A Country Editor's Bank Roll.

The editor of a country newspaper with $50,000 to put in a bank is a novelty and the one attracting notice in Dallas, Texas, recently was naturally asked for the secret of his success. "I attribute my ability to retire with such a bank account after thirty years," he said, "to close application to duty, the most vigorous rules of economy, everlastingly keeping at my job and to the death of an uncle who left me $49,999.50." PERSONAL NEWS OF BLACKVILLE

PUPILS OF THE SEVENTH GRADE ENJOY PICNIC.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffernan Buist Purchase Ayer Residence - Lyric Theatre Reopens.

Blackville, May 26.—An enjoyable affair of last Saturday was the picnic given by Miss Elizabeth Peterson for the pupils of the seventh grade, of which she has been the teacher for the past term. Dives' swimming pool, a very famous "rendezvous," at this season especially, was the spot chosen for the important event. Many invited friends, along with the pupils, spent a very pleasant day. Of course, "water sports" was the important feature of the day, next to the "eats."

Blackville was well represented last Sunday evening at the Baptist Church in Williston, quite a crowd going to enjoy the sacred concert given by the Apollo Music Club, of Bamberg, which is so famed for its high class entertainments.

Protracted services will begin at the Methodist Church here next Sunday, conducted by the Rev. R. W. Humphries, the pastor. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

Mr. W. H. DeWitt, Sr., was a visitor in Barnwell Monday.

Mrs. Amalie Johnson and children, of Camden, are visiting home folks here. It will be of interest to Mrs. Johnson's friends to learn that she intends moving to Charleston in the near future.

Mrs. Julius Strobel and daughter, Miss Meta, motored to Augusta Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mr. Dave Kittrell, a former resident of Blackville.

Mr. Joe Goodson, of Ulmer, was a business visitor here Thursday.

Mr. John Augley, of Sealingville, was a business visitor here Wednesday.

Mrs. Shannon Ray, Sr., of Bamberg, visited friends in Blackville Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Mike Blume, who has a position in Charleston, was the guest of his parents last week-end.

The illness of Mrs. William Altman is a source of regret to her many friends.

It will be of interest to many friends to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Hoffernan Buist have purchased the residence of Mr. Bob Ayer, who, it will be remembered, moved to Florida some time ago. The home is comfortable and modern and is in a very desirable location. Mr. and Mrs. Buist are to be congratulated on what seems to be a very wise investment.

Mr. Hubert DeWitt, of Columbia, visited relatives here last week.

Misses Bertha O'Kelley and Elise Rav, of Denmark, were among the visitors here Saturday afternoon.

Dr. Murchison filled his usual appointment at the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning and night, and impressed his hearers with his splendid sermons.

Mrs. Dora C. Keel and daughter, Miss Marian, spent the week-end in Elko, with her daughters, Mrs. Bates and Mrs. Youngblood.

Mr. Faust DeWitt, of Washington, was a visitor in Blackville Wednesday. He is a former resident—in fact one of the "home boys" of this old town—and he received cordial greetings from friends and relatives. It will be of interest to many to learn that Mr. DeWitt has decided to leave Washington, where he has been engaged in the automobile business for a good many years and locate in Columbia, carrying on the same line of business. Mr. DeWitt is the oldest son of Mr. W. H. DeWitt, Sr.

Mrs. Ida Kearse Hutto, from near here, is spending some time in Jacksonville, Fla., with her daughter, Mrs. James Cooper, who will be cordially remembered here as Miss Sara Kearse.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffernan Buist were visitors in Barnwell Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mackay spent last week-end in Orangeburg with home folks.

News that the Lyric Theatre would open again last Saturday afternoon, after being closed for several weeks, was received with a thrill of delight and excitement by almost everybody here, especially the young folks. There are very few amusements here to break the monotony of the long summer days, and a good clean moving picture seems to be a "necessary luxury" in these modern times. Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Dobson, of Columbia, are the new managers of the Lyric now, and they have the best wishes for a prosperous business from this whole section, not only for their good, but for the good of the community. The old saying that "a blessing is never appreciated until it is lost" was proved, while the theatre was closed.

Miss Annie Mae Youngblood, from near Kline, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. H. Youngblood.

The "spirit of optimism" seems to pervade the air, since loaded "Kukumber Krates" are in evidence, with a prospect for bringing good prices. Miss Farquer, a former Blackville teacher, whose home is in New York, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. L. H. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee, of Denmark, were guests of Miss Theo Sandifer Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Eva Blume and Mrs. Amalie Johnson spent the week-end with relatives in Charleston.

Mrs. Adelle Hyman and little daughter, of Paraplico, have returned home after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Johnson.

Mrs. Jim Price, of Denmark, was the guest of Mrs. Julius Strobel for a while last Thursday.

Friends of Mrs. N. Blatt will be delighted to learn that she seems to be improving from serious injuries received in an automobile accident some time ago.

Social and Personal News from Williston

Williston, May 25.—Mrs. W. C. Smith, Sr., was hostess at the May meeting of the Martha Watson Chapter, D. A. R., in place of Mrs. W. G. Thompson, Jr., who was unable to entertain on account of illness. New officers were elected as follows: Mrs. G. W. Whitaker, regent; Miss Hattie Newsom, vice regent; Miss Elizabeth Johnson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. W. Odiorne, treasurer; Mrs. E. W. Black, historian; Mrs. M. F. Weathersbee, registrar; Mrs. W. H. Manning, recording secretary; Mrs. J. E. Newsom, gleener. During the social hour the hostess served black ice cream and pound cake.

Hart's Battery Chapter, U. D. C., were recent hosts to Confederate Veterans of Williston, their wives and widows and the World War Veterans and their wives. Dinner was served in the dining room at the Baptist Church and was enjoyed by about 40 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Smith, Jr., entertained the Bridge Club Tuesday evening, three tables being arranged. A salad course followed by fresh peaches and cream were served before the games.

Miss Gretchen Hair entertained Monday night with rook in honor of Miss Sadie West, of Spartanburg. A salad course with iced tea was served during the evening.

Miss Lois Pace, of North Carolina, is the guest of Mrs. P. S. Ussery.

Mrs. J. B. Harley, of Barnwell, was a visitor here Tuesday.

Mr. M. A. Smith has returned from a visit to relatives and friends in Batesburg.

Mrs. W. A. B. Newsome visited her daughter, Mrs. Rqbt. Black, in Bamberg last week.

Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Q. A. Kennedy motored to Greenwood Tuesday.

Miss Fairy Bell Blume, of Blackville, was the guest of Miss Gladys Blume last week.

Mrs. Angus Wiley and daughter, of Bennettsville, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Courtney and Miss Lou Belle Scott spent Monday in Augusta.

Mr. Burdell Ussery came over from Atlanta in his car several days ago to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Ussery.

Mrs. R. S. Martin and children and Mr. H. R. Thomas, of St. Matthews, were recent visitors here.

Mrs. Laura Puckhalter, of Savannah, Ga., was the guest of Miss Bettie

Matthews and other friends here last week.

Williston was well represented at the bankers' meeting in Aiken last week by Messrs. W. D. Black, A. M. Kennedy, W. E. Prothro, H. M. Thompson, G. W. Whitaker and Miss Mayo Rountree.

A Wonderful Discovery

The remarkable herb "Hobo" as analyzed by "Schwartz" was found to contain besides other principles, a variety of acid which he named Galitanic Acid. He also found it to contain a peculiar acid discovered by Schwartz and Rochleder and named Ribichloric Acid. This has been used in Dropsy congestion of the spleen, Scrofula and Leprosy with good results. In recent years this herb has been discovered growing in East Texas and Louisiana and further experiment has shown that its wonderfully purifying properties, were due to its action on the kidneys.

The Hobo Medicine Company, of Beaumont, Texas, make an effective balm from this herb and call it Hobo Kidney and Bladder Remedy. This balm being said to be a Diuretic, Aperient and Anti-Scorbutic. Six bottles—a guaranteed treatment costs $6.00.
