HERE AND HEREABOUTS.

The days gain only six minutes in sunshine this week.

Mr. Otis Brabham, of Allendale, was a visitor here Tuesday.

Miss Carrie Holman arrived home Saturday from Chicora College.

Mr. L. E. Morningstar has withdrawn as a candidate for Alderman.

Mr. G. L. Toole, of Aiken, candidate for Congress, was a visitor here Friday.

Miss Hilma Rice, of Meyer's Mill, was the guest Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Molair.

Judge Butler B. Hair, of Saluda, candidate for Congress, was a visitor here Monday.

Col. R. M. Mixson, of Williston, candidate for the State Senate, was a visitor here Monday.

Magistrates R. L. Wooley, of Williston, and B. W. Peeples, of Meyer's Mill, were in the city Monday.

Capt. W. D. Black, of Williston, candidate for Congress, was a business visitor here Tuesday morning.

At the State Convention last week, Col. Edgar A. Brown was elected as a delegate at large to the National Convention.

Mrs. Lena Davies is expected home tomorrow (Friday) from Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Ga., to spend some time with her son, Mr. B. P. Davies.

Mr. John B. Harley, who is really a citizen of Barnwell residing temporarily in Williston, was in the city Tuesday in his new Studebaker touring car.

Dr. Neil Lemon, who is studying medicine in Philadelphia, arrived in Barnwell last week to spend the summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lemon.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lemon will learn with regret that their daughter, Margaret, has typhoid fever, but will be glad to know that she is improving.

Mr. J. L. Lowe, of Barnwell route 3, was in the city this week in attendance at court as a juror, and while here called at The People office and renewed his subscription.

Adverse weather conditions continue to prevail in this section. A farmer told the writer Monday that some of his cotton is dying, due, he said, to lice on the plants.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Brown will be glad to learn that the latter is recovering from a serious operation which was performed at a Columbia hospital last week.

Sheriff C. K. Sanders arrived home last week from an Augusta hospital, where he recently underwent an operation for appendicitis. His friends are glad to see him on the streets again.

Notice to Melon Growers

Why take chances of glutted markets in the marketing of your melons and possibly realize nothing from the cars you produce this year? In view of the increased acreage this year over last, glutted markets and embargoes will very likely result. Protect your acreage now with the best contract ever offered the growers of this section. Terms of contract guarantees $75.00 per car for every car you can load from your acreage of eighteen pounds and up, payable when car is sealed, and that any net returns over and above $75.00 shall also be paid the grower. Less 10 per-cent commission charged for service. Backed by a reliable firm and whose method of selling to advantage is second to none. Contracts are subject to be withdrawn at any time, therefore, it is to your interest to get one now while the opportunity is present. If interested, get in touch with
