Heavy Damage Suit Flled. The family of Thad N. Jones, an enkilled in a wreck at Green Pond, S. C., November 24, 1900, has entered suit for $40,000 damages. The papers of Macon, who is alleged to have dehave been filed in Charleston and the trial will come up in November. In the complaint it is alleged that the death of Jones was due to the negligence of the railroad company. His locomotive was pulling train 78, of the Plant system, running from Tampa to New York, and according to the plaintiff it had the right of way. At the Green Pond switch the engine collided with cars that had become separated from a freight train, and in the collision Jones received fatal injuries. He died a short time after being hurt.

Rice Bird Season is On. Thousands of rice birds are being slaughtered daily in the fields around Georgetown to supply the markets of the east. The season, which opened auspiciously for the bird dealers, has been profitable, and one firm in Georgetown has made the largest shipments ever recorded in this section. Some time ago a dealer in Philadel phia offered to buy the entire output of the Georgetown dealer, regardless of price and the number of birds shipped. The Philadelphian said he could easily handle 75,000 dozen at once, which gives a clear idea of the enormous de mand for this toothsome dish. During the past week the Charleston buyers have had great difficulty in getting birds, as the price has jumped from 50 cents to 75 cents per dozen. But this increase has not stopped the sale, and the city is feasting daily.

INIVERSAL MOURNING IN CUBA.

General Wood Says Islanders Deeply Feel Death of President McKialey. General Wood, who arrived in Washington Wednesday, said he had never seen such universal mourning as was shown in Cuba for the death of Mr. McKinley, and that its extent and sincerity showed how deeply the Cubans felt it. General Wood states that important business with the secretary of war brought him here, and that he would probably return in about a week.

Croker Wing of New York Democracy Holds Municipal Convention and Prepares For Battle.

The New York city democratic convention met Thursday night in the Grand Palace, with George B. McClellan as chairman. Mr. Croker was given an ovation in the convention hall.

Previous to the meeting the executive committee of Tammany Hall met and ratified the action of the city committee in selecting E. M. Shepard, William J. Ladd, Jr., and Judge George M. Van Hoesen as the party candidates for mayor, comptroller and president of the board of aldermen, respectiely. In a preamble and resolution the convention placed upon record its abhorrence of the crime by which President McKinley was stricken down, and its "detestation of the disgraceful and outrageous attack upon our institutions and our civilization. and its respectful and sincere sympathy with the bereaved family." The platform adopted by the convention declares for a democratic administration of the city; charges the republican party with a brutal indifference to the interest of the city by denying to it any legislation, the right of self-government, thus minimizing home rule in the city.
