, who were	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the Santa Catarine. PARCHED BY DROUGHT. Cora Crop in Northern Virginia Almost a Failure. Dispatches from Winchester, Va., says the great corn field of North- ern Virginia are burning up. The severest drought of years is prevall- ing and for more than six weeks lit- tle if any rain has fallen in the	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex- cept that where there is an odd num- ber of Representatives the odd main will be from the Republican ranks. It is known that nothing can be gained by the appointment of a few Republican supervisors in any of the Southern States, and in those sections overwhelmingly Democratic it would probably be Mr. Taft's de- sire to give the places to the Demo- crats, but for the pressure coming from the Hitchcock machine for a division to be made strictly along party lines with most of the ple on the Republican side and what may be split to go to hungry Democrats	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told the coroner, "and I left the house, telling the mother that I was going for my instruments. Had I remain- ed there until they discovered that he was dead they and the neighbors would have mobbed me." When the doctor did not return to the house in half an hour the mother discovered that her son was dead and called the police. The coroner will hold an inquest. A STRANGE VISITOR.	Refusing to be taken to the hospital, although perhaps fatally injured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. William P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian clergyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, into practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prosecuted," said the minister, "as I know it was not his fault." Despite the promise of the police to the injured man, however, the driver was arrested. Mr. Jacobs founded the Thornwell orphanage, of which he is president. In charitable work he is known widely.	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture of the machine will be quickly pro- ceeded with. The plan is to have the inventor go to one of the big manufacturies of the east and perfect and turn out two pickers. The sum named is fully ample for that purpose. Eve- ry facility will be provided to en- able Mr. Furcher to manufacture the pickers. He will leave for the east in a few days. One of the best known and one of the best equipped manufactories in the country has been arranged	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who tied in the election for aldemen have hit on a novel way to decide who shall have the office. A dispatch from Greenville says: "The city Democratic committee found that C. H. Webb and W. T. Bull, candidates for aldermen from the first ward, had each 718 votes. The committee will meet again this morning and take up the matter of the challenge voters. If the result is not changed, the names of the two candidates will be placed in a hat and a boy not over ten years of age will draw out the one who is to represent the ward
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company. CRUSADE ON COCAINE SELLERS. Two White Doctors and Fifteen Ne- groes Arrested. Savannah has begun a crusade against cocaine sellers and users which ought to be followed all over the South. Former Coroner Dr. H. B. Stanley and Dr. W. W. Lee, white, and Dr. E. M. Pickney, col- ored, were arrested a few days ago as a result of statements made in the police court by fourteen men and women, mostly negroes, who were rounded up as the beginning of a	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the Santa Catarine. PARCHED BY DROUGHT. Corn Crop in Northern Virginia Almost a Failure. Dispatches from Winchester, Va., says the great corn field of North- ern Virginia are burning up. The severest drought of years is prevall- ing and for more than six weeks lit- tle if any rain has fallen in the Shenandoah and Page valleys. Streams are lower than for years	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex- cept that where there is an odd num- ber of Representatives the odd main will be from the Republican ranks. It is known that nothing can be gained by the appointment of a few Republican supervisors in any of the Southern States, and in those sections overwhelmingly Democratic it would probably be Mr. Taft's de- sire to give the places to the Demo- crats, but for the pressure coming from the Hitchcock machine for a division to be made strictly along party lines with most of the pie on the Republican side and what may be split to go to hungry Democrats. These appointments are small	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told the coroner, "and I left the house, telling the mother that I was going for my instruments. Had I remain- ed there until they discovered that he was dead they and the neighbors would have mobbed me." When the doctor did not return to the house in half an hour the mother discovered that her son was dead and called the police. The coroner will hold an inquest. A STRANGE VISITOR.	Refusing to be taken to the hospital, although perhaps fatally injured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. William P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian clergyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, into practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prosecuted," said the minister, "as I know it was not his fault." Despite the promise of the police to the injured man, however, the driver was arrested. Mr. Jacobs founded the Thornwell orphanage, of which he is president. In charitable work he is known widely. SHOOTS HIMSELF WITH RIFLE. From Financial Troubles.	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture of the machine will be quickly pro- ceeded with. The plan is to have the inventor go to one of the big manufacturies of the east and perfect and turn out two pickers. The sum named is fully ample for that purpose. Eve- ry facility will be provided to en- able Mr. Furcher to manufacture the pickers. He will leave for the east in a few days. One of the best known and one of the best equipped manufactories in the country has been arranged with in which to make the pickers	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who tied in the election for aldemen have hit on a novel way to decide who shall have the office. A dispatch from Greenville says: "The city Democratic committee found that C. H. Webb and W. T. Bull, candidates for aldermen from the first ward, had each 718 votes. The committee will meet again this morning and take up the matter of the challenge, voters. If the result is not changed, the names of the two candidates will be placed in a hat and a boy not over ten years of age will draw out the one who is to represent the ward in the council. It is a state of al-
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company. CRUSADE ON COCAINE SELLERS. Two White Doctors and Fifteen Ne- groes Arrested. Savannah has begun a crusade against cocaine sellers and users which ought to be followed all over the South. Former Coroner Dr. H. B. Stanley and Dr. W. W. Lee, white, and Dr. E. M. Pickney, col- ored, were arrested a few days ago as a result of statements made in the police court by fourteen men and women, mostly negroes, who were rounded up as the beginning of a crusade on cocain sellers. Dr Lee	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the Santa Catarine. PARCHED BY DROUGHT. Corn Crop in Northern Virginia Almost a Failure. Dispatches from Winchester, Va., says the great corn field of North- ern Virginia are burning up. The severest drought of years is prevall- ing and for more than six weeks lit- tle if any rain has fallen in the Shenandoah and Page valleys. Streams are lower than for years and many are dry. The corn crop will be aimost a total failure, while all growing crops are cut short.	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex- cept that where there is an odd num- ber of Representatives the odd main will be from the Republican ranks. It is known that nothing can be gained by the appointment of a few Republican supervisors in any of the Southern States, and in those sections overwhelmingly Democratic it would probably be Mr. Taft's de- sire to give the places to the Demo- crats, but for the pressure coming from the Hitchcock machine for a division to be made strictly along party lines with most of the pie on the Republican side and what may be split to go to hungry Democrats. These appointments are small things within themselves; and it is known that Mr. Taft would gladly	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told the coroner, "and I left the house, telling the mother that I was going for my instruments. Had I remain- ed there until they discovered that he was dead they and the neighbors would have mobbed me." When the doctor did not return to the house in half an hour the mother discovered that her son was dead and called the police. The coroner will hold an inquest. A STRANGE VISITOR. 'Possum Calls at the Sumter Post- office for Mail.	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prose- cuted," said the minister, "as I know it was not his fault." Despite the promise of the police to the injured man, however, the driver was arrested. Mr. Jacobs founded the Thornwell orphanage, of which he is president. In charitable work he is known widely. SHOOTS HIMSELF WITH RIFLE. Sergeant of Coast Artillery Flees From Financial Troubles. Discovery was made a few days	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture of the machine will be quickly pro- ceeded with. The plan is to have the inventor go to one of the big manufacturies of the east and perfect and turn out two pickers. The sum named is fully ample for that purpose. Eve- ry facility will be provided to en- able Mr. Furcher to manufacture the pickers. He will leave for the east in a few days. One of the best known and one of the best equipped manufactories in the country has been arranged	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who tied in the election for aldemen have hit on a novel way to decide who shall have the office. A dispatch from Greenville says: "The city Democratic committee found that C. H. Webb and W. T. Bull, candidates for aldermen from the first ward, had each 718 votes. The committee will meet again this morning and take up the matter of the challenge voters. If the result is not changed, the names of the two candidates will be placed in a hat and a boy not over ten years of age will draw out the one who is to represent the ward in the council. It is a state of af- fairs never seen here before." This
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company. CRUSADE ON COCAINE SELLERS. Two White Doctors and Fifteen Ne- groes Arrested. Savannah has begun a crusade against cocaine sellers and users which ought to be followed all over the South. Former Coroner Dr. H. B. Stanley and Dr. W. W. Lee, white, and Dr. E. M. Pickney, col- ored, were arrested a few days ago as a result of statements made in the police court by fourteen men and women, mostly negroes, who were rounded up as the beginning of a crusade on cocain sellers. Dr Lee has not yet made bond, but Drs.	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the Santa Catarine. PARCHED BY DROUGHT. Corn Crop in Northern Virginia Almost a Failure. Dispatches from Winchester, Va., says the great corn field of North- ern Virginia are burning up. The severest drought of years is prevail- ing and for more than six weeks lit- tle if any rain has fallen in the Shenandoah and Page valleys. Streams are lower than for years and many are dry. The corn crop will be aimost a total failure, while all growing crops are cut short. Should the drought prevail much	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex- cept that where there is an odd num- ber of Representatives the odd man will be from the Republican ranks. It is known that nothing can be gained by the appointment of a few Republican supervisors in any of the Southern States, and in those sections overwhelmingly Democratic it would probably be Mr. Taft's de- sire to give the places to the Demo- crats, but for the pressure coming from the Hitchcock machine for a division to be made strictly along party lines with most of the pie on the Republican side and what may be split to go to hungry Democrats. These appointments are small things within themselves; and it is known that Mr. Taft would gladly let the Southern people have them	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told the coroner, "and I left the house, telling the mother that I was going for my instruments. Had I remain- ed there until they discovered that he was dead they and the neighbors would have mobbed me." When the doctor did not return to the house in half an hour the mother discovered that her son was dead and called the police. The coroner will hold an inquest. A STRANGE VISITOR. "Possum Calls at the Sumter Post- office for Mail. The Sumter Watchman-Southron	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prose- cuted," said the minister, "as I know it was not his fault." Despite the promise of the police to the injured man, however, the driver was arrested. Mr. Jacobs founded the Thornwell orphanage, of which he is president. In charitable work he is known widely. SHOOTS HIMSELF WITH RIFLE. Sergeant of Coast Artillery Flees From Financial Troubles. Discovery was made a few days ago that Sergt. Max Block of the coast artillery, station at Fort Du-	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture of the machine will be quickly pro- ceeded with. The plan is to have the inventor go to one of the big manufacturies of the east and perfect and turn out two pickers. The sum named is fully ample for that purpose. Eve- ry facility will be provided to en- able Mr. Furcher to manufacture the pickers. He will leave for the east in the country has been arranged with in which to make the pickers When the machines are completed they will be tried out in the cotton field and on this practical test of	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who tied in the election for aldemen have hit on a novel way to decide who shall have the office. A dispatch from Greenville says: "The city Democratic committee found that C. H. Webb and W. T. Bull, candidates for aldermen from the first ward, had each 718 votes. The committee will meet again this morning and take up the matter of the challenge voters. If the result is not changed, the names of the two candidates will be placed in a hat and a boy not over ten years of age will draw out the one who is to represent the ward in the council. It is a state of af- fairs never seen here before." This will save the trouble of holding another election.
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company. CRUSADE ON COCAINE SELLERS. Two White Doctors and Fifteen Ne- groes Arrested. Savannah has begun a crusale against cocaine sellers and users which ought to be followed all over the South. Former Coroner Dr. H. B. Stanley and Dr. W. W. Lee, white, and Dr. E. M. Pickney, cot- ored, were arrested a few days ago as a result of statements made in the police court by fourteen men and women, mostly negroes, who were rounded up as the beginning of a crusade on cocain sellers. Dr Lee has not yet made bond, but Drs. Stanley and Pinckney gave bond of	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the Santa Catarine. PARCHED BY DROUGHT. Cora Crop in Northern Virginia Almost a Failure. Dispatches from Winchester, Va., says the great corn field of North- ern Virginia are burning up. The severest drought of years is prevall- ing and for more than six weeks lit- tle if any rain has fallen in the Shenandoah and Page valleys. Streams are lower than for years and many are dry. The corn crop will be aimost a total failure, while all growing crops are cut short. Should the drought prevail much longer, the apple crop, which gave	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex- cept that where there is an odd num- ber of Representatives the odd man will be from the Republican ranks. It is known that nothing can be gained by the appointment of a few Republican supervisors in any of the Southern States, and in those sections overwhelmingly Democratic it would probably be Mr. Taft's de- sire to give the places to the Demo- crats, but for the pressure coming from the Hitchcock machine for a division to be made strictly along party lines with most of the ple on the Republican side and what may be split to go to hungry Democrats. These appointments are small things within themselves; and it is known that Mr. Taft would gladly let the Southern people have them but for the reasons just given, and	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told the coroner, "and I left the house, telling the mother that I was going for my instruments. Had I remain- ed there until they discovered that he was dead they and the neighbors would have mobbed me." When the doctor did not return to the house in half an hour the mother discovered that her son was dead and called the police. The coroner will hold an inquest. A STRANGE VISITOR. 'Possum Calls at the Sumter Post- office for Mail. The Sumter Watchman-Southron says of all the extraordinary inci-	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prose- cuted," said the minister, "as I know it was not his fault." Despite the promise of the police to the injured man, however, the driver was arrested. Mr. Jacobs founded the Thornwell orphanage, of which he is president. In charitable work he is known widely. SHOOTS HIMSELF WITH RIFLE. Discovery was made a few days ago that Sergt. Max Block of the coast artillery, station at Fort Du- pont, had committed suicide a few	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture of the machine will be quickly pro- ceeded with. The plan is to have the inventor go to one of the big manufacturies of the east and perfect and turn out two pickers. The sum named is fully ample for that purpose. Eve- ry facility will be provided to en- able Mr. Furcher to manufacture the pickers. He will leave for the east in a few days. One of the best known and one of the best equipped manufactories in the country has been arranged with in which to make the pickers When the machines are completed they will be tried out in the cotton field and on this practical test of the perfected picker will depend the	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who tied in the election for aldemen have hit on a novel way to decide who shall have the office. A dispatch from Greenville says: "The city Democratic committee found that C. H. Webb and W. T. Bull, candidates for aldermen from the first ward, had each 718 votes. The committee will meet again this morning and take up the matter of the challenge voters. If the result is not changed, the names of the two candidates will be placed in a hat and a boy not over ten years of age will draw out the one who is to represent the ward in the council. It is a state of af- fairs never seen here before." This will save the trouble of holding another election.
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company. CRUSADE ON COCAINE SELLERS. Two White Doctors and Fifteen Ne- groes Arrested. Savannah has begun a crusale against cocaine sellers and users which ought to be followed all over the South. Former Coroner Dr. H. B. Stanley and Dr. W. W. Lee, white, and Dr. E. M. Pickney, col- ored, were arrested a few days ago as a result of statements made in the police court by fourteen men and women, mostly negroes, who were rounded up as the beginning of a crusade on cocain sellers. Dr Lee has not yet made bond, but Drs. Stanley and Pinckney gave bond of $1,000 each. The fourteen other	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the Santa Catarine. PARCHED BY DROUGHT. Corn Crop in Northern Virginia Almost a Failure. Dispatches from Winchester, Va., says the great corn field of North- ern Virginia are burning up. The severest drought of years is prevall- ing and for more than six weeks lit- tle if any rain has fallen in the Shenandoah and Page valleys. Streams are lower than for years and many are dry. The corn crop will be aimost a total failure, while all growing crops are cut short. Should the drought prevail much longer, the apple crop, which gave fine promise, will be seriously af-	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, feaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex- cept that where there is an odd num- ber of Representatives the odd main will be from the Republican ranks. It is known that nothing can be gained by the appointment of a few Republican supervisors in any of the Southern States, and in those sections overwhelmingly Democratic it would probably be Mr. Taft's de- sire to give the places to the Demo- crats, but for the pressure coming from the Hitchcock machine for a division to be made strictly along party lines with most of the ple on the Republican side and what may be split to go to hungry Democrats. These appointments are small things within themselves; and it is known that Mr. Taft would gladly let the Southern people have them but for the reasons just given, and just here the Iniquitous work of the	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told the coroner, "and I left the house, telling the mother that I was going for my instruments. Had I remain- ed there until they discovered that he was dead they and the neighbors would have mobbed me." When the doctor did not return to the house in half an hour the mother discovered that her son was dead and called the police. The coroner will hold an inquest. A STRANGE VISITOR. 'Possum Calls at the Sumter Post- office for Mail. The Sumter Watchman-Southron says of all the extraordinary inci-	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prose- cuted," said the minister, "as I know it was not his fault." Despite the promise of the police to the injured man, however, the driver was arrested. Mr. Jacobs founded the Thornwell orphanage, of which he is president. In charitable work he is known widely. SHOOTS HIMSELF WITH RIFLE. Discovery was made a few days ago that Sergt. Max Block of the coast artillery, station at Fort Du- pont, had committed suicide a few nights before by shooting himself	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture of the machine will be quickly pro- ceeded with. The plan is to have the inventor go to one of the big manufacturies of the east and perfect and turn out two pickers. The sum named is fully ample for that purpose. Eve- ry facility will be provided to en- able Mr. Furcher to manufacture the pickers. He will leave for the east in a few days. One of the best known and one of the best equipped manufactories in the country has been arranged with in which to make the pickers When the machines are completed they will be tried out in the cotton field and on this practical test of the perfected picker will depend the fate of the invention.	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who tied in the election for aldemen have hit on a novel way to decide who shall have the office. A dispatch from Greenville says: "The city Democratic committee found that C. H. Webb and W. T. Bull, candidates for aldermen from the first ward, had each 718 votes. The committee will meet again this morning and take up the matter of the challenge voters. If the result is not changed, the names of the two candidates will be placed in a hat and a boy not over ten years of age will draw out the one who is to represent the ward in the council. It is a state of af- fairs never seen here befors." This will save the trouble of holding another election.
escape from being killed by light- ning. He declared that it was not the custom of lightning to strike the plants of the company. Because of the accident to the plant, at about the time the Arapahoe sustained her accident off the coast of North Car- olina, no messages were caught from the wireless instrument on the steamship, and consequently infor- mation of the trouble she was in came through other stations of the United Wireless Company. CRUSADE ON COCAINE SELLERS. Two White Doctors and Fifteen Ne- groces Arrested. Savannah has begun a crusade against cocaine sellers and users which ought to be followed all over the South. Former Coroner Dr. H. B. Stanley and Dr. W. W. Lee, white, and Dr. E. M. Pickney, col- ored, were arrested a few days ago as a result of statements made in the police court by fourteen men and women, mostly negroes, who were rounded up as the beginning of a crusade on cocain sellers. Dr Lee has not yet made bond, but Drs. Stanley and Pinckney gave bond of $1,000 each. The fourteen other defendants were all bound over to	houses caved in as a result of the storm and the damage all over the city has been great. The Monterey bath house was flooded by rain. One man lost his life in the swimming pool. Houses throughout the lower sections of the city were inundated and the fami- lies forced to move out. The elec- tric light plant was damaged, as was the power plant of the street railway system. The rains continue and another flood is expected in the Santa Catarine. PARCHED BY DROUGHT. Corn Crop in Northern Virginia Almost a Failure. Dispatches from Winchester, Va., says the great corn field of North- ern Virginia are burning up. The severest drought of years is prevall- ing and for more than six weeks lit- tle if any rain has fallen in the Shenandoah and Page valleys. Streams are lower than for years and many are dry. The corn crop will be aimost a total failure, while all growing crops are cut short. Should the drought prevail much longer the apple crop, which gave fine promise, will be seriously af- facted. Thousands of dollars have	that in the division North Carolina will get about six or seven Repub- licans and three or four Democrats. Though Georgia has no Republi- cans in Congress, it is understood that six Republicans will be appoint- ed there, leaving room for five Dem- ocrats. In Florida, Alabama and other Southern States, where the delegations are solidly Democratic and there is to be a supervisor for the Congressional district, the divi- sion will be made equally between the Democrats and Republicans ex- cept that where there is an odd num- ber of Representatives the odd main will be from the Republican ranks. It is known that nothing can be gained by the appointment of a few Republican supervisors in any of the Southern States, and in those sections overwhelmingly Democratic it would probably be Mr. Taft's de- sire to give the places to the Demo- crats, but for the pressure coming from the Hitchcock machine for a division to be made strictly along party lines with most of the pie on the Republican side and what may be split to go to hungry Democrats. These appointments are small things within themselves; and it is known that Mr. Taft would gladly let the Southern people have them but for the reasons just given, and just here the iniquitous work of the party machine here the mathing besins to be appoint the southern but for the reasons just given, and	and her family would attack him when they learned of the death of their sixteen-year-old son, whom the doctor was attending. Dr. Sussman was called to per- form an operation on the boy's knee and to do so he said that he had administered chloroform. Before he was ready to operate, however, he discovered that the boy had died while under the influence of the chloroform. "I know how excited those fami- lies become on such an occasion," the doctor is reported to have told the coroner, "and I left the house, telling the mother that I was going for my instruments. Had I remain- ed there until they discovered that he was dead they and the neighbors would have mobbed me." When the doctor did not return to the house in half an hour the mother discovered that her son was dead and called the police. The coroner will hold an inquest. A STRANGE VISITOR. 'Possum Calls at the Sumter Post- office for Mail. The Sumter Watchman-Southron says of all the extraordinary inci-	Refusing to be taken to the hos- pital, although perhaps fatally in- jured, until the promise was made to him that the person who injured him would not be arrested, Rev. Wil- liam P. Jacobs, a Presbyterian cler- gyman, aged sixty, of Clinton, S. C., put the golden rule of life, which he has preached for many years, in- to practice. Mr. Jacobs, in Washington on a sight-seeing trip, was run over on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday night by a two-seated surrey. "I do not want the driver prose- cuted," said the minister, "as I know it was not his fault." Despite the promise of the police to the injured man, however, the driver was arrested. Mr. Jacobs founded the Thornwell orphanage, of which he is president. In charitable work he is known widely. SHOOTS HIMSELF WITH RIFLE. Discovery was made a few days ago that Sergt. Max Block of the coast artillery, station at Fort Du- pont, had committed suicide a few mights before by shooting himself	The Augusta Chronicle says a company has been formed to perfect two of the Fourcher cotton pickers and put them in the field for the final and thorough test. Organiza- tion was had a few days ago. The stock subscriptions foot up between $6,000 and $7,000, and were made by a number of gentle- men of Augusta in stock-takings of $250 to $500 each. This prelimi- nary company secures an interest in the different patents. If the picker develops into the success that is hop- ed for it and claimed for it, the fur- ther capitilization for manufacture of the machine will be quickly pro- ceeded with. The plan is to have the inventor go to one of the big manufacturies of the east and perfect and turn out two pickers. The sum named is fully ample for that purpose. Eve- ry facility will be provided to en- able Mr. Furcher to manufacture the pickers. He will leave for the east in a few days. One of the best known and one of the best equipped manufactories in the country has been arranged with in which to make the pickers When the machines are completed they will be tried out in the cotton field and on this practical test of the perfected picker will depend the fate of the invention.	ermen's boat around the ocean be- fore he was subdued with hooks and prongs. The presence of this shark has intimidated many of the bathers along the Jersey coast who fear that it may be a forerunner of many oth- ers. STAKE ALL ON CHANCE. Two Greenville Candidates Will Draw for Office. Two candidates in Greenville who tied in the election for aldemen have hit on a novel way to decide who shall have the office. A dispatch from Greenville says: "The city Democratic committee found that C. H. Webb and W. T. Bull, candidates for aldermen from the first ward, had each 718 votes. The committee will meet again this morning and take up the matter of the challenge voters. If the result is not changed, the names of the two candidates will be placed in a hat and a boy not over ten years of age will draw out the one who is to represent the ward in the council. It is a state of af- fairs never seen here before." This will save the trouble of holding another election.

(8)陵;

	"fiends" were used as witnesses. Slayer Telephones Sheriff. Charles Pons, one of the best known residents of Duval county, Fla., Wednesday night telephoned to Sheriff Bowden's residence and in- formed him that he had just killed	Ind failfoads are refloadly from- led, hay fields being set on fire by passing locomotives and valuable property damaged. Strike Breaker Killed. At Bisbee, Ariz., William Pfau- kuch, a striking printer, shot and in- stantly killed Asa A. Hoy, former business manager of the Review, the morning paper of that city, and wil- liam Bockholz, of Covington, Ky.,	the appointment of at least a limit- ed number of negroes, according to Director Durand, as enumerators, and that is just where many South- ern people may part company with Mr. Taft. The appointment of ne- groes to office anywhere and under the conditions—especially in the South—savors strongly of carpet- bag tactics. It seems—all things considered and especially with relevance to the	Tisdale, night clerk at the postomee, opened the back door of the office, and a nice fat 'possum walked in. He was so well pleased with his new quarters that he utterly refused to depart, and consequently the door was closed upon him and he spent a pleasant night's rest behind a box. He is now under arrest for forcing his way into government premises, and will very probably he held need.	Money losses are believed to have caused Block to kill himself. His home was in Morgan, Ala Towboat Capsizes The naval tug Zeninseot, from Portsmouth to Boston, capsized off Cape Ann early Wedneeday. Several of her crew were drowned. The sec- ond officer, the captain's wife, her little hop and four of the crew were	and Dick Hill:	member of the firm of Ridha Brothers, contractors and builds postarial dealers, foll to the groun
	Ford was slapped by			Carlo Car	The second se		