

GREENVILLE FOLKS RISE UP IN WRATH

KILLING OF SPECIAL STATE CONSTABLE AROUSES IN- DIGNATION.

ARE LOOKING FOR OFFENDERS

Moonshiners Being Sought By Law Abiding People of Hogback Mountain.

Greenville.—The killing of J. H. Howard, special state constable, by alleged moonshiners during a raid by officers on a still on Hogback mountain in upper Greenville, precipitated such a storm of indignation among the law abiding citizens in that section that a community-wide hunt for bootleggers, moonshiners and distillers in which both men and women have participated has been in progress there for the past two or three days, according to federal prohibition officers who returned to the city from a raid.

Agents Reuben Gosnell and E. N. Austin, accompanied by Constables Henry Bell and G. C. Corn, were called to a point near Tigerville in Highland township to raid a still. Upon arrival in the vicinity of Tigerville Messrs. Gosnell and Austin said they found a group of about 15 men, most of them armed, who had been searching for moonshiners and distillers.

The citizens, among who were men of excellent standing in the community, told the officers that the Howard incident had precipitated community indignation in Highland and Glassy Mountain townships and that they were determined to stop extensive illicit distilling in that region.

The men had handed together to prevent possible violence to individual citizens at the hands of bootleggers and moonshiners, in event they were turned up or reported by only one or so citizens.

The officers said that a group of people numbering 24 men and four women had conducted a wholesale raid on Hogback mountain in Glassy Mountain township, in the region where Constable Howard was shot to death by an unknown man when he and other officers raided a distillery.

The prohibition agents declared that the sight of a band of citizens making wholesale search for stills was distinctly new in this section, but declared that they were gratified at the interest being taken by the laity in enforcing prohibition.

Chester Societies Win Trip.

Chester.—Solicitor J. Lyles Glenn Jr., was formally notified by the Near East relief of New York that the Golden Rule Sunday committee of young people's societies had carefully considered the reports of the societies cooperating in the Golden Rule campaign for the Near East relief and had unanimously awarded to the societies cooperating in Chester the grand national prize of a trip to Palestine. This formal notification brought much happiness in Chester, as Lex W. Klutz of the Columbia office, who was prominently connected with the drive in South Carolina, is a Chester man.

John R. Voris of New York, representing the national Golden Rule Sunday committee, will be the speaker here when the formal announcement will be made to the young people of Chester. This will be a national event and as the honor won by Chester is the highest in America on work in getting the people of the country to eat Golden Rule dinners last December 2.

Campaign in Richland County.

The anti-rat campaign, scheduled for Richland county during the week of March 3, will be conducted and supervised by the bureau of biological survey of Washington in cooperation with the county agricultural agent, the home demonstration agent and the Civic League of Columbia.

According to information from the county agricultural agent the Washington bureau selects only one or two counties in each state to take the work. The personal supervision of the biological survey has selected Richland county to conduct the campaign for South Carolina. Being in the center of the state and with a town the size of Columbia as the county seat, the Capital City is a more or less ideal place for a campaign of this nature.

The work is Columbia will be in charge of a committee selected from the Civic League.

Stolen Gun Returns After Years.

Lexington.—About four years ago thieves broke into the store of E. B. Roof & Sons and among other things stole a shotgun. At the time no arrests were made and no clue to the identity of the party or parties was established. Last week L. B. Roof located the gun at police headquarters in Columbia, and found that it had been given to the Columbia chief of police by a negro man who told the chief that another negro had left it with him, and he feared it was stolen.

ATLANTA AUTOMOBILE MAN AND WIFE BURNED ALIVE.

Atlanta, Ga.—C. W. Dupree, an automobile dealer and his wife were burned to death and Mrs. Dupree's mother, Mrs. H. M. Cottingham, of Marietta, Ga., was severely injured when she jumped from a second story window to escape flames which destroyed the Dupree residence here.

The charred bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Dupree were found by firemen. According to Mrs. W. A. Dupree, also a guest in the home, when the fire was discovered the entire interior of the residence was ablaze. She said she jumped from the second story window and was followed by Mrs. Cottingham.

Just as Mr. and Mrs. Dupree reached the window, she said, the roof of the house caved in.

Hospital authorities say Mrs. Cottingham will recover. Mr. Dupree was a widely known Atlantian, being president of a large automobile sales company. Mrs. Dupree was active in Red Cross work during the war, being in charge of recreation and hospital work for the American Red Cross at Brest.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE PRESENT

OFFICIAL WASHINGTON AND NA- TION PAY TRIBUTE TO EX- PRESIDENT.

Thousands Line the Way From Home to Cathedral to View Simple Fu- neral Cortage Pass.

Washington.—Woodrow Wilson has passed forever from the world stage where once he towered, a commanding figure.

In the sacred privacy of the home, last rites were said—as simple as the faith of the man himself in the goodness of God. Only the presence of the President and a few who were his colleagues in days of greatness, and the quiet thousands waiting outside under Wintry skies for a humble share in the last leave-taking, marked this as the funeral of a great man.

There was more formal tone to the cathedral service which followed. There in the chapel that gives entrance to the vault of entombment were gathered the dignitaries of governments and many men of place and power in America. Organ notes and the pealing voices of the choir added a touch of ceremony to the brief religious exercises. But, at the very last, the dead passed again into the keeping of his nearest and dearest, who alone might watch over the entombment and bear the resigned faith of the complicit service uttered. The Nation's share in that just moment was only to stand in silent reverence outside while the tomb received the keeping of an honored American.

During the funeral service, the busy life of the Nation's capital stood at a pause as elsewhere over America men died last honor to the dead. The drumming guns of sorrow echoed dully from the distant hills, where Fort Meyer lies, guns that had heralded the dark, cloud-wrapped coming of day with the somber clang of salute to a dead commander. Wherever the flag flew above ship or fort, half-masted in token of the Nation's loss, the guns proclaimed the sorrow of a people.

About the stricken home and at the cathedral were massed the flowers and wreaths that came pouring in from every nearby city and town. There were formal pieces and many simple clusters of the fragrant blossoms. A story of the greatness of the man whose late earthly moment they marked was written on the cards. There were great names among them, those of Kings and Presidents and of others in whose keeping today is the destiny of civilization.

Among the offerings were some from comrades who served in the great war under the fallen chieftain, served in the fighting ranks of the Nation. They bore such legends as "To Our Comrade," "To Our Chief," and "From His Comrades." The loveliness of the blooms will not fade unnoted, for the grief-bowed widow has willed that these tributes to Woodrow Wilson shall go out to Walter Reed Hospital after the ceremony to carry their message of hope and cheer to the wounded men there, as a last token of remembrance from the chieftain who has passed on into eternity.

An hour before the service, at the home was to begin, several thousand persons were gathered in the street which was lined on either side by marines and infantrymen. They had come to get a fleeting glimpse of the start of the funeral procession to Mount St. Albans.

O'Connor is Head of Shipping Board.

Washington.—T. V. O'Connor, of Buffalo, N. Y., former president of the International Longshoremen's Union and present member of the Shipping Board, was designated by President Coolidge to be chairman of the board.

Mr. O'Connor succeeds to the vacancy in the chairmanship caused by the resignation of Edward P. Farley of Chicago after the Senate Commerce Committee had refused to approve his nomination on the grounds that he was geographically disqualified under the law.

FIRE DESTROYS FILM EXCHANGE

4,300 REELS OF MOTION PICTURE CONSUMED IN CHARLOTTE FIRE.

ESTIMATE LOSS AT $400,000

Fire Was Difficult to Extinguish; Ex- plosion Heard as Film Became Ignited.

Charlotte, N. C.—Total loss in films, furnishings and building destroyed or damaged in the spectacular fire which completely gutted the film exchange of the Famous Players-Lasky corporation, at the intersection of Church and Fourth street, is estimated at approximately $400,000. The damage sustained by the building, a two-story structure owned by the Robertson estate, was placed by Fire Chief Mack Wallace at about $10,000, while officials of the Famous Players-Lasky corporation said that the loss to the film company in films, office fixtures, projecting machines, advertising matter, etc., probably will amount to nearly $400,000. The very lowest estimate of the loss of the film company was more than $300,000, with the probability that it would total nearer $400,000.

The fire, which started about 12:30 o'clock, burned fiercely for about three hours, and firemen fought the flames steadily for about four hours. The origin of the fire is said to have been in a pile of old advertising posters lying behind a radiator which ignited them. The fire started in the shipping room of the film exchange, on the first floor, and spread quickly to the reels of film. The film ignited instantly, so quickly, in fact, that the combustion amounted to an "explosion," or several of them.

Several persons narrowly escaped death in the burning building, and two or three of the employees suffered signed hair and eyebrows, while one of them, a small negro boy, was forced to jump from the second story. The blaze was the most spectacular in the history of Charlotte, firemen and on-lookers agreed. It was next to impossible to extinguish the burning celluloid film, and firemen were forced to fight hard to keep the flames and building "cool" with the streams of water until the fire burned itself out. The highly inflammable film, ignited with such rapidity that three explosions were distinctly heard, and several lesser ones probably occurred.

Warships Ordered to Honduras.

Washington.—The cruiser Rochester, of the special service squadron, now at Colon, has been ordered to La Ceiba, Honduras, in response to an appeal to the State Department from American residents, who fear that revolutionary developments will jeopardize their interests.

No actual outbreak has been reported, but Americans in Honduras believe the prospects for an amicable adjustment of the Honduran election tangle are not good and that fighting may break out at any time.

Average Weight of Cotton Lower.

New Orleans.—The statement of weights of 6,993,265 bales of cotton handled at outports and across the Mississippi, Ohio and Potomac Rivers overland to American manufacturers outside of the cotton belt during the period from August to January, inclusive, issued by H. G. Hester, secretary of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange, shows an average per bale of 526.89 pounds, against 518.89 for the same period the year before. Detailed averages are: Texas ports 529.04; against 532.64 last year; Louisiana ports, 507.19, against 513.19; Alabama, 497.67, against 522.94; Georgia ports, 498.26, against 498.70; South Carolina ports, 490, against 492; North Carolina ports, 487, against 494; Virginia ports, 490, against 490; Tennessee, etc., 510.19, against 500.88.

Hull Plans to Lease Shoals.

Washington.—A bill providing for the lease of Muscle Shoals to a $15,000,000 corporation to be formed by the Tennessee Electric Power Company and other Southern power companies, was introduced by Representative Hull, Republican, of Iowa.

The bill differs in but one respect from a measure introduced earlier in the session by Mr. Hull.

The old Hull bill provides for two companies, one to be capitalized at $10,000,000 for the production of power, the other to be capitalized at $5,000,000 for fertilizer production. The present bill creates one company for both.

Asks $100,000 For Loss of Foot.

Atlanta, Ga.—Lee Roy Denny has filed suit in the Fulton Superior Court for $100,000 damages against the Southern Railway Company for alleged injuries received last June when he was thrown under a train at Seneca, S. C.

In the petition filed, Denny states it was necessary to have his left foot amputated because of the injury.

Denny was returning to Atlanta from a Shrine convention at Washington, he stated, when the accident occurred.

THREE KILLED WHEN CAR PLUNGES FROM BRIDGE.

Macon, Ga.—A touring car containing five persons plunged from a bridge and turned over into two feet of water, near Blakeley, Ga., causing the death of three persons and minor injuries to two others, according to word received here.

Jackson Davis, 34, married and the father of several children, was killed instantly, he was driving the car.

Misses Mamie and Docia Hutchins, daughters of W. A. Hutchins, well-to-do Early county farmer, were stunned by the fall and drowned in the shallow water before assistance reached them. Grace Sheffield, 16, and a boy of 12 years escaped with slight injuries.

Davis was taking the young people to their homes when the accident happened.

42 PERISH IN FLOODED MINE

ONLY SEVEN OF CREW OF 49 AT WORK WERE ABLE TO GAIN SAFETY.

Many Die Suffocated By the Slimy Mud and Water That Gushed Through the Workings.

Crosby, Minn.—Forty-two miners perished when the bottom fell out of a small pond and flooded the working of the Milford iron mine near here.

Caught in the lower levels of the small mine, only seven of the crew of 49 at work were able to gain the safety of a skip and ascend to the surface.

Like rats in a trap their comrades died suffocated by the slimy mud and water that gushed through the workings, rising in the shaft within a few feet of the top within 15 minutes.

There was no extended warning; just "a rumble like a thousand automobiles roaring down a distant road," one survivor said. Then the leaping black wave of death engulfed them, battering its victims against the walls.

Night found the shaft opening crowded with scores of wives and mothers and children who stood, some in frantic tears, others dry-eyed and staring, as helpless as were the men about them to snatch from the murky waters the bodies of their loved ones.

Most of the victims were young men, many of them married, and most of the children that took up the sorrowful vigil with their mothers were tiny tots, clutching in wonderment at their mother's skirts.

The shaft of the Milford mine is 123 feet deep and the main level of the mine is 100 feet beneath the surface of the earth, running northeast and southwest, a drift 1,800 feet long.

Rebel Forces Quit Vera Cruz.

Washington.—The Mexican embassy issued the following statement on the military in Mexico.

"Federal forces are now at Fortin, six miles from the rebel fortifications in Cordoba and expect to reach that city shortly and continue their advance on Vera Cruz. The rebels in this sector are deserting, so that city will be taken without struggle."

"Orders to advance upon Guadalupe have been issued. The troops will go forward in an effort to overtake the retreating rebels. A special unit has been assigned to take Guadalupe so that the troops formerly in this sector could continue their pursuit of General Estrada's fleeing army in the state of Michoacan."

"Sonora troops have been sent to Paralell to co-operate with a unit which has been sent to Torreon to open a campaign against the Villista group."

Dead of Poisoning.

Albany, Oregon.—Five persons are dead and six others, all members of same family, are seriously ill from poisoning. District Attorney L. G. Lewellyn announced he is investigating the circumstances of the death wave of determining whether ptomaine poisoning was the cause. The victims, he learned, did not partake of the same meals at the same place, nor of provisions purchased at the same store.

Correct Ceremony For Flag Outlined.

Chicago.—A flag in mourning for Woodrow Wilson, according to military and naval usage, should be lowered one-third from the top of the staff rather than half way down, naval and military officers announced here.

The reason is that flags lowered a full half of the length of the pole are in danger of dragging, or becoming entangled.

The correct ceremony for placing flags at half-staff, is to raise the flag to the top and then to lower slowly.

Two Desperados Are Killed.

Little Rock, Ark.—Emory Connell and Eulus Sullivan were shot to death in a gun battle with a posse near Redfield.

Joe Sullivan, third member of the trio which fled the state prison here last Friday morning, is in a local hospital, believed in a serious condition from loss of blood and exposure.

Fred Snodgrass, a newspaper man, accompanying the posse, suffered a slight wound in the foot during the battle in which the two men were killed.

FOURTEEN DRIFT ON AN ICE CAKE

ARE CAUGHT WHEN ICE BRIDGE BREAKS UP IN ST. LAWRENCE RIVER.

BETWEEN QUEBECK AND LEVIS

Rescue Parties Set Out For Quebec Bridge to Rescue People With Ropes.

Quebec.—Fourteen persons were adrift on cakes of ice in the swelling waters of the St. Lawrence river and efforts to reach them were futile. The 14 were members of a party of 17 who were standing on an ice bridge between Quebec and Levis when it snapped and broke away.

Hurriedly formed rescue parties set out for Quebec bridge, toward which the ice floes were drifting in the hope that they could rescue the victims with ropes as they passed beneath them. From points along the shore it was reported as many as nine or 10 persons had been seen on one cake of the floating ice.

The ice bridge, the first formed here in 25 years, was an unusual sight and hundreds of persons flocked to witness it. The persons who were carried away when it broke were standing at about the middle of the stream, making efforts at rescue all the more difficult.

Woman Candidate For Mayor Killed.

New Orleans.—Mrs. Roland Clark, candidate for mayor of Palmetto, in the recent primary, is dead, her son and daughter, wounded, and Louis Meyer is in a hospital here probably mortally wounded as a result of a gun battle in which all of the parties concerned participated, according to information received here.

Mrs. Clark was opposed for election by a man named Isaacson and they polled a tie vote. According to a version of the shooting received from Opelousas, near Palmetto, Mrs. Clark accompanied by her daughter, met Meyer on the street and accused him of having brought a brother-in-law from Texas to vote for Isaacson and break a tie. After some words Mrs. Clark drew a pistol and shot down Meyers.

Meyer, after being wounded, drew his own pistol and shot Mrs. Clark to death. Mrs. Clark's daughter took possession of her mother's weapon and fired at Meyer, who shot and wounded her. At this juncture Mrs. Clark's son took up the battle and also was wounded by Meyer.

Tokio Alarmed by Policy of America.

Tokio.—Viewing with apparent anxiety the "increasing restrictions upon Japanese residents in the United States and the proposals now before Congress for further exclusion of Japanese," Foreign Minister K. Matsui, in an exclusive statement to The Associated Press, appealed to the United States to heed Japan's cherished desire "to be treated on the same footing with other independent nations."

Defending Japan's attitude toward the question as "conciliatory and well meaning" the statement expressed readiness to discuss anew the problem of restrictions and exclusion.

London Holds Memorial Service.

London.—The memorial service for Woodrow Wilson in St. Margaret's Westminster, was attended by a large delegation of British and American notables, including the entire staff of the American Embassy and Consulate and three members of the British Cabinet, J. Thomas, Lord Haldane, and Lord Parmoor. The eulogy was delivered by Canon Carnegie.

The King and Queen, the Prince of Wales, and the Dowager Queen Alexandra were represented at the service, as was Prime Minister MacDonald.

Episcopal Bishop is Dead.

Reno, Nev.—The Right Reverend George Coolidge Hunting, fourth bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church in Nevada, died at his home in Reno after an illness of but a few days. He was 53 years old.

Bishop Hunting, who is a cousin of President Coolidge, served pastorates in Evanston, Wyo., Salt Lake City, and Virginia City, Nev., before being named bishop in 1914.

"Flu" Strikes England.

London.—There is no sign as yet of an abatement of the epidemic of influenza which is sweeping over the United Kingdom. The deaths reported from influenza last week numbered 367.

Commission Confer Next at Paris.

Geneva.—The Disarmament Commission of the League of Nations, which has been in session here the past few days, decided to hold a subsequent meeting in Paris, beginning March 24, to draft a definite convention for the control of the international traffic in arms.

The work has been entrusted to a subcommittee of which Joseph C. Crew, American minister to Switzerland, who has been attending the commission's session, is a member.

Doubling Up

A teacher of music in a public school was trying to impress upon her pupils the meaning of double in a song that they were about to learn. After explaining the first sign, she said: "Now, children, what do you say if f means forte, what does ff mean?" "Eighty!" shouted one enthusiastic pupil.

His Mistake

"My boy, where did you get that terrible black eye?"
"I was sitting on Willie Brooks, and I forgot to hold his legs."
