HERE AND HERABOUTS.

Half this year will be gone next Sunday midnight.

Just a week from today to Uncle Sam's birthday.

Capt. W. H. Kennedy is at Hendersonville, N. C., for a testful summer stay.

Keep something growing in the garden until Jack Frost stops the procession.

Sunday showers added many bushels to the growing corn crop, but more moisture is needed.

Mr. O. H. Ellis of Allendale, died at Hampton on Sunday after long illness. He was about 45 years of age.

The Summer School for teachers opened last week at Rock Hill with over six hundred teachers in attendance.

Misses Carrie Cave, Kathleen Call and Ella Louie with Master W. Leroy McFar are on Sullivan's Island for a couple of weeks.

A Farmers' Institute will be held at Barnwell on July 23rd, at Barnberg July 24th, by Clemson College and government wise men. Particulars will be given later.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Birt, returning to Hampton from their bridal trip in the North Carolina mountains, were the guests of Barnwell relatives a couple of days last week.

Thursday Alton B. Parker, of New York, was elected temporary chairman of the Democratic national convention, receiving 59 votes to 53 cast for W. J. Bryan, of Nebraska.

The work of making the Bank of Barnwell building, now a branch of the Bank of Western Carolina, beautiful and up to date began this week and will continue several months.

The school was closed on Tuesday and the news from the opening of the International national convention was so harmonious and healthy as we would like it to have been. But she will that ends well.

At the commencement of the College of Charleston last week high honors were awarded to Dr. W. B. Lancaster of Barnwell, a member of the Sophomore Class, specially distinguished in zoology.

Spartanburg has added another proof of the correctness of its claim to the title of "City of Success." In a whirlwind campaign among its citizens, Governor College has secured a majority of 4000 votes to its endorsement.

On Saturday our good friend Mr. George W. Peacock gave us a bag of the prettiest and most extensively tested plums that ever ripened under any sun. They were of a lovely amber color, practically clean, stone and all the other fine qualities that make the give life from fault or blemish.

Hog Cholera was intelligently discussed at the meeting of the Four Mile Agricultural Club on Saturday. Editor Honeycutt of the Southern Cultivator was the principal speaker. Experienced farmers gave evidence that in pasture supplied with pure drinking water the disease is rare.

The summer enrollment for State troops will hardly be held at Anthon, Ark., this year. President Eft signed the bill making appropriations for army expenses because Congress incorporated in the bill a provision legalizing Gen. Leonard Wood out of the position he holds as chief of staff.

The national Democratic Convention to nominate candidates for President and Vice-President met in Baltimore on Tuesday. As the candidates must receive a two-thirds vote the meeting is likely to be a protracted one. In noisiness and blundering it can not possibly equal the howling Republican show in Chicago.

Attorneys for James E. Seigler, the well-to-do Aiken planter found guilty of manslaughter for the killing of policeman Wade Patterson and sentenced to seven years imprisonment have decided to appeal to the Supreme Court. Under the law the defendant may be admitted to bail until the Supreme Court's decision is rendered, which will not be until late in the year. Since the homicide he has been in jail, bail having been refused him.

It has been the rule for farmers to feel good about this time of the year over crop prospects. It was the rule also later on for something to happen in the way of rains or drought or excessive heat to disappoint expectations. May be the feeling good time will come later this year and last longer.

The general report for this county is that up to this time thin lands seem to be tired from last year's over production and good lands sick from over feeding of commercial fertilizers.

A twig ten inches long containing eleven fair sized cherries was received on Friday from Mr. Arthur Harden of Milledgeville. Mr. J. B. Towne who cleverly brought this specimen of Southside prosperity has done a good service to his old home community in propagating long living and first quality fruits, tells us that the orchards there seem to be trying to eliminate by killing themselves overbearing fruit. A quart of all the promise—the rare treat of a gallon of sweet elder in August as the summer gift of himself and Mr. Harden.

Mr. W. F. Daneau of Four Mile was our first friend to make Blue Monday bright in two happy ways, the second being the beginning of the acquisition with his own money and the result of the late son, Mister William Thomas Daneau.

Mr. G. Marshall Moore, a former principal of the Barnwell Graded School, has been elected over two opponents Superintendent of Education for Hillboro county, Florida, of which Tampa is the county seat. Mr. Moore went to Florida several years ago as city editor of The Times, with which he will retain his connection until next January, when he will go into the Superintendent's office.

JULY COURT.

Second week petit jurors were drawn Monday:

Albion: W. G. Raddell, Robt. W. Williams, C. B. Farm, J. G. Strong, W. J. Sparks, S. B. Tally, F. W. Wilson.

Beaufort Springs: L. P. Smith, J. B. Kirkland.

Edenton: E. F. Martin, M. P. Webb, G. J. Chitty, J. R. Woodward, H. Jeff Hair, John O. Gorman A. B. Hair.

Bull Pond: J. S. Rice.

Four Mile: M. L. McElhany.

Georges Creek: J. D. Collins, N. A. Hiers.

Great Cypress: B. M. Jenkins, J. J. A. Myrick, C. M. Bishop, H. D. Sease.

Red Oak: W. P. Row.

Rich Land: J. M. Kilgusworth.

Sylamore: J. D. Auger, J. B. Chisolm, J. P. Thomas, J. P. Wilkinson, W. H. Whiston, J. P. Lee Jr., J. T. Youngblood, A. P. Scott, L. A. Green, B. Strungledow, T. W. Scott.

LOOKING AHEAD.

The corn crop news received last was all discouraging as to the earlier planting. The planting generally is selected and the yield is being given it. Too much money is going off glimmering for Northern hay. Broadcast season suitable land and after the vines before frost. Work stock will live here a few days and then on pasture. It has been proven many times. And during work season one daily feed of corn and fodder with a plenty of hay will be all that is needed and horses require. So a few more potatoes and fields of sweet potatoes as feed for their milks. Why not your brother?

HOME ENTERPRISE.

The League doesn't invite any persons to a larger than watermelon and better than seedling peaches, but we have received in preparation for past subscriptions a cart load of canned fruits and vegetables. But we have no expectation that such collection will come in.

TO TRICKERS.

A housekeeper remarked to us recently that the onion used at his home were made in Texas.

Is it because local truck farmers, with the advantage of no freight to pay, can not compete with the Texas onion, or because they have thought about making this recent crop?

And how will it be next Fall and Winter as to turnips, Irish Potatoes and cabbage? Proper will have such forecasts even if they have to import them from Maine, Ireland, Scotland or Denmark.

LET US FEEL.

Mrs. W. L. Wilson of Augusta, for several of Atlanta's best kind of potatoes, to come to Barnwell and see a state to assist in the organization of a chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. She very gracefully and graciously suggests that in connection with the memory of Gen. James H. Huger whose name is so intimately associated with the best history of the town, the county the state.

Are there lovely ladies, daughters of Confederate soldiers, who are willing to join in the labor of love in preparing for the future of the town, the history of the day of modern civilization? The cost for necessary expenses in maintaining a chapter, etc., will be fifty cents per member. Surely the daughter of heroic fathers will not be discouraged by a work so high and noble. It is desired to announce this organization with a membership of twenty, as there are ten others necessary to the most efficient working of the chapter. Ladies willing to give their good will to this patriotic purpose are requested to write to Mrs. W. L. Wilson, 124 North Main Street, Barnwell, S. C.

Veterans of the "Lost Cause" are requested to lend their efforts to this high, needed service.

Please be prompt in getting in line with the patriotic women of the State. From all sections of the county membership is most cordially invited.

POULTRY IN PENNSYLVANIA.

On November 1st, 1911, The Philadelphia North American newspaper began in co-partnership with the State Agricultural Society an egg laying contest to continue in session for twelve months. Five hundred hens representing twenty three varieties are cackling in a hundred different pens. The egg results at the end of the month are as follows among the most productive:

The S. C. Buff Orpingtons laid the most eggs during the nineteen weeks—an average of 272 1/4 eggs per pen and an average of 34 2/3 eggs per hen.

The S. C. Rhode Island Reds are next with a pen average of 237 1/3 eggs and a per hen average of 47 eggs.

Close on the heels of the S. C. Rhode Island Reds is the Rose Comb variety with a pen average of 281 eggs and per bird average of 36 1/3 eggs.

Next are the White Orpingtons with a pen average of 257 eggs and per bird average of 43 1/3 eggs.

Next are the White Orpingtons with a pen average of 230 2/3 eggs and per bird average of 42 eggs.

Taking the Orpingtons and Rhode Island Reds as competing breeds in this egg laying competition, the Orpingtons have the better of it, as follows:

Nine pens of Orpingtons—four S. C. Buffs and five S. C. Whites—laid a total of 2,141 eggs, giving an average of 237 1/3 eggs per pen and of 47 2/3 eggs per bird.

Twelve pens of Rhode Island Reds—nine of S. C. and three of R. C. Reds—laid a total of 2,811 eggs, giving a pen average of 234 1/4 eggs and a per bird average of 36 4/5 eggs.

One pen of S. C. White Leghorns led all the other lots, laying 559 eggs during the period, and it is an interesting point that this pen contains English birds owned by Tucs. Barron, of Caterforth, England.

TOMATO CLUB PRIZE ANNOUNCEMENT.

The first prize will be given for the largest yield of tomatoes from 1 1/2 bushels for the next best yield.

2nd prize for the next best yield.

A GOOD TIME COMING.

The annual convention of the Savannah River Valley Associated Agricultural Clubs will be held at Barnwell, S. C., on Thursday, July 11th, 1930, at Myers Mill station by the Bennett Springs Agricultural Club. A picnic barbecue dinner will be served and the good time had by all. A special morning train from Augusta will bring delegates and visitors to the station before the day becomes warm, and carry them to their starting stations at once for a four hour tour. The programme is as follows:

Address of Welcome by Dr. A. R. Patterson, of Barnwell.

Response by R. C. Beckman, of the Richland County, Ga., Agricultural Society.

Address by Robert M. Mixson, orator of the day.

A cordial invitation is extended to all good people interested in agricultural progress to spend a pleasant and profitable day in the country. There will be welcome and plenty for all.

Candidates for all offices are especially invited to attend, with the distinct understanding that no political speechmaking will take place.

The meeting will be at Myers Mill Station, not at the Spring, where previous gatherings have met.
