HERE AND HEREBOUTS.

Court at Hampton this week.
Two weeks from today to the Glorious Fourth.
Blackberries are ripe and better times have come.

We complete today publication of Treasurer Armstrong's annual report and are glad.
Mr. L. N. Embanks, one of the big and brainy merchants of Aiken, was in town last week.

Col. Leroy Molair will leave in a few days on his annual summer visit to relatives and friends in Virginia and Washington.
Second District republican delegate to the national convention, W. S. Dixon, left on Friday for Chicago. Before his departure he expressed himself as favoring L. R. Overhalt.

The United States senate on Thursday confirmed the appointment of Col. A. W. Knight as postmaster at Barnwell. He will surely make good. It is a highly man in character, courage and capacity.

The hoarse note of the locust, the surest prophet of hot weather, was heard for the first time this season on the evening of the 12th inst. Now listen for the chirp of the katydid and get ready for the most frosty rainy days yet.

In his graceful announcement of withdrawal from the primary race for senator, A. J. Edgar, A. Brown gives evidence of a faithfulness to present duty and obligation that will be remembered to his credit in his future career.

A Rosemary farmer told us on Saturday that he expected to gather forty bushels of corn from each acre of his best stubble land. He calculates that the preparation of the land, planting and cultivation of the crop will require for each acre five days work at a low hand at a time.

Governor Blease has appointed B. R. Hays, Esq. of Hampton as special judge of Probate for this county. It is probable that the probating of the will of the late Mr. George W. Green of Black Creek. Hon. John K. Spaulding having been appointed one of Mr. Green's executors cannot act officially in this case.

The meeting of the county Democratic Executive Committee to be held on July 2nd will be supported by a large force of delegates. Campaign meetings, under the auspices of the committee and the date for filing petitions. There may be other important matters for discussion and determination.

The attention of our best farmer readers, their parents and neighbors, is called to the advertisement of the Clemson College examination to be held July 2nd. What year's course in agriculture will give the winner a long start on the right road to prosperity as a farmer.

Write to Dr. Bagg about it.
Fruit wizard A. Fred Alarich has put up to us a problem that would puzzle a Philadelphia lawyer. It has placed before us two baskets of evidence and calls for a decision as to the merits of Seed and Tillson peaches. So far the Court has discovered and holds that neither has any demerits. Any further opinion is reserved. We can only say that we could be happy with either, were they dear, charming away. The seed was our first love of the season, the Tillson appeals to later taste. After a while we expect to say that the original Cardinal wins first honor.

THE CORN CROP.
Experienced farmers told us on Saturday that the corn crop had been so damaged by the rain, down pour and subsequent sand storms that with normal seasons from now on not more than 75 per cent of an average crop can be made. The stalks are round near the ground and the blades of the corn stand too straight up, sure signs of maturity.
Where one has good land in reasonably clean condition a few acres of an early variety of corn can be profitably planted.

FIVE GLAD DAYS.
From Wednesday of last week until Monday Rev. W. L. Hays of Big Island, Bedford County, Va., was the appreciated guest of members of the Barnwell Baptist Church. He came a stranger but returned to the Old Testament a friend of all who entertain him, and admired and respected by all who heard the three admirable sermons he delivered during his visit. If he is half as well pleased with Carolina as Barnwell is impressed with him he will surely accept the pastoral call extended to him and become a permanent resident at the coming of the Fall. He will receive a hearty warming welcome should he come.

JULY JURORS.
Pled Jurors for the first week of the July term of the Court of General Sessions were drawn on Monday.
Alford: F. Chavous, J. A. Wide, W. M. Ladd, Geo. F. Young, W. W. Mason.
Baldie: O. B. Bennett.
Barnwell: H. A. Black, F. H. Anderson, M. J. Deik.
Bennett Springs: J. J. Cochran, C. D. Rountree, J. H. Duncan.
Blackville: H. D. Doves, R. F. Chitty, W. W. Mason.
Bull Pond: E. W. Brunson.
Four Mile: T. A. Greene, Geo. W. Wingate.
Georges Creek: H. P. Sanders, A. F. Carter, C. H. Hutto.
Great Cypress: C. W. Pate, W. H. Wilkinson.
Red Oak: J. P. Farley, G. I. Hill.
Rosemary: A. H. Frederick.
Stemore: J. W. All, L. G. Harter, I. L. Brant, W. G. Roberts.
Williston: J. B. Odum, J. R. Lott, C. L. Wooley, P. S. Quattlebaum, M. W. Kitchings.

TWO WAYS.
Mr. W. H. Dowitt of Blackville gave us last week this interesting statement of facts and figures to show how much better it is for a man to attend to his own business than to put it and his trust in a middle man. Last Fall feeling sure and satisfied that the bears could not forever keep the price of cotton at so unprofitable a figure he held 200 bales of his place near Hilton. It was partially covered by insurance costing him 55 cents per bale.
When the price of cotton rose to 10 1/2 cents per pound he sold the entire lot of 200 bales at that figure to Jones, All & Co. for export, receiving $9,850. The cotton was as heavy as when ginned, had not lost a pound in weight.

He had sent a small shipment of 32 bales to an Augusta warehouse for storage and sale. This lot was sold for 7 cents a pound and the costs charged by the warehouse amounted to $34 bales. Besides it had lost 429 pounds in weight. We see to the interest the figuring up of comparative results.

CANDIDATE CARDS.
Col. Harry D. Calhoun of Barnwell announces in this issue his candidacy for the national House of Representatives from this District. He is of Scotch-Irish descent. The family name in the European home was O'Connell. His ancestors after emigrating to America in colonial times changed the spelling of their name as did many immigrants from the British Isles. They were among the first settlers of this colony and they and their descendants have won worthy parts in peace and in war in every chapter of the State's history. The family of the distinguished Carolina Senator and Vice President of the United States was one branch of the American South Carolina family. Col. H. D. Calhoun's great grandfather, James Overtree, was a member of Congress from this District from 1811 to 1822. He journeyed to Washington in 1800 on a gig. Coming homeward on his last ride he was sickened and died and was buried at China Grove, N. C. His country home here was in what is now Bull Pond township.

Col. Calhoun's school advantages were in the old field schools of his neighborhood. At an early age he engaged in practical farm work and continued in the work until he became a commercial traveler. In 1856, at the age of 20 years young Harry donned the red shirt and riding a black bull of his own herd he was engaged in a contest with most striking figures in the unique Democratic Club of the late Capt. W. B. Peoples.

In 1860 he abandoned commercial pursuits, returned to Barnwell and organized the Home Bank of Barnwell with W. M. Ladd as president and Barnwell, both of which have been successful dividend paying institutions. He is interested in other business enterprises. The only public office he has ever held was that of President of the Traveler's Protective Association, an organization having 1,000 members. That position he held in popularity with his brethren of the club.

The announcement of Mr. A. Brown's candidacy as candidate for Magistrate at Hilton is published today.
Mr. J. T. Pender announces his candidacy for Magistrate at Balline in today's issue.

FAITHFUL TO DUTY.
Barnwell, S. C., June 15, 1912.
Editor BARNWELL PEOPLE:
Please discontinue my announcement in your paper as a candidate for the office of Senator. Owing to the fact that our Courts have been very busy throughout the year and we have practically continuous Courts in the District during the summer my duties as an official stenographer will not permit me to give the time and attention to the race for the Senatorship that I would like to hence, I am compelled to withdraw from the race. I would regret the duties of one office to run for another.
Yours very truly,
Edgar A. Brown.

A WITHDRAWAL CARD.
Fully and gratefully appreciating the long and generous confidence so frequently and forcefully expressed in words and deeds toward me during my official service here in announcing my withdrawal from the primary race for nomination for reappointment as Magistrate for Four Mile.
While there is no weakening of my loyalty to the public good, the supremacy of law and the continuance of civic righteousness, advancing age advises me to the better care of my health and the enjoyment of the rest that I trust I have amply earned.
With every ambition gratified with good will to all and malice toward none I shall retire at the end of my present term strong in the hope that the future of our beloved State and people will be worthy of the past in which you and I, fellow citizens have, touched glory and preserved the best civilization in the world.
Very sincerely,
T. S. Dunbar.
June 15th, 1912.

BE SLOW TO PROMISE.
Three weeks from tomorrow the candidates for State offices are scheduled to speak at Barnwell. At a later date the candidates for United States Senate and House of Representatives will have their opportunity.
Give the candidates a square deal and in the selection of public servants give preference to the man of common sense that would govern the employment of personal employees. Get the best officials possible for the State and keep your preferences a personal secret until after the candidates are heard. And above all things else don't get angry or excited. A hot temper and good judgment are never agreeable partners.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.
Blackville, S. C., June 11, 1912.
Sovereigns W. T. Brooker and I. H. Hutto.
Resolutions passed by the W. O. W. Camp of Blackville, S. C., where as members of our Order, he it resolved. Let the members of the Black Jack Camp No. 25 keenly feel the loss of our brethren.
2nd. That the Secretary of this camp express to the members of their families our heart felt grief and assurance of sympathy in this their deep sorrow.
3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to THE BARNWELL PEOPLE for publication, and also a copy be sent to each member of their families, and a page set apart for a copy of them in the minute book.
Committee,
E. E. Fickling,
I. W. Eubanks,
W. W. Hair.

Harmony Lodge No. 17 A. F. M., Barnwell, S. C., May 29, A. I. 1912.
Again has the Grim Reaper Death entered the portals of our lodge and taken from among us our beloved Brother G. R. Morris.
Now he is resolved.
That in the death of Brother Morris (Harmony Lodge Number 17 A. I. M.) has lost a true and loyal member, the brethren a warm and faithful friend, and the order a good man and Mason.
Resolved further, That the heartfelt sympathy of his brethren be extended to his bereaved family that a copy of these resolutions suitably engrossed be sent to them, and a page in our minute book be inscribed to his memory.
Resolved further, That these Resolutions be published in the County papers, and that lodge be draped in mourning for thirty days.

THE DEATH OF AN AUNT.
The Angel of death has again entered our home and claimed one very dear and dear to the writer. In declining Mrs. Catherine Gill who went peacefully to sleep on Tuesday, June the 11th after ten days of anxious waiting and careful nursing. Her body was tenderly taken to Gilets Church and there the last sad rites were said by the Rev. Mr. James, our beloved pastor. It is a fact that she had been a faithful member for over thirty years. After all that could be said was told she was laid to rest by the side of her husband, there to rest until the resurrection morn.
She was a true and noble woman. Her life was devoted to her home. Nine years ago her only son moved here to the home of the writer and with the intention of going out west to hunt a better piece of home for himself and mother and when telling us good bye he asked this one promise, to take care of mother and her home. He has not a gig. Coming homeward on his last ride he was sickened and died and was buried at China Grove, N. C. His country home here was in what is now Bull Pond township.

Col. Calhoun's school advantages were in the old field schools of his neighborhood. At an early age he engaged in practical farm work and continued in the work until he became a commercial traveler. In 1856, at the age of 20 years young Harry donned the red shirt and riding a black bull of his own herd he was engaged in a contest with most striking figures in the unique Democratic Club of the late Capt. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING.
A special meeting of the County Democratic Executive Committee will be held at Barnwell on Monday, July 1st, 1912, 8 o'clock.
A full and prompt attendance is requested and expected as very important matters are to be considered and a telephone callbook a must.
C. K. Kinsland,
County Chairman.
Henry Johnson,
Secretary.

July 20th, the date of the first primary election, campaign therefor will get under way. The fighting becomes fiercer. After the ending of the battle of the ballots the sky will clear and silence come like a puff of wind from the window of sound.
But if there were two parties in this State the agents of debate and warfare would continue until the general election and slow progress be made in the picking and marking of cotton.

COTTON CROP NEWS.
From beyond the Mississippi river the news comes of good cotton crop prospects. The seasons have been fairly favorable and excessive rains have not been so bad as they have done at the Atlantic States.
Bull weevils are not as numerous in Louisiana as they have been and the red ants are said to be doing a good work in eating the eggs of the old and the hatching of the young weevils. No report has been received as to what distance they advanced eastward last year.

FIFTY FIVE CANDIDATES.
The time for filing pledges of candidates in the Democratic primary for State offices, United States Senator and Representatives, Solicitors, ended at noon on Monday and the door of opportunity was closed for the next two weeks. All told the candidates who have thrown their hats to the ring number 55. In alphabetical order those in whose contests Barnwell county voters are interested are:
