20 Pages.

An Explanation

Our paper was made up this week as an eighteen page issue, but at the eleventh hour we received a full page advertisement for an auction sale of lots at Fairfax. This necessitated running an extra sheet. Therefore the pages in part one run from 1 to 10 and part two from 11 to 20, instead of 9 to 18.

Our Fair Edition.

The People takes great pleasure in presenting to its readers this week a special "Fair Week Edition." It is modest in size as compared to some of the editions issued by other papers in the State, but its twenty pages of Fair news and other good reading matter, together with the advertisements from the progressive merchants of this section will no doubt furnish our readers with several hours entertainment.

We did not fully decide to issue a larger paper this week until a few days ago, and we say with all due modesty that considering the short length of time allowed us and the consequent hurry to get to press on time, it is a fairly creditable edition and is only another evidence of our intention to give the readers of The People THE BEST PAPER PUBLISHED IN BARNWELL COUNTY.

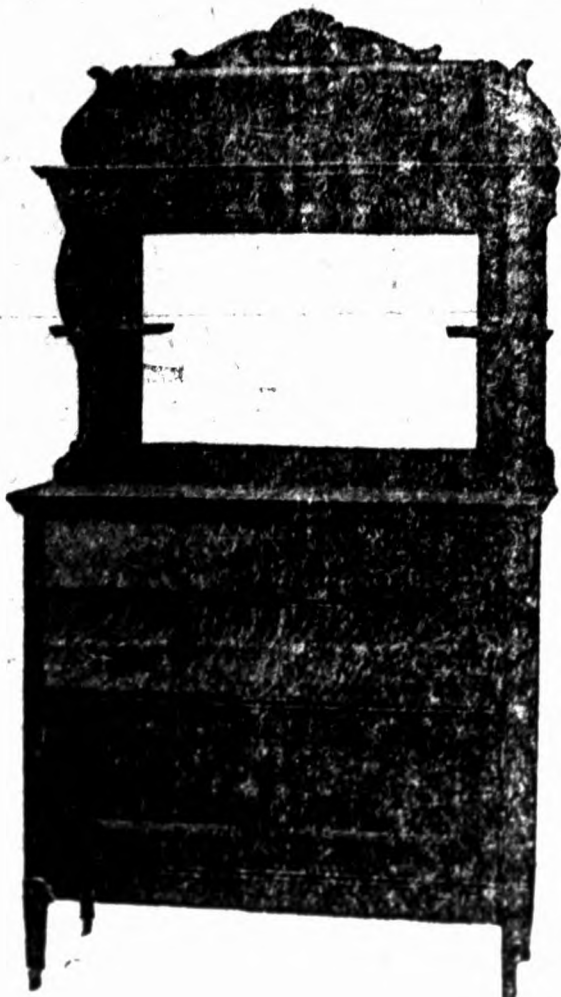

It is now up to the people of the county to make the Fair next week the unqualified success that it should be. Let everybody—man, woman and child, white and black—come to Barnwell at least one day during the meeting and touch elbows with their neighbors.
