FOR SALE—Milch cows; will trade for a two-horse wagon or a Ford. I can please you. —J. E. Owens, Blackville, S. C.

HERE AND HEREBOUTS.

The days lose eight minutes in sunshine this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith motor over to Augusta Saturday.

Mr. J. M. Halford, of Blackville, was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Mr. Ralph Smith has purchased an Essex coach from the W. D. Harley Motor Co. of this city.

Mr. John R. McLemore, of Boykin, is spending the week in Barnwell County with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Lena Davies returned home Saturday afternoon from Augusta, after a pleasant visit to relatives and friends.

Increased boll weevil activity is reported from several places in the county since the showery weather of the past week.

All members of Siloam Church are requested to meet at the Church Friday afternoon, August 3rd, to clean up the cemetery.

Col. and Mrs. N. G. W. Walker, Mrs. L. P. Wilson and little son, Walker, went up to Columbia Saturday returning home the following day.

Messrs. Perry A. Price, Neil Lemon, Lloyd Flexico and T. J. Langley left Tuesday afternoon for a fishing trip on the Combahee River, near Yemassee.

Sheriff C. Keys Sanders has returned from Charleston, where he attended the meeting of Sheriffs last week. He said he enjoyed a fishing trip on the banks near the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Easterling arrived here from Greensboro, N. C., last week and will make their home in the future with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Easterling.

Many Barnwell people again visited Holman's Bridge on the Edisto River Sunday. The boys and girls from here who have been enjoying camp life for a couple of weeks are all at home again.

Mr. H. L. O'Bannon returned Monday morning from Virginia, where his wife and children are visiting relatives. He made the trip through the country by auto, returning to Barnwell by train.

Prof. J. D. Robison, who came down from Columbia Saturday to spend the week-end with friends, left Monday for Tampa, Fla., to join his wife and little daughter, who have been visiting relatives in the Land of Flowers for several weeks.

Mr. G. M. Neeley, of Olar, was a business visitor here Tuesday. He stated to a representative of this paper that he has delivered four Buick automobiles during the past week. Announcement of the 1924 line of this deservedly popular car will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Cols. J. E. Harley and N. B. Gamble have returned from Anniston, Ala. where they assisted Gov. McLeod in reviewing the South Carolina troops in training at that place. They declared that the "boys" from the Palmetto State are the best trained body of men from any State in the South.

Mrs. Charle Brown, Sr., Mrs. J. Julien Bush and children, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Davies and little son, Billie, of Barnwell, Mrs. P. J. Drew and Miss Doris Drew, of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Jones, of Hephzibah, Ga., and Mr. Vogel, of Sumter, attended the meeting of the Ellenton Agricultural Club Saturday.

Mr. W. E. McNab has leased the ginney of the Southern Cotton Oil Co. at Barnwell for the 1923-1924 season and is now having same put in first class condition for the new crop. Mr. McNab has had many years experience in this line, having been connected with the above company for a long time, and the farmers of this section can rest assured that they will receive excellent service in having their cotton ginned. Attention is called to half-page advertisement on last page of this issue.

Miss Gladys McLeod, of Sumter, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Caldwell during the latter part of last week and the first of this week.

Mr. Maner Morris, of near Olar, was a visitor here Monday and stated that he has a good crop of cotton practically made. His farm is composed of what is known as "quick land" and his cotton now has 15 and 20 large bolls on the stalk. He stated also that the plant is shedding a quantity of squares and small bolls which it is unable to carry to maturity.

Mrs. Wade Sanders Dead.

Just before going to press, word was received of the death in Columbia of Mrs. Lottie Sanders, wife of Mr. Wade Sanders, of Kline. Besides her husband, she is survived by one son and two daughters, Mr. Clay Creech and Misses Freda and Louise Creech, who have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

Caldwell-Linley.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Caldwell announce the marriage of their daughter, Eleanor Pauline, to Mr. Barnwell Rhett Linley on Monday, July 30th, in Barnwell. This announcement comes as a pleasant surprise to the many friends of Mrs. Linley, who is one of the most attractive young ladies of this city, and they congratulate Mr. Linley on having won the heart and hand of so fair a helpmate. The People joins with them in wishing the young couple a long and happy married life.

Teachers' Examination.

A teachers' examination has been ordered for Friday, August 24, and Saturday, August 25. Teachers who have just returned from summer schools will welcome this news. This examination will be held at every Court House in South Carolina, and if it happens that some teachers are on their vacation at the time, they may take the examination at the Court House nearest them. The formal announcement will appear as an advertisement in this paper next week and until the week of examination.

Dunbarton Ships Melons.

Dunbarton, July 30.—About 200 cars of watermelons have been shipped from this place, bringing satisfactory prices to the farmers.

Prof. H. H. King has greatly improved the appearance of his home by the application of a couple of coats of paint.

Mrs. Thomas Snelling and little daughter, of Charlotte, N. C., and Mr. Billy Blackville, of Parksville, S. C., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Owens.

Mrs. Gary Anderson and baby have returned from a pleasant trip to the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Rountree left Sunday morning for Hendersonville, N. C., where they will spend some time.

Mrs. T. C. Bolt and son, of Laurens, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Owens this week.

A barbecue was given here today on Cater's lot in honor of Mr. H. D. Barwick, a watermelon buyer, and Mr. Taylor, train inspector. The occasion was greatly enjoyed by a crowd of hungry men.

"Built Me Up"

"I USED Cardui for years and it did me more good than any medicine I ever used," writes Mrs. M. C. Ragsdale, of Fort Towson, Okla. "I used to suffer with womanly trouble that weakened me until I was a mere shadow, nervous, and could not sleep. I did not feel like I could live.

"It seemed that nothing helped me till I heard of Cardui and began to use it. It strengthened me and, as 'twas recommended to do, it regulated and built me up till I was like another woman."

If you are weak, run-down and feel that you need a tonic, take Cardui, the woman's tonic, the tonic about which you have always heard, the tonic that helps weak women regain their strength.

Cardui acts on the womanly system and helps relieve pain and discomfort due to female ailments.

Try Cardui, today, for your trouble.
