

The days gain only four minutes in sunshine this week.

Mr. Herbert R. Christie, of Denmark, was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. S. A. Hair, of Long Branch, was a business visitor here Monday. Mr. Hair is a candidate for Coroner.

Mr. Rob't. B. Harden, of Kline, candidate for Magistrate at that place, was in town on business Tuesday.

The editor is indebted to Capt. G. M. Main for a gift of fresh vegetables from his prize-winning garden.

Mr. and Mrs. Alderman, of Greensboro, N. C., are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Eugene Easterling.

Mrs. L. T. Peacock and four children, of Parkton, N. C., spent last week-end with her sister, Mrs. E. E. Goodson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Goodson and Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Deer, of Allendale, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Goodson Sunday afternoon.

Mr. W. A. Ross, of the Ashleigh section, was in the city Saturday. He has thrown his hat in the ring as a candidate for Coroner.

The hot dry weather of the early part of the week brought smiles to the faces of farmers in this section whose fields were getting grassy.

Messrs. J. Julien Bush and Solomon Blatt are attending the commencement of the University of South Carolina in Columbia this week.

Boll weevils are already making their appearance in some cotton fields near Barnwell, a few farmers reporting a comparatively heavy infestation.

Mrs. J. O. Cfont and little daughter, of Columbia, were the guests of Mrs. Cfont's mother, Mrs. S. R. Goodson, last week-end. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Goodson, who will spend a few days in Columbia.

The many friends of Mr. C. W. Mitchell, manager of the local Chero-Cola plant, will regret to learn that he is quite ill with typhoid fever. Mr. John Adair is in town and in charge of the Chero-Cola plant during the illness of Mr. Mitchell.
