AN AWFUL ACCIDENT.

The most distressing accident that has onddened this county in years occurred in Rosemary township on the morning WC Gray. of the 22od ult., when bright and be lived lir le Frank Anderson, son of Mr. W W Anderson, lost his life by the accidental discharge of his gun while out hunting. He was standing on a log about three feet above the ground holding the muzzie, when it slipped, the hammer struck the log causing the entire charge to enter his right side under the ribs, death resulting in about forty minutes. An older brother was near him but could do nothing to save the promising young life. His body was interred in the Old Field Ceme-Parnwell on Thursday, the first day of tery.
