Dear friend Davies -

In the copy of The People this week I not coreference to some call for help made by you, and it has suggested to my mind to ask you whether or not I owe the paper any money, and if so how much. If I am indebted to you I will take great pleasure in sending you a check, because you have made The People a most readable paper, and I know from experience that you cannot do this unless the subscribers support you.

With kindest regards, I am, Very truly yours, James F. Byrnes.
