HERE AND HEREABOUTS.

The days here 10 minutes in sunshine this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Davies spent Thursday in Augusta.

Mr. Leon P. Tobin and family, of Hamburg, were visitors here Sunday.

Mr. George A. Brown was called to New York last week on professional business.

Mrs. W. F. Shelburn, of Barnwell, renewed her subscription to The People Tuesday.

Mr. Norman S. Gendle has purchased a Nash four seater, which is one of the prettiest cars in the city.

Mrs. A. N. Ray and M. L. Hall, both of Barnwell county, have renewed their subscription during the past week.

Miss Carrie Holman, of Chicora College, spent the week-end here with her parents, Judge and Mrs. E. C. Holman.

"I can't get along without The People," said Mrs. L. H. Christie, of this city, as she renewed her subscription Monday morning.

The friends of Master Billie Davies, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Davies, will be glad to know that he is recovering from a severe cold.

Mr. H. C. Mitchell, of Elko route 2, is another one of The People's unforgetting good friends. He sent in his renewal to this paper Monday.

Miss Blanche Porter came down from Chicora College, Columbia, Friday to spend the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Porter.

Quite a number of visitors from Blackville, Denmark and Williston were here Friday afternoon to see the Barnwell-Denmark football game.

Killing frosts visited this section last week true to the prediction of the Dutch Weather Prophet, which was published in these columns some time ago.

The many friends of Mr. Bonci Dyches, former Supervisor of Barnwell County, were glad to see him in the city Saturday after a long absence.

While making the turn into Burr Street at the Episcopal Church Sunday morning at a rapid rate of speed, a King eight touring car driven by Mr. Oeland Lazar turned turtle and the driver narrowly escaped serious injury.

A Barnwell lady remarked the other day that husbands are curious animals, in support of which statement she cited the fact that her life partner will ask the garage man a hundred questions about a brand of oil before allowing a drop to go into the automobile engine, and then, when the garage man has finished, she will question the garage man about the quality of the oil.

Miss Emily Porter, who was confined to her room for several days with a severe cold, has resumed her duties as a member of the Barnwell High School faculty.

Miss Ella Louise Molair, who came down from Chicora College last week to attend the funeral of her uncle, Mr. Ben Hill Cave, has returned to Columbia to resume her studies.

The People is glad to add the name of Mr. M. D. Dyches, of Kline, to its list of satisfied readers. "There's a reason" for the large increase in this paper's subscription list during the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Holman motored to Columbia Sunday in their new Buick Six touring car. They were accompanied home by their daughter, Miss Pauline, of Chicora College, who was suffering from throat trouble.

Last week Mr. N. C. Grubbs, of the Reedy Branch section, lost a mule by death which had reached to the advanced age of 36 years. The animal was a native of Barnwell County, having been raised by Mr. Grubbs.

Mr. Channing P. Hayes, of Atlanta, Ga., spent the week-end in the city with friends. He is a son of the late Rev. W. L. Hayes, a former pastor of the Barnwell Baptist Church, and is at present engaged in B. Y. P. U. work in Georgia.

Timberman-Calhoun
Ridge Spring, Nov. 11.—One of the most brilliant affairs of years here was the wedding at the Baptist church Wednesday evening of Miss Helen Elizabeth Timberman and Mr. William Raymond Calhoun of Allendale. The church was decorated with Southern smilax, white chrysanthemums and ferns. Chrysanthemums tied with white tulle marked the recessed pews. Mrs. L. J. Smith presided at the organ and accompanied Miss Blanche Spence of Sumner, who sang "At Dawning" and "Call of Love." The ribbon bearers were Miss Ann Calhoun of Johnston and Miss Annie Spence of Ridge Spring. Next followed the little girls operators, Sylvia Calhoun of Barnwell and Margaret Spence of Ridge Spring. The candle bearers were Miss Frances Harvis of Harris and Harriet Larkin of Elliott, who carried long pink tapers tied with pink tulle. The groomsmen were Duncun Calhoun of Gaffney, Jack Spence of Columbia, Tom Spence and Harry Robinson, both of Augusta. The bridesmaids were Miss Marian Marshall of Columbia and Miss Mary Johnson of Washington, D. C. The matrons of honor were Mrs. W. H. Robinson of Allendale, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. D. T. Hardin of Chantanooga, sister of the bride. The ushers were D. T. Hardin and W. H. Robinson. Then came the little ring bearer, Sumter Southwright of Ridge Spring. The two flower girls were little Mary Helen Hardin of Chantanooga, niece of the bride, and Winifred Dorset of Ridge Spring. They scattered rose petals for the bride, who entered next with her maid of honor, Miss Gladys Johnson of Morristown, Tenn., who wore a lovely dress of yellow georgette, trimmed with silver lace and ribbon and carrying pink roses. The bride's girlish beauty was enhanced by her beautiful wedding gown of moleskin satin, with draped skirt and deep flounce of white silver lace, which was caught at the side with pearl ornaments. A long court train of the satin fell from the shoulders. She wore a coronet of pearls which held the veil, which was sprayed with orange blossoms, she carried a lovely bouquet of bride roses and valley lilies, with showers of valley lilies. The bride was joined at the altar by the bridegroom, who entered from the study with his best man, Wilson Johns of Allendale. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. S. Dorset, D. D., pastor of the bride, while "To a Wild Rose" was softly played.

Following the wedding a large reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Timberman, which was decorated with smilax and pink and white flowers. The guests were received by Mesdames Merrit, Grace and Stuckey, who conducted them to the receiving line. A large display of silver, china and linen attested the popularity of the young couple. The bride's traveling suit was of grey and blue with accessories to match. The young couple left by motor for Florida. Mrs. Calhoun is one of the most popular young women in the state, having attended Barnwell college, where she was a member of Alpha Delta Pi society, and Chi Omega chapter.

Mrs. Calhoun is a prominent young business woman of Allendale.

Why does a mirror reflect?

because the back of the glass is covered with quicksilver, which does not absorb light. Hence the light rays which form an image are thrown back in reflection. Clean and bright as a mirror is the home where
