HARMONY LODGE NO. 17, A. F. M.

A regular communication of Harmony Lodge No. 17, A. F. M. will be held in Masonic Temple on Thursday, Feb. 9th, 7:30 o'clock.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The committee appointments of the Barnwell delegation are as follows:

Representative George H. Bates is Chairman of the Committee on Incorporation and member of the Committees on Education, Manufactures, Judiciary, Rules, Mines and Mining.

Representative James E. Davie is on the House Judiciary Committee.

Representative F. H. Peoples is on the Committees on Railroads, Banking and Insurance, Legislative Library, Internal Improvements.

Representative R. P. Searson Jr. is a member of the Committees on Incorporation and Claims, State House and Grounds.

A BUSY MAN.

That's what Superintendent Horace J. Crouch is. From the finishing of crop planting to the beginning of crop planting and working he eats no idle bread.

For that is the customary rural school term and besides two days office work in Barnwell each week he is required by law to visit and inspect the 127 schools kept in the county.

He cannot be in several of these schools at the same time it is absolutely impossible for him to see many of them during this brief season of short winter days.

He is spending the work as fast as he can, and his visits are making up teachers' and students' pupils. His experience is enlarging his usefulness and better preparing him for the office of State Superintendent. But he ought to have a couple of competent assistants to help him do this needed work.

FOR SALE.

3000 bushels ear corn. Price on application. W. T. Calhoun, Thomas, S. C.

HERE AND HEREABOUTS.

THE MOON THIS MONTH.

January: First Quarter, 1st; Full Moon, 11th; Last Quarter, 23rd; New Moon, 30th.

The sun rises today at 7:22, sets at 4:50.

The days gain 7 minutes in sunshine this week.

So far small grain has suffered little damage, if any, from cold.

Last week's spring like weather brought thoughts of early vegetables to the gardeners.

The January meeting of the Salkatchewan Farmers' Club will be held tomorrow, Friday.

The best advertisement published in South Carolina this week is that of Mr. W. T. Calhoun in today's paper.

Manager R. B. Bell of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, Blackville, gave us a pleasant call Monday.

It was like the good old times to have on Monday the beloved company of Messrs. J. J. Robinson and Henry Kirkland of Blackville.

Selector James F. Byrnes will report to the board of selectors on the 27th inst.

Prize words for our last week's contest and date were indeed pleasantly remembered by three excellent lady subscribers and one good man.

More people have emigrated from Barnwell county to Georgia this winter than in any season that we remember. And the people who stay here are the old home ones to many of them.

Mr. W. G. Thompson of Williston, who was one of the first to leave here thirty odd years ago, gave us a glad half hour on Monday. He has since grown to be a fine, well-to-do man.

Farmer Arthur M. Sanders, after an experience of two years, is more than ever a believer in alfalfa. Each summer he has secured six cuttings and his stock likes that hay better than any other forage.

Edgfield will have today the best prepared observance of the birthday of Gen. Robert E. Lee. Col. C. R. Brooks of Columbia will be the orator of the day. Judge Robert Aldrich has been invited to attend as a guest of honor.

Mr. Willie Woodward was able to leave the Augusta Hospital on Saturday, his right hand being less injured than first reported. The hand was badly lacerated but no fingers were cut off. The first and third will be stiff, however.

Rev. Arthur Walker is the pastor of the new circuit this year. He is a son of Dr. H. A. G. Walker, a distinguished minister before the war, and he is welcomed by many friends and congregations in the good field in which he is to labor.

Mr. Calvin Houston, aged 88 years, died on Wednesday last week at the home of his son at Millerville. His body was interred in the family burial ground near Dunbarton. He was one of the oldest citizens of the county and through his long life deserved the good will of all that knew him.

Married by Rev. N. G. Ballenger at the residence of the bride's parents on December 28th, 1910, Miss Ruth A. Price and Mr. Leroy A. Duncanson. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Price of McCormick, S. C., a young lady of many graces and charms. Mr. Duncanson, formerly of Millerville, has the best wishes of a host of Barnwell friends for himself and his fair life partner.

Very welcome callers on last week's business day were Mr. C. E. Rutland, W. E. Kennedy, a new good one, both of plentiful Rosemary Township.

Though quite a young farmer Mr. Kennedy is setting an example that older ones might happily follow—growing wheat. In 1909 he plowed a couple of acres and though a storm in June spoiled a third of the shocked grain and he had to haul it over twenty miles to mill he was so well satisfied that he increased his acreage last fall 80 per cent.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Passed by Allendale Lodge, No. 109, A. F. M.

DR. C. W. ERWIN REMEMBERED.

Whereas, it has pleased our Supreme Architect of the universe to take from our midst our beloved brother, Clarence W. Erwin, we humbly bow in submission to the will of our Grand Master above.

In our bereavement and sorrow we commend the following resolutions:

1st. That in the death of our brother the Masonic order has lost a member in whom were found all the native virtues that grace the character of the well-rounded man and Mason.

2nd. That we hold up this spotless character as an example for all men, and commend his virtues as worthy the emulation of all who strive for that which is best in this life.

3rd. That we extend to his near relatives our heart felt sympathy in their bereavement and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to them.

4th. Further that a blank page in our minute book be devoted to his memory, and that a copy of these resolutions be furnished the county papers.

Respectfully, Alfred A. Patterson, T. F. Hogz, J. L. Box.

DR. R. L. HARLEY.

Dr. Robert L. Harley of Plum Branch, Edgefield County, died on December 20th, 1910, at the home of his father at Whites, Richmond County, Georgia, after an illness of a few days, aged 49 years. He was the eldest son of Mr. Preston Harley, formerly of this county. In 1888 he was graduated from the dental department of the University of Maryland, and since that time had practiced his profession with success.

CALL FOR CONVENTION.

We, the undersigned members of the Executive Committee of the Barnwell County Anti-Saloon League, respectfully call a meeting of the Anti-Saloon League of Barnwell County to meet in convention on Thursday, Jan. 19th, 1911, at Barnwell, S. C.

For the purpose of memorializing the Legislature to enact a law that will furnish the means by which we can enforce the law now on the statute books with reference to the illicit sale of whiskey by having such a percentage of the fines imposed to be used for the enforcement of the law, and any other suggestions as may be presented by the convention for the betterment and enforcement of the law.

THE BEST THAT THE WEST PRODUCES

Business, Timber & Farm Stock

With sixteen years' experience and square dealing in horses, mules, buggies, wagons, etc. to my credit, I am free to say that at no time in my career have I been in a better position to serve my friends, old and new, than at this season.

I have just returned from the West, where it was my good fortune to get the cream of the markets. My new shipment of stock, consisting of will reach Barnwell on Monday, November 28th, and a cordial invitation is extended to all buyers in Barnwell and adjoining counties to visit me at my Hill Top Stables, where courteous treatment and the square deal are watchwords. If it is

A Nice Buggy, a Serviceable Wagon a strong set of Harness, a first class Lap Rope or a good whip that you need, you will find it here. No better line anywhere.
