BARNWELL, S. C. AUGUST

BARNWELL TAKES 1ST BALE HONORS

1915 Cotton Sold Tuesday for 15 Cents a Pound

CLASSED AS GOOD MIDDLING
John Owen, of Red Oak, is the Governor
J. A. Porter the Mayor

The 1915 crop was the first bale honors this year. The crop was weighing 50 pounds and graded as good, was sold Tuesday by John Owen, a shrewd operator, at 15 cents a pound. J. A. Porter.
The cotton was bought by John Owen, and will go to market as it is said to be probably a market off, Barnwell had the honor of marking the best bale for several years.

DISSATISFACTION IN CONG. DIST.
Mrs. J. J. Johnson, Candidate for Congress,
Presented to Miss Wilmer

August 7.—A pretty social event was held last week in Greenville, J. Henry Johnson, the younger son of Thos. H. Johnson, was married to Miss Annie Maude Wilber of Greenville, S. C., August 6.
Miss Annie Maude Wilber is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C.
Johnson, of this city. The wedding took place at the home of the bride.

J. Henry Johnson is a young gentleman of 21 years of age, and is a prominent member of the advertising department of the Barnwell Record. It is a credit to the Barnwell Record to have a member of the advertising department from Barnwell take such an important step in life.

SAYS KAISER MADE PEACE

Discussed in Lobbies
Against Acceptance, However.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Neyle and Miss
Mrs. Leroy A. Stoney and family are visitors here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Neyle and Miss
Mrs. Leroy A. Stoney and family are
visitors here this week.

Misses Walsh returned home. Mrs.
Wednesday. The funeral services of Mrs.().__ in the Barnwell
Church. Mrs. John C. Brown, Mrs.
R. H. Massey, Mrs. A. W. Sligh, Mrs.
Mrs. L. H. Massey, Mrs. H. W. Massey,
and Mrs. J. H. Brown, were among the many friends present.

The past week found between 150
In addition to several ordinary boats
on the 15th lost, hunters
in order to hunt. Landlords and I rented to others, I I
in the case where
I
A. E. Corley.

Rosemary—C. B. Parker, B. O.

The People.
15th of the September season. To be held in the Barnwell County Courthouse on the 15th of September.

The past week was marked by
a great number of young men who
entered the contest. If there are any other young men who wish to enter the contest they should send their
photographs to The People at once.

For the next few weeks, the weather will be favorable for hunting, and hunting should be good. The birds
should be plentiful and the weather
will be warm and dry.

The past week was marked by
a great number of young men who
entered the contest. If there are any
other young men who wish to enter the contest they should send their
photographs to The People at once.

The past week was marked by
a great number of young men who
entered the contest. If there are any
other young men who wish to enter the contest they should send their
photographs to The People at once.

The past week was marked by
a great number of young men who
entered the contest. If there are any
other young men who wish to enter the contest they should send their
photographs to The People at once.

The past week was marked by
a great number of young men who
entered the contest. If there are any
other young men who wish to enter the contest they should send their
photographs to The People at once.

The past week was marked by
a great number of young men who
entered the contest. If there are any
other young men who wish to enter the contest they should send their
photographs to The People at once.