HERE AND HEREABOUTS.

Miss Josie Davis is the guest of friends in Aiken.

The Hon. Clayton S. Warner was in Barnwell Saturday.

Miss Ella Louise Molair was the guest of Blackville friends last Friday.

State Game Warden A. A. Richardson spent a couple of days in Barnwell this week.

Miss Odelle Jenkins, of Kline, is the charming guest of Barnwell relatives and friends.

Miss Mamie Glover returned to Aiken Monday after a very pleasant visit to Miss Josie Davis.

A highly appreciated letter from Mr. B. M. Jenkins, Sr., of Kline, gave the week a pleasant ending.

Miss Ruth Price has returned home after a most enjoyable visit to relatives and friends in Walterboro.

Col. Leroy Molair and Charles Carroll Simms, Esq., left Sunday afternoon for a visit to Richmond, Va.

John M. Kinloch, Esq., came down from Columbia last week on a visit to Barnwell relatives and friends.

Miss Simsie McMichael has returned to Orangeburg after a few days to Miss Marie Richardson.

Miss Septima Smith, one of the teachers in the Barnwell school, left Tuesday afternoon for her home in Hopkins.

Capt. J. C. Keel, of Allendale, is among the out-of-town visitors here this week in attendance upon Court.

Messrs. W. A. Meyer, of Meyer's Mill, and E. L. Sanders, of Ulmer, were among the out-of-town visitors here this week.

An advertisement of interest to the young men of this county begins in this issue. Be sure and read what Clemson College has to say.

Mr. J. W. Harley, who recently returned to this county after a residence of several months in Groveton, Ga., paid the editor an appreciated call Saturday morning.

Miss Delle Thomas, Mr. R. S. Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Paulling motored over from Blackville Monday evening to see Paul Gilmore in "The Havoc."

Mr. J. C. Fields, of Kline, is in town this week as a juror. He reports that the recent rains have brought up cotton and that General Green is also preparing to give the farmers the usual battle.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Paulling and little son, of Blackville, and Mrs. Cliff Stack, of St. Matthews, motored over to Barnwell Sunday afternoon in Mr. Paulling's car to visit Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Cain.

Miss Louise Porter entertained a number of her friends very delightfully last Wednesday evening. Refreshments consisting of delicious cakes and ices and punch, were served to the guests.

See the full page advertisement of Merchant B. Mazursky in this issue of The People. If you want good merchandise at slaughtered prices you will do well to visit his stores during his mid-summer sale.

Miss Marguerite Harley left Tuesday for her home in Williston, after a successful year's work as a teacher in the Barnwell Graded School. She was accompanied home by Misses Olive Calhoun and Zelle Loadholt.

Mrs. B. P. Davies and little son, Ben, Jr., returned Thursday afternoon from a visit of several weeks to relatives and friends in the Old North State. They stopped over for a day with Mrs. Lena Davies at Columbia College.

Messrs. J. C. Loadholt, of Brunson, and J. F. Loadholt, of Ulmer, who were visitors to the county seat last week, put themselves in good standing as members of the ever increasing People family before they returned to their homes.

"Valley Farm" will be presented in the Opera House Friday evening by Springfield talent, the proceeds to go for the benefit of the Methodist parsonage building fund. Wherever this play has been given it has attracted favorable comment and the public is cordially invited to attend.

HUSBAND RESCUED
DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Patron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.
