PERTINENT TO EDUCATION. Friends of education througout the county will be interested in some of the salient facts in the progress of educational affairs in Barnwell county. This report is based upon figures taken from my annual report for the scholastic year ending June 30th 1912 and flied with the State Superintendent of Education and taxation are the two most important factors in any democratic state. Education creates an intellischool in the county. This is open to either boys or girls. For the best letter on the subject, "Why a County should hold an Annual Fair" a first prize, $3.00 is offered: Second boxes. prize, $3.00 is offered; Second prize, tricts in the county pay a special tax for school purposes. The maximum Agnes Carroll, Should any explanation be necessary levy of 6 \(\frac{1}{2} \) mills is in Williston district; the minimum levy, one mill, in the Cedar Grove district. Seven districts either voted a special tax or increased the school levy during the year. The total revenue of the county was $76.547.14, a little over six thousand dollars more than last school year. The increase isoccasioned by the bond issue in the Williston district, which 4th A.D. 1912, it being salesday in said amounted to $12,288 00.
