HERE AND HEREBOUTS

Next Monday will be salesday.

Mrs. R. H. Wilcox entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club last week.

Several Barnwell people attended the Senatorial campaign meeting at Aiken Saturday.

Candidates for county offices will address the voters at Williston tomorrow (Friday).

Mrs. Julia B. Easterling is in Hendersonville, N. C., for the remainder of the summer.

Complaints of boll weevil damage have become more general in this section in the past week.

Capt. W. D. Black and son, Mr. Harvey Black, of Williston, were visitors here Monday.

Mr. W. A. Knepton, of the Baldoc section, spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Goodson recently.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Julian Bush left Saturday for a stay of several weeks in the mountains of Western North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Goodson left Saturday morning for a visit to relatives and friends in the Eastern part of the State.

Miss Blanche Porter returned home Friday night after a pleasant visit to friends at Dillon, Myrtle Beach and Wrightsville Beach.

Col. Edgar A. Brown and Mr. W. C. Gave returned home Friday evening from a visit to the Piedmont section of the State.

Mr. Oscar Borg, of Columbia, is spending his vacation with relatives and friends in Barnwell and at other places in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark L. McCaslan, of St. Matthews, and the former's sister, Miss McCaslan, visited relatives here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Reed and little daughter, Dorris, of Columbia, spent last week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. C. Reed.

Miss Marguerite Duncan, sister of Mrs. Harry D. Calhoun, and Mr. Moulton, of Manning, will be Mrs. Calhoun's house guests this week and next.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Widman, of Asheville, N. C., motored down to Barnwell Saturday to spend the weekend with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Porter.

The barbecue dinner served here Friday by the members of the Methodist Church netted over $80, the proceeds being for the benefit of the church.

The friends of Dr. and Mrs. C. N. Burekhalter will learn with regret that their son, Charles, is confined to his bed with an attack of fever. His early recovery is hoped for.

Quite a large crowd attended the second county campaign meeting at Dunbarton Saturday, which passed off very pleasantly in every way. A barbecue dinner was one of the features of the occasion.

The W. D. Harley Motor Co., of Barnwell, recently sold an Essex coach to Thos. M. Boulware, Esq., of this city, and an Essex touring car to Mr. C. E. Gimes, who lives a few miles from Barnwell.

The managers of the two local canneries, the Farmers' Ginney and the Barnwell Oil Mill, have been busy for the past few weeks having their gin machinery thoroughly overhauled in preparation for the new crop.

Col. and Mrs. Norman B. Gamble and little daughter will leave next week for the former's old home in Florence County to visit relatives and friends. From there they will go to the mountains of Western North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Easterling leave this week for a visit to relatives in Greensboro, N. C.

Mr. George W. Ready, of Frostproof, Fla., was a visitor here Friday. He is visiting relatives in the county.

The fair weather of the past several days has made the farmers of this section more optimistic over the outlook for a cotton crop. Estimates on the probable yield range from 12,000 to 15,000, as compared with about 19,000 last year.

The People's good friend, Mr. W. B. Norris, who lives a few miles from Barnwell, was in the city Saturday, and while here told the editor that he has an exceptionally good crop of corn and cotton this year. He is one of the best farmers in the county.

Messrs. James Calhoun, Bobby Holmes and Aubrey Harley have returned home after a stay of ten days at Camp Caspers in the mountains of Western North Carolina. This camp is under the direction of the Episcopal Church in South Carolina.

Messrs. Perry Bush and L. G. Richardson attended a campaign meeting at Wagoner Tuesday, at which time Senator N. B. Dial and Ex-Gov. C. L. Blease addressed a crowd estimated at between 2,000 and 3,000 people. Candidates for Congress also made addresses.

Col. and Mrs. Harry D. Calhoun are attending the peach exposition at Hamlet, N. C., this week. Tuesday was North Carolina Day and Wednesday was South Carolina day. Gov. T. G. McLeod and many other South Carolinians are in attendance. Col. and Mrs. Calhoun will spend the week-end in Hendersonville.

Mrs. Martin C. Best was taken suddenly ill a few days ago with an attack of ptomaine poisoning, caused by eating ice cream and watermelon. She was rushed to a hospital and her friends will be glad that she has entirely recovered from the attack. Little Thomas Crenshaw has also been quite sick this week from a similar attack, caused by eating the same combination.

Notice of the municipal Democratic primary election will be found elsewhere in this issue of the People. The election will be held Tuesday, August 19th, one week before the State and county primary. The books of enrollment for the city election closed Tuesday, at which time practically every man and woman of voting age in the city had qualified, more than 525 persons having enrolled. More interest is being manifested in this election than in any town election in the past decade.

County Gets Money.

Barnwell County has received $588.60 for hunting licenses and $70.77 for fur tags from Chief Game Warden A. A. Richardson as his share of the funds derived from the sale of licenses and tags. The total for the State amounted to $62,931.60.

Death of an Infant.

Ruth, the one year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doll Black, who live a few miles from Barnwell, died in an Augusta hospital at 12:30 o'clock, Wednesday morning, July 23rd, after an illness of four weeks. Everything that was humanly possible was done to stay the dread summons, but God knew best and called her home, where the sunshine is always bright. Little "Rufie," as she was affectionately called by her loved ones, was the light of the home and at such a time as this, when one seeks words of comfort for the bereaved family, no more beautiful thought can be found than that expressed in the following poem by Ella Wheeler Wilcox:

I never stand above a bier and see
The seal of death set on some well-loved face
But I think "One more to welcome me
When I shall cross the intervening space
Between this limit and that one over there;
One more to make the strange Beyond seem far."
And so for me there is no sting to death.
And so the grave has lost its victory.
It is but crossing with barred breath
And white, set face—a little strip of sea—
To find the loved ones waiting on the shore.
More beautiful, more precious than before.

How the Balloon Tire Swallows Up the Bumps

Every one who has ridden in a car whose tires were underinflated knows how much more comfortable the going was. As tires have always been constructed with thick walls to withstand high pressures, underinflation was extremely destructive to the walls for in this condition they get about two thousand flexions in each mile of travel. These flexions soon separate the "plies" of which they are built up.

The problem of securing the comfort tire then, was that of perfecting a tire of about the ordinary cross section but with walls so thin that they would not suffer when repeatedly flexed. This solution was favored by the fact that the balloon tire carries less than half of the air pressure ordinarily used.

With the new tire road obstructions which reach us in the form of "bumps" are swallowed up in the soft, mushy air cushion and we get the impression of floating through space. At the automobile show in New York a large number of the 1924 models were equipped with balloon tires, requiring in many cases a redesign of axles and fenders, and it is believed by automotive engineers that they will bring about a great change in car operation, performance and endurance.

They minimize vibration, which shakes the car to pieces; greatly reduce the danger of skidding; increase braking power; make driving more comfortable because one does not have to study the road ahead for a perfectly level track; and, it is claimed, are far safer in case of blowout than the ordinary tire.—The Outlook.

NOTICE OF MUNICIPAL PRIMARY ELECTION.

Pursuant to authority vested in us by the Executive Committee of the Barnwell Municipal Democratic Party and in accordance with the rules and regulations of the said party, we do hereby order an election to be held in the city of Barnwell, on Tuesday, August 19th, 1924, for the purpose of nominating a Mayor, six (6) Aldermen and one Commissioner of Public Works to succeed Mrs. Lessie B. Easterling as the Democratic nominees to be voted for in the general election to be held for the purpose of electing a Mayor, six Aldermen and a Commissioner of Public Works for the city of Barnwell.

This election shall be held under the rules of the Democratic Party. In the said election the voters shall scratch the names of all save one candidate for Mayor, all save six (6) candidates for Aldermen, and all save one candidate for Commissioner of Public Works. No person shall be allowed to vote at this primary unless he or she has enrolled his or her name in the book provided for that purpose.

T. A. Holland, Sam J. Halford and Allen J. Owens are hereby appointed managers of election and it shall be their duty to conduct the said election as the State and County Democratic primary elections are held, and to declare the results of the election in writing to the executive committee of the Barnwell Municipal Democratic Party within three days after the said primary election.

The polls shall be opened at the Court House and kept open from 8:00 o'clock A. M. until 4:00 P. M. on said day.

By order of the Executive Committee:

A. A. Lemon, Chairman,
G. W. Manville, Secretary,
Barnwell, S. C., July 29, 1924.

1,2,3,4,5 Years—Still a Young Car

The Willys-Knight is a car you can keep and enjoy for years. A touring car with all the thrill of 42 horsepower—a car you can drive 50 miles and more an hour, hour after hour—without over-heating—without loss of power—without engine trouble—without carbon cleaning—without ever needing valve grinding.

The Willys-Knight sleeve-valve engine is the most powerful engine of its size ever built—and the quietest—and the only type of engine in the world that actually improves with use. It is common for Willys-Knight owners to report 50,000 miles and more without spending a cent for repairs on the engine.
