Hurricane, the fleetest-footed bird in the world, has been secured at great trouble and expense as the star attraction at the Barnwell County Fair at Barnwell, Nov. 18-22. The officials of the fair are to be congratulated on being able to secure this wonderful attraction for the patrons of the fair. This is the first opportunity the people of Barnwell County have ever had of seeing a bird in harness and driven to a four-wheeled vehicle. In driving the ostrich the driver guides in a manner just the reverse to that of guiding a horse. If he wishes the bird to go to the right he pulls the left rein, the contrary nature of the bird being to do just the opposite to that which you wish him to do.

Mr. Q. A Kennedy has recently purchased the farm of Mr. S. G. Matthews, to Appleton Sunday. Stephens was near town. This piece of property has a fine asparagus field on it, which means that Mr. Kennedy is now the owner of a gold mine. Asparagus has negro shot and wounded another. No made Williston rich.

Mrs. Mary Harvey has returned from Asheville much improved in health. Mr. Elzy LaGrone came over from Johnston Sunday and spent the day with old friends.

Miss Coleman, of Johnston, spent the week-end with her sister, who is one of the faculty of the Williston High School.

Williston is one of the most healthful locations in the country; in fact, it is an ideal place to live. As an evidence of its healthfulness there are two people on the streets every day who are nearly one hundred years old, Mr. Wm. Smith, aged 94, and "Aunt" Emily McCreary, an old colored woman, aged 97. Aunt Emily deesn't use spectacles, and washes and irons for several families. She was a slave and recalls vividly the days and conditions before the war She has many friends among the white CLUBS ENTERTAINED people

Sheriff J. B. Morris was notified and went down arrested and lodged in the county jail. On the same night, on Capt. W. D. Black's place near Williston, one arrest has yet been made.

At Snelling Sunday morning, John Riley shot Jim Carree, the weapon used being a pistol. The ball found lodgement in Carree's thigh, making a flesh wound, which was rather painful but not serious. He was brought to Barnwell for medical attention.

Robert Dinkins, who is said to be more or less of a bad character, cut a negro named Fuller, perhaps fatally. at Blackville Sunday morning. Dinkins is from Savannah, it is said. He made good his escape.

The details of the difficulties mentioned above are very meagre, only the bare facts being available. It is said, however, that at least two of the fights were caused by disputes over cards.

Howe's Great London Show.

As long as one can remember there the country, and their coming has been heralded by many exaggerated modes of advertising and the making of many promises which were not fulfilled when the show reached town. It is a pleasure to note that Howe's Great London Show, which is to be here on Saturday, Oct. 25, is a delightful departure from the others. They have a very beautiful system of modestly telling just what they think will prove of interest, and bia last night en route to his home at in the telling of it do not allow their advertising to run into a conglomera-Thursday with Congressmen Lever and tion of meaningless anjectives.
