HERE AND HEREBOUTS.

Mr. J. F. Owens, of Barton is in town this week attending Court.
Mr. Herbert Calhoun, of Appleton, was here as a witness in Court this week.
Mr. W. E. Prothro, cashier of the Bank of Williston, was a visitor here Monday.
Mr. L. A. Bush, of Ellenton, Route No. 1, was in town on business Monday.
James M. Patterson, Esq., and Magistrate J. E. Tobin, of Allendale, were in town Monday.
Mr. W. B. Johnson, of Blackville, was a welcome visitor to the sanctum Friday morning.
Subscriber Wm. Hutto, of Barnwell Route No. 1, called at The People office while in town Friday.
Mr. E. N. Still, of Olar, remembered the editor while in town on Friday attending the county fair.
Mr. G. W. Loadholt, of Jenny, was in Barnwell Thursday and renewed his subscription to The People.
Mr. W. W. Priester, of Allendale, was a visitor here Thursday and paid The People an appreciated call.
Mr. Chesley Bates, of Elko Route No. 2, called at this office while in town Friday and renewed his subscription.
Mr. C. D. Kinard, of Ulmer, who is here this week as a witness, called at The People Monday and renewed

Mr. A. H. Frederick, of Williston, was a welcome visitor here Friday.

Mrs. Julia T. Loadholt, of Jenny, was one of The People's lady subscribers who renewed her subscription last week.

Messrs. Culler & Walker, of Orangeburg have an advertisement in this issue that should be of interest to automobile owners.

The visitors to the County Fair last week were too numerous to mention. To do so would require a much larger paper than The People.

The People received appreciated letters from two lady subscribers last week—Mrs. Rosa Matthews, of Williston, and Mrs. G. W. Morrall, of Edgefield.

The editor is greatly indebted to Mrs. R. W. Youngblood, of Seiglingville, for a bottle of delightful wine and a can of tomatoes, prize-winners at the Barnwell County Fair.

V. S. Owens, Esq., left for Birmingham, Ala., Monday night in response to a telegram announcing the probably fatal injury of his brother.

Col. R. M. Mixson and his three bright little grandchildren, Misses Flournoy and Alberta and Master Robert Owens, were in town Friday enjoying the County Fair.

Harold A. Simms, Esq., was elected Warden in Tuesday's election to succeed V. S. Owens, Esq., resigned. Mr. Simms had no opposition, and the vote polled was very small, only 19 voters casting their ballots.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Easterling returned to Barnwell Saturday morning after a ten days wedding trip to Washington, New York and other points of interest in the North. They are now at home to their friends.

222 bales of cotton were ginned in Barnwell County up to November 1st as compared to 29,000 bales in 1912 to the same date, according to a report issued by the United States Department of Commerce last week.

Mr. A. M. Sanders, who was an interested visitor at the fair last week, was very disappointed that the fair was so short. He was very disappointed that the fair was so short.

The Rev. S. P. Hair, of First M. E. Church, was the guest of the editor last week. He was very interested in the fair and was very disappointed that the fair was so short.

Mr. W. T. Walker, of Walker's, was a visitor at the fair last week. He was very interested in the fair and was very disappointed that the fair was so short.

Mr. J. A. Jenkins, of Kline, was here Tuesday on business. His many friends will regret to learn that his left wrist, which was severely sprained a short time ago when he jumped from a wagon, the horses to which had become unmanageable, still pains him considerably.

Mr. C. H. Mathis, of Blackville, entered four exhibits at the Fair last week and won first prize on three of them. He gave the editor two large sacks of sweet and Irish potatoes and a jar each of his excellent Brabham peas and Rust-proof Bancroft oats, advertisements for which he has in this issue.

Mr. W. P. Morris, Jr., of Yonema, returned home Saturday from Baltimore, where he went to place his brother, Mr. T. J. Morris, of Wilmington, N. C., in a hospital for an operation. The Barnwell County friends of this young gentleman will be glad to learn that he stood the operation well and a quick and complete recovery is confidently expected.

Notice.
The executive committee will meet at Bamberg at 11:30 a. m. Thursday, Dec. 4, 1913. Churches desiring aid from State Mission Board will mail application to G. W. Boylston, Blackville, previous to that day.
G. W. Boylston,
Chmn. of Committee.

Notice.
All persons are hereby forbidden to give work or assistance to my son, Jasper Williams, a minor child, aged 16 years. He is about 5 feet, 6 inches tall and is a bright mulatto. Any information as to his whereabouts will be greatly appreciated.

For the Modern Baby Bunting

Daddy doesn't go out to hunt for rabbit skins, to keep the baby warm. He is less romantic, but more practical.

He buys a

PERFECTION

SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

and all during the cold Fall and Winter months his house is kept warm and cozy for his wife and babies. A Perfection Oil Heater is almost indispensable when there are children in the home. Every home has uses for it.

Made with nickel trimmings, plain steel or enameled, turquoise-blue drums. Ornamental. Inexpensive. Lasts for years. Easily moved from room to room. At dealers everywhere.
