HERE AND HEREBABOUTS

The days' loss four minutes in sunshine this week.

Mrs. J. G. Howell and children, of Lamar, are the guests of Barnwell relatives.

Dr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Hensley and children spent Sunday with relatives in McCormick.

Mr. Julian Harrison has returned home after a pleasant visit to his sister, Mrs. D. C. Reynolds, at Lamar.

Miss Sarah F. Egan left Monday morning for her home in Burlington, N. C., after a visit of two weeks to her aunt, Mrs. B. P. Davis.

Messrs. Edgar A. Brown, J. Julian Bush, B. S. Dicks and B. W. Sexton spent the week-end with their families at Beaufort. They report extremely heavy rains all the way to the coast, with crops practically ruined.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Phillips, who were married on the evening of July 1st, returned to Barnwell Thursday afternoon and are making their home for the present with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Easterling.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Reynolds and children arrived Sunday for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Harrison. Mr. Reynolds states that crops in Barnwell County are very much better than those in his section, where they have had rain for the past two months.

The initial meeting of the Barnwell County political campaign was held at Hilda on the Glorious Fourth with a large number of candidates and voters in attendance. The day passed, most pleasantly, in spite of the inclement weather. The visitors enjoyed a barbecue dinner and picnic.

The Rev. Howard Cady, rector of the Church of the Holy Apostles, received a telegram Wednesday of last week containing the sad news that his brother was dying in New York. He left for the metropolis Thursday morning. Mr. Cady's many friends here will sympathize with him in his bereavement.

A young negro boy, the son of Henry Marney, of Barnwell, suffered the loss of all of the fingers on one hand Saturday at the J and J. Sanitary Market. It seems that he was cleaning the sausage grinder when in some unknown manner the machinery was started, amputating the boy's fingers in a flash.

Elsewhere in this issue of The People will be found the formal announcement of Mr. H. P. Compton, candidate for the office of Alderman. He is the manager of the local Coca-Cola Bottling Company's plant and during his residence of several years in Barnwell has made many friends who will be interested in his announcement.
