

The Barnwell People

THURSDAY, MAY 18, 1911.

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION.

In Advance, per Annum, $1.50

On Time, $2.00

The first section of the chain gang will be at Wrenham Monday night at the second section of the chain gang will be at Martin Station this week

W. V. Richardson, J. B. Morris,

Clerk, Supr.

The regular meeting of Barnwell will be held at 8 o'clock, a full attendance is requested. H. L. O'BANNON, C. C.

Wm. McNab, K. R. S.

HARMONY LODGE NO. 17, A. F. M.

A regular communication of Harmony Lodge No. 17, A. F. M., will be held in Masonic Temple on Thursday evening, June 22, 7:30 o'clock. Visiting brethren are cordially invited.

A. A. Lessor, W. M.

Wm. McNab, Sec.

FOR SALE—Six hundred acres of fine farming land, north of Blackville, in a very desirable section.

H. D. Sull, Blackville, S. C.

A large river and white colored pointed dog strayed from my place on the second day of January. A liberal reward will be paid if returned to

J. J. Walker,

Milledgeville, S. C.

FOR SALE—One Jersey Jersey brood sow and three male pigs.

Apply to A. J. Samsel,

Blackville, S. C.

EAR CORN FOR SALE.

To make room for foreign crops I offer for quick sale one hundred bushels of sound ear corn in the shock.

For prices apply to

C. E. Gibbs,

Blackville, S. C.

April: First Quarter, $1.00

Full Moon, $1.25

Three Quarters, $1.50

New Moon, $1.75

The sun rises today at 6:23, sets at 7:15.

HERE AND HERRABOUTS.

Tomorrow will be Satekatholite Club meeting.

Farmer B. L. Easterling promises to be a ripe watermelon by June 25th.

Mr. E. E. F. King of Blackville has been appointed executor for the estate of the R. F. D. estate.

Mr. J. D. Lee of Sedgefield was the first subscriber friend to give in the offer to donate to the blue East wind of Monday.

Mr. T. A. Green, formerly of Bamberg, has sold his new seven story hotel in Sedgefield to the late J. A. Porter of Blackville.

Real estate law is a very interesting and profitable business, according to the opinion of the greatest lawyer in the South, Mr. J. A. Porter.

Farmer J. D. Lee of Red Oak

Township has sold his 100 acre tract of land to Mr. J. A. Porter for $10,000.

Rev. J. T. Phillips, the new pastor of the First Baptist Church, has received his new flock from the pastor of the First Baptist Church of Sedgefield.

The great success of the Barnwell people is due to the fact that they are a people of high character and high intelligence.

Three written communications are one of the best of news for the Married, May 11, at the residence of J. M. Sander, Miss Cora Lee Green to Mr. Charles Hutto Jr., all of George Creek.

The Barnwell and Blackville base ball teams will cross bats on the latter's diamond tomorrow, Friday, afternoon.

Both games are promised all lovers of the sport.

Misses who will be cheerfully conducted to the field with their respective teams on the 18th inst. will be Misses

Young, Adams, J. B. Miles, Jr., who

will be the first to play in last year's

contest for Barnwell County is again

being in the field with their respective

teams on the 18th inst. will be Misses

Young, Adams, J. B. Miles, Jr., who

will be the first to play in last year's

contest for Barnwell County is again

being in the field with their respective

teams on the 18th inst. will be Misses

Young, Adams, J. B. Miles, Jr., who

will be the first to play in last year's

contest for Barnwell County is again

being in the field with their respective

teams on the 18th inst. will be Misses

Young, Adams, J. B. Miles, Jr., who

will be the first to play in last year's

contest for Barnwell County is again

being in the field with their respective

teams on the 18th inst. will be Misses

Young, Adams, J. B. Miles, Jr., who

will be the first to play in last year's

contest for Barnwell County is again

being in the field with their respective

teams on the 18th inst. will be Misses

Young, Adams, J. B. Miles, Jr., who

will be the first to play in last year's

contest for Barnwell County is again

being in the field with their respective

teams on the 18th inst. will be Misses

Young, Adams, J. B. Miles, Jr., who

will be the first to play in last year's

contest for Barnwell County is again

being in the field with their respective

teams on the 18th inst. will be Misses

Young, Adams, J. B. Miles, Jr., who

will be the first to play in last year's

contest for Barnwell County is again

being in the field with their respective

teams on the 18th inst. will be Misses

Young, Adams, J. B. Miles, Jr., who

will be the first to play in last year's

contest for Barnwell County is again

being in the field with their respective

teams on the 18th inst. will be Misses

Young, Adams, J. B. Miles, Jr., who

will be the first to play in last year's

contest for Barnwell County is again

being in the field with their respective

teams on the 18th inst. will be Misses

Young, Adams, J. B. Miles, Jr., who

will be the first to play in last year's

contest for Barnwell County is again

being in the field with their respective

teams on the 18th inst. will be Misses

Young, Adams, J. B. Miles, Jr., who

will be the first to play in last year's

contest for Barnwell County is again

being in the field with their respective

teams on the 18th inst. will be Misses

Young, Adams, J. B. Miles, Jr., who

will be the first to play in last year's

contest for Barnwell County is again

being in the field with their respective

teams on the 18th inst. will be Misses

Young, Adams, J. B. Miles, Jr., who

will be the first to play in last year's

contest for Barnwell County is again

being in the field with their respective

teams on the 18th inst. will be Misses

Young, Adams, J. B. Miles, Jr., who

will be the first to play in last year's

Williston, May 15.—The protracted services which have been held in the Baptist Church for the past week came to a close Monday night. Dr. M. J. Mc-Intosh, Va., who has been assisting the pastor, Rev. J. H. Hutto, in his services, was the guest of honor at the closing exercises. The services were well attended and the singing was particularly good. The closing services were held at 8 o'clock and attracted a large and appreciative congregation at each service.

Mr. and Mrs. Q. A. Kennedy and Dr.

and Mrs. J. Lewis Smith are returning from Southwest Georgia and are also visiting points of interest on the Gulf. They write to friends here that the roads are fine and they are having a delightful trip.

Miss Sadie Miss of Healing Springs has been the guest of Miss Besse

Green for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Morris were down from Augusta visiting relatives

Sunday.

Mrs. R. A. Wathers and daughter Miss Maude, left for the Southwest on Monday. They will be attending the reunion of Confederate veterans at Little Rock. Miss Maude is one of the sponsors for the Sons of Veterans.

Col. R. M. Mison left Saturday for Little Rock, where he is scheduled to deliver an address to the daughters of the Confederacy on the opening day of the reunion.

MILL MERGERS MEAN MIS-

CHIEF.

At least Governor Blease thinks and says so. On Saturday he gave out a typewritten statement expressing the opinion that they are intended to control the price of cotton, the price of mill labor and the value of the cotton mill products. As the Governor does not take the proper line he is not claimed as its convert.

COTTON ACREAGE OF 1910.

Washington, May 11.—Revised figures of the department of agriculture's cotton report indicate the acreage planted in 1910 was about 2,000,000 acres, instead of 2,100,000 as previously reported. These figures will be used as a basis in making the estimate on June 5 of the acreage planted to cotton this year.

The yield per acre in 1910 was estimated at 17.5 bushels, and the total yield was 35,000,000 bushels.

MASSACHUSETTS MILLS.

The treasurer of a large cotton manufacturing company in this State has been accused of embezzling the company's funds to the amount of $100,000.

Rev. J. H. Hutto, pastor of the First Baptist Church, has been appointed executor for the estate of the late J. A. Porter.

Mr. J. A. Porter, the late owner of the Blackville Hotel, died at his home in Blackville on Monday.

His estate is valued at $100,000.

His widow, Mrs. J. A. Porter, is the only surviving member of the family.

His estate will be administered by Rev. J. H. Hutto.

His estate is valued at $100,000.

His widow, Mrs. J. A. Porter, is

the only surviving member of the

GEN. JOHN CHENEY DAVANT.

From 1855 to 1865 the first time we were in the South in his home in that city on the 20th of Gen. John Cheney Davant, a former citizen of Barnwell.

Gen. Davant was born at Gillisonville, S. C., June 15, 1811, was educated at the Beaufort District Academy, the Citadel and Furman University. In 1835 he was married to Miss Matilda Morgan, daughter of John W. Morgan and two daughters survived to cherish his loved and honored memory.

During the War between the States he served the last cause for his entire life with the greatest courage and with ever distinguished gallantry and conspicuous ability, rising from the rank of private to the command of his regiment.

In the closing years of reconstruction and restoration of peace he was in his country for twenty-two years, during which he was in various positions of trust and honor, which he filled with ability and integrity. He was elected Governor of the State in 1870 and re-elected in 1872. He was also

Member of the United States Senate from 1874 to 1876. He was also

Member of the United States House of Representatives from 1878 to 1880.

He was also a member of the Confederate Congress and the Confederate Supreme Court. He was also a member of the Confederate

War Department and the Confederate War Office. He was also a member of the Confederate War Office and