THURSDAY, JANUARY 2, 1913.

JOHN W. HOLMES—THE MAN. OCTOBER 17, 1840.

DECEMBER 29, 1912.

thirty-five years, under his able heard him express-that he would and without the borders of Barngifted writer, the weak and opwell county, and the writer has pressed a champion, all mankinds reason to believe that those visits a friend, but the fragrance of his have been welcome ones, for it memory still lingers and will abide was ever the aim of the editor to with us always. The world is the
and one of the most prominent lawlook of Rosemary
Baptist Church and by lands of Rosemary
GEN. JAMES W. MOORE DEAD
Rosemary Creek, being the tract of
State Senator from Hampton county W. Trotti, Jr. on November 1st, A. D. was ever the aim of the editor to with us always. The world is the
and one of the most prominent lawlook of Rosemary
Baptist Church and by lands of Rosemary
GEN. JAMES W. MOORE DEAD
Rosemary Creek, being the tract of Rosemary
GEN. JAMES W. MOORE DEAD
Rosemary Creek, being the tract of
State Senator from Hampton county W. Trotti, Jr. on November 1st, A. D. was ever the aim of the editor to with us always. The world is the present an impartial statement of better for his stay in it. events as they occurred, "with "None knew him but to love him, Hines, in Seneca last Friday morning, leight (8) E, at page 110.

That he succeeded None spoke of him but in praise." In the 76th year of his age, after two. towards all." That he succeeded

The Barnwell People. tion was given to the people of his adopted county. Although offered the editorial management son of Mr and Mrs. Wyman A. Mansel, departed this life early Friday morning, Dec. 27, 1912. He was born ferred to remain among the peoferred to remain among the people with whom he first cast his months and one day of age.

Little Charles was only sick a short lot after the fortunes of war had while and his death was a shocking stripped them bare of all save the one to the community. actual necessities of life. He was tempted to retire from active serstill needed—that his work was commetery and was placed in its final incomplete—spurred him on and resting place beside others who had management, the paper has made "wake in some happier clime"weekly visits into the homes of has been granted, and the State our warmest sympathies several hundred families within has lost a gallant son, the world a

B. P. DAVIES.

Major John W. Holmes.

-Courtesy of The News and Courier.

sal confidence and esteem in which he was held by all

Our friend and your friend is dead, but to quote his own words, and all mankind, Major John W. Angeles, "death was to him only the trans Holmes, for thirty-five years the owner reign of dead, but to quote his own words, ition from the couch of suffering into the eternal Paradise." Sitting in the same old chair in the old office that for so long has been the home of THE PEOPLE, surrounded on every side by his belongings, memories of the days spent in companionship with him come to us. Of his early life, his record in the war and the unhappy times that followed, we shall not attempt to write, preferring to leave that to others, but to the man himself we shall endeavor in some small part to pay tribute.

since our boyhood, and for a num- felling of the most ordinary happeningber of years have been intimately of every-day life. He enjoyed espeassociated with him. During that cially writing on agricultural questions time we realized to some extent and bringing home to the farmers of the true worth of the man and Barnwell County vividly but very grew to love him, as did every practically, lessons of value to them should be first a special touchers and among one with whom he came in contact. The writer feels sure that riod through which he had lived and Barnwell on Friday, January 10, 121. all of "the boys" who have worked in his office felt the same affection for him. Certainly he was more part, will have permanent value, and like a friend than an employer, for steps should be taken now looking to English, Algebra, Arthumetic. Physical All that tract of fand, situate, lying like a friend than an employer, for steps should be taken now looking to English, Algebra, Arthumetic, Physical All that tract of fand, situate, lying like a friend than an employer, for steps should be taken now looking to English. Algebra, Arthumetic, Physical All that tract of fand, situate, lying like a friend than an employer, for steps should be taken now looking to English. he was always considerate of the rights and feelings of those who were associated with him, and not one single instance do we recall of his having knowingly hurt the feelings of any one, be he ever so humble. He was a man of many admirable traits of character. Al though he was not blest with an over abundance of this world's goods and never given to a public display of his charity, he was ever ready to give when he thought son to feel grateful to him.

He was the soul of honor and member, the State a spiendid citizen. paid all debts that he contracted and he contracted none that he could not pay. He never did less than he promised, but on the other hand always tried to do even a little more. He gave much and pardon all the convicts who work in exacted little. His tastes were the hostery mill at the Penitentiary simple and his mode of life unos. unless the Legislature, at its next sestentatious. More like the violet sion, abolishes the mill, which is said than the rose, he made life sweet. to be a menace to the health of the opthan the rose, he made life sweet er for those who passed his way and there were no thorns to hurt the feelings of any with whom he came in contact. Numbers have gone to him in sorrow and distress. and to none did he deny the comfort of his friendship. It seemed to us that he emulated the life of man of our acquaintance. Never having married, the love of a naturally affectionate disposi-livelihood.

JOHN W. HOLMES. News and Courier. Rich in years and at peace with God Fout is whose only acquaintance with him 2 was through the enjoyment which the weekly visits of THE PROPIE never failed to afford. He had a heart of visites tileg il and gold. There was the spirit of sunshine generating a maxim in all that came from his ever delight. Teighteen no the The charges agained M fut pen. A man of no mean scholar-teach defendant at ambianed in fifty thater's office, bee both, but ship, years of observation and keen and seen band Mon analysis had crowned and blessed b mg with a rich and ripe philosophy, but it was the inimitable grace and spright the defendants ly fancy with which he expressed him-We have known Major Holmes self which lent distinction to his chronin the events in which, with all becomng modesty he had bravely borne his their preservation. There are many of us who are genuinely sorry that he is gone. He belonged to a school of which there are few survivors. He had individuality and was not afraid to give it play.

"A SPLENDID CITIZEN."

The following telegram was received here Monday evening and shows in what high regard Major Holmes was held outside of Barnwell county: "Maj. R. Boyd Cole, Barnwell, S. C. Will you not kindly convey to the that the object of his charity was surviving relatives of Major Holmes deserving. There are many needy sincere condolences on behalf of South ones in this county who have rea- Carolina Press Association? The Association loses a valued and esteemed

> H, L. Watson, Pres." Mr. Watson is President of the South Carolina Press Association,

> Governor Blease has threatened to eratives. Instead of resorting to such stringent measures, we suggest that he have them given other work.

$71,719.58 represented the proceeds from the sale of 956 bales of cotton and the cotton seed, grown by convicts on the Mississippi State farm.

Why not teach these unfortunates and please. the Nazarene more than any other scientific farming, and then, when they have served out their sentences they will be better prepared to earn

OBEYED GOD'S CALL

Charles Brant Manuel, the youngest State of South Carolina,

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. H. Simpson at Bethel Church Saturday morning. Then the vice, but the thought that he was little body was taken to the family kept him at his labors in the Little Charles was a member of the Ulmer, S. C.

months of ill health. He was an uncle ate soldier and at the close of the warp or less, together with the buildings practised law as a partner of the later and improvements thereon, if any, Leroy F. Youmans. He was the first bounded now or formerly on the North Senator from Hampton county, being by lands of Z. Foutz and by lands of elected in 1878, and at one time was Calvin Owens; On the East by John chairman of the State Executive Companion; On the South by the public mittee. He married Miss Nella Til-Groad leading from the Town of Willislinghast, a sister of Mrs. Leroy F. John to the town of Elko, separating oumans of Columbia His body was laid to rest Sunday

t Gillisonville, Josper county

NEWS NOTES.

hought the animal had rable -.

Teachers Examination.

County Supt. of Education. Barnwell County. Jarnwell, S. C., Dec, 21, 1912.

A New Supply Just Received at HILL TOP STABLES

They are of the same right sort ALWAYS handled there.

Wagors, Harness, Whips, Robes, and South Carolina needs more farmers. sell stock equipments at prices to profit

> Charlie Brown, Your Friend.

MASTER'S SALE.

County of Barnwell.

Court of Common Pleas.

Ex Parte, Tillie E. Trotti, in her own right and as Administratrix of the estate of H. H. Trotti, deceased, et al.,

By virtue of a decretal order to m

firected in the above entitled cause, will sell at Barnwell, in front of the Court House, on Monday, January 6th. 1913, it being salesday in said month within the legal hours of sale, the fol-lowing described real property: All evening of his life, and not until Bethel Sunday School's Cradle Roll, that certain piece, parcel or tract of THE PEOPLE carries to its readthe shades of night were closing but had been promoted to the primary land, with the buildings and improve department a short while ago. His ments thereon, if any, situate, lying parents feel that they have lost the life and being in Rosemary Township, in death of its founder and editor, pen. He was faithful unto death. and light of their home but we feel Barnwell County, South Carolina, con-Major John W. Holmes. For The last wish that we ever assured that their loss is God's gain staining one hundred and fifty (150) He is survived by his loying parents, paces, more or less, and bounded now three brothers and an infant sister, or formerly on the North by the We extend to the bereaved loved ones Charleston and Augusta Public Road which separates this tract from lands of the estate of Bryant Weathersbee; On the East by lands of Rosemary Gen James W. Moore, for 18 years land conveyed to H. H. Trotti by S. State Senator from Hampton county W. Trotti, Jr. on November 1st, A. D. and one of the most prominent law—131907, the deed of and to which is revealed to the standard of the standard of the Clerk of the home of his standard or E. A. S. State Senator from Hampton county W. Trotti, Jr. on November 1st, A. D. and one of the most prominent law—131907, the deed of and to which is retained by the home of his standard or the clerk of the home of his standard or the content of the county with the home of his standard or the county with the home of his standard or the county with the home of his standard or the county with the home of his standard or the county with the home of his standard or the county with the home of his standard or the county with the home of his standard or the county with the county of Adjt. Gen. W. W. Moore of Barn of All that certain tract of land situate, well and has other relatives and many lying and being in Williston Township, friends living in this county.

Barnwell County, State aforesaid, conference of the county of the co Gen. Moore was a gallant Confeder-Staining one hundred (100) acres, more on to the town of Elko, separating this tract from lands formerly of th His body was laid to rest Sunday sestate of Lewis Stansell; and on the family burying ground West by lands of Mingo Holman, C. V Trotti and others. This tract being a portion of the old "Tom Stansell plantation 'in Williston Township.

Noah Davis, a negro living near St. Matthews, was attacked on Christmas day by a mad boar and so severely bit from Barnwell County and State of sew up his wounds.

Jack Parish, a white man of Marion fronting on Railroad Avenue and county, who was paroled by Governor Blease on December by hill back to the penitentiary to serve out inches more or less, and four (4) back to the penitentiary to serve out this sentence of eight months for a depth of the violated his parole by being and ten (210) feet, more or less, and trunning back fronting on Railroad Avenue; On the East of South Carolina or the same by a mule the lands of the South Carolina and Monday, and before he cound be freed Georgia Railway Company; On South Monday, and before he cound be freed Georgia Railway Company; On South Rown as Neriand's Lane; On the East of South North Pascallis and Campbell and the lands of the South Carolina and Streets of Side Town and bounded as the mule had to be kived and the jaws, by lards of Carolyn P. Cumming and by lot now of Thomas L. Wragg; On the Pascullis of Pascallis Lane; On the East of South Pascallis Lane; On the Pascallis Lane; On the Pascallis Lane; On the East of South Pascall orted open. The mule's head was sent on the West by lot of J. C. Cochran; by lot now of Thomas L. Wragg: o Columbia for examination, as I was ald lot being known as the North-the South by Pascallis Street and

w. T. Lindsay proved of Glassy being that lot conveyed to H. H. Trot Terms of sale cash. Purchaser to longtain school and a discent in agric by Carolyn P. Cumming on the pay for papers. Dark Corner" of Greens Percountand to which is recorded in the office Muster's office, Dec. 14th, 1912

MASTER'S SALE.

Court of Common Pleas.

British and American Mortgage Con pany Limited,

II. J. Harvey and West by lands of S Terms of sale cash. Purchaser to av for papers Re-sold at risk of former purchaser. H. L. O'Bannon, Master's office, Dec. 14th, 1912.

MASTER'S SALE.

State of South Carolina, County of Barnwell

Court of Common Pleas. British and American Mortgage Company, Limited, Plaintiff. against

W. W. Harley, et al., Defendants.

By virtue of a decretal order to me irected in the above entitled cause. I ill sell at Barnwell, in front of the House, on Monday, January th, 1913, it being salesday in said nonth, within the legal hours of sale, the following described real prop-erty: All that tract and plantation of Master's office, December 16th, 1912. land situate, and being in George's reek Township, County of Barnwell and State of South Carolina, and con taining (125) one hundred and twenty five acres, more or less, and bounded Also Nicest Buggies in the State, son the North by land of Wash Croft; Comfortable Surreys, Everlasting East by land of Charles Croft and lands of Mary E. Harley; and South by lands of Levy Still and West by lands of Charles Croft and lands of Harriet Sanders, Terms of sale cash. Purchaser to pay for papers.

H L. O'Bannon, Master. Master's office, Dec. 14th, 1912.

MASTER'S SALE.

State of South Carolina, County of Barnwell.

Court of Common Pleas. Citizens Bank, Blackville, S. C. Plaintiff.

Iarriet Coker,

erty: All that piece, parcel or lot of land, situate, lying and being in the Town of Blackville, County of Barnwell, and state aforesaid, and baving

the following metes and boundaries feet, and bounded by South Boundary

Street, Measuring on the East one hundred and forty (140) feet, and bounded by lot of Tama Jackson

Measuring on the South sixty (60) feet and bounded by lot of C. C. Farrel and measuring on the West one hun dred and forty (140) feet, and bounded by ten (10) foot right of-way reserved C. C. Farrell for a driveway.

Terms of sale cash. Purchaser t

State of South Carolina, 1

County of Barnwell.

against

W. O. Fickling, Jones A. Williams, F

G. Fickling and Mrs. Minnie B

By virtue of a decretal order to m

Court House, on Monday, January 6th,

MASTER'S SALE.

ohn H. Davison and Charles T. Fa

tton, and everything connected wi e said ginning outfit, the same ha gage held by the plaintiffs against

Master's office, Dec. 16th, 1912.

State of South Carolina.

County of Barnwell.

Dalsy A. Bonham, et al.,

Marcella Cave, et al.,

Terms cash. Purchaser to pay fo

MASTER'S SALE.

Court of Common Pleas.

against

By virtue of a decretal order to n

irected in the above entitled cause,

will sell at Barnwell, in front of th

Court House, on Monday, January 6th, 913, it being salesday in said month, vithin the legal hours of sale, the fo wing described real property: All hat piece or parcel of land containing ne hundred acres, more or less, se side by the decree of the Court

South Carolina, to Mrs. Daisy A. Bon am, for life, with remainder to M. I enham, Jr., P. A. Bonham and Mar

ha A. Bonham as under and by th erms of the will of Mrs. Martha A ldrich, deceased. Said land being drich, Mrs. Mary E. Allen, the residue tract of the lands of Mrs. M. A. Al

Terms of sale cash. Purchaser to

NOTICE OF FINAL DISCHARGE.

Notice is hereby given that the un dersigned will on Monday, Januar

27th, 1913, file with Hon. John K.

Snelling, Judge of Probate for Barnwell County, their final return as Executors of the will of Charles E. Gyles, deceased, and apply for Letters Dis-

H, L. O'Bannon,

Herbert E. Gyles,

Executors.

W. A. Gyles,

drich and by Cave, et al.

pay for papers.

Dec. 27, 1912.

ounded by the lands of Robert Al-

H. L. O'Bannon,

Plaintiffs,

I. Duncan.

state of South Carolina, 1

Virginia K. Duncan, et al

County of Barnwell

directed in the above entitled cause,

will sell at Barnwell, in front of th

Defendants.

pay for papers.

Mrs. M. L. Still,

Merchant,

Measuring on the North fifty-five (55

Defendant,

By virtue of a decretal order to me lirected in the above entitled cause. I will sell at Barnwell, in front of the Court House, on Monday, January 6th, 1913, it being salesday in said month, within the legal hours of sale, the following described real prop-

> THE BEST MADE, For Sale at Molair's Hardware Branch,

> Pump water is purer and safer fron nfection than that drawn from open xposed wells. The pump is easier to operate that he old fashioned windlass or chain and > Make home life easier for the wife nd children. BUY A PUMP.

H. L. O'Bannen. Wheelwright and Black-Master's office, Dec. 14th, 1912. smith Work Done Here. MASTER'S SALE.

Horse-shoeing a Specialty; als Court of Common Pleas.

repairing rubber tired buggies. Plaintiff,

M. W. HITT, - At Johnson's Old Stand,-Blackville. S. C.

want those which will give you service at the lowest cost per day. Cheap shingles will not meet this requirement. TRANSFER BRAND Red Cedar SHINGLES are the highest grade shingles produced, Ask your Dealer or write us.

When you buy SHINGLES you

Calhoun & Co.

FIRE.

Life, Accident,

CYCLONE

LIGHTNING

___AND -

Live Stock

INSURANCE,

-At Lowest Rates In-

STRONGEST COMPANIES

-OFFICES AT-

THE BANK OF BARNWELL

THE TRANSFER LUMBER & SHINGLE COMPANY, NORTH TONAWANDA, NEW YORK

Deposit your Money, Checks and Drafts with the

·

Home Bank of Barnwell

(The Farmers' Union Bank)

Quick and Courteus Service

Money Furnished to Cotton Pickers

"Watch the Home Bank Grow"

PORTER-SNOWDEN CO.

Cotton Lactors and Commission Merchants,

ON EAST BAY STREET

CHARLESTON. - - S. C.

All Cotton Handled on Commission

Extra Staple Cotton A Specialty

Would be pleased to receive consignments from you which will command our very best attention.

HILL TOP STABLES Turns the New Year Leaf

"There's life in the old land yet" and Charlie Brown has the facts to prove it in the receipt of a car of

Choicest Horses and Mules

from the best stock farms of the Blue Grass States, all purpose stock and all of gilt edge beauty and every day sure service.

of excelsior Wagons, single and double, Buggies, Surreys, Harness, Saddles, Bridles, and everything in his specialty lines at specialty bed rock prices.

COME TO SEE AND SAVE

CHARLIE BROWN,

Barnwell, S. C.