Hartzog Happenings.

HARTZOG, October 14.—Our farmers are almost through harvesting. As crops were so short it did not take long for them to get through.

The visitors to our vicinity for the past week have been Mrs. Dusha Edwards, of Branchville; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Folk, of Folk's Store; Miss Ann Pender, of Snooks; and Mr. Judson Steedly, of Bamberg.

Mr. Frank Smeak returned home from Lees Saturday.

Our school starts this morning. It will be taught by Mr. P. K. Rhoad.

We are having some cold weather now, and I hope it will continue for a while.

Wedding bells were supposed to ring at the center of Chapel Sunday, but the minister was unable to surmise a while longer.

Rock Hill Guggies have more style, run lighter on their feet, and give more satisfaction than any on the market. G. F. Bamberg, agent.

Ehrhardt Etchings.

EHRHARDT, October 14.—Mr. H. C. Copeland has a chestnut tree that is somewhat of a curiosity. It is loaded with chestnuts and a few of the samples of Reynolds's drug store measure four inches in circumference.

Mr. B. F. Brown wishes to thank the kind ladies of Ehrhardt who helped to care for his beloved wife during her late illness.

Miss Esch Powell has just returned from a visit to Bamberg.

Messrs. Edwin and Frank Chesneau and Burnett are spending the week in Augusta.

Mr. A. C. Carter's house was destroyed by fire last Sunday night. Cause of the fire is under investigation. None of the furniture except an organ was saved, the house, kitchen and contents being completely destroyed. The house had been pitched only a few days ago. We understand the loss is covered by insurance, or partly so. Mr. Carter was in Charleston at the time, and his son was the only occupant of the house that night, and he had a narrow escape from the flames.

Bamberg is getting to be quite a market for vehicles.

G. F. Bamberg sold a gentleman near Aiken, this gentleman having been to Augusta, Barnwell and Blackville. Prices and quality will tell, and G. F. Bamberg seems to have them both.

Letter to Mrs. T. Black, Bamberg, S. C.

Dear Madam.—This is an appeal to common sense. We know we do not appeal to you in vain. Look beyond the first cost when buying a paint. Once the needful oil is added to it, it will not only have a long actual coat, but your house will stay well painted longer than you wish. You will get so tired of seeing the same color year after year that you will buy any other shade of L. & B. M. just for variety's sake.

Longman & Martinez.

Mr. G. F. Bamberg is trading buggies and gears for cows—paying 25c. per pound gross for the cattle.

Barnwell Association.

The Barnwell Baptist Association will meet with the Blackville church on Thursday, October 17th, at 8 a. m. The change has been made by direction of the executive committee.

The Cotton Market.

The cotton market is ranging from 8 to 8 1/2 cents, and the receipts of this week have been seven hundred bales and upwards.

Gene to Orangeburg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dixon have gone to Orangeburg, where Mr. Dixon has temporarily accepted the position of chief engineer and master mechanic for the Orangeburg Mfg. Co. Mr. Dixon offers his iron works here for rent, as he expects to return here very long. In case he does not succeed in renting his shop, he will not keep the position in Orangeburg, but will come back in a short time.

Selfishness would be an excellent thing if it really knew what is good for it.

To-day hasn't been so bad, has it? Well to-day was once a part of the future that you worried about.

South Carolina politicians require about 18 months to men a senatorial campaign.

In the city of New York the campaign for the city election will require four weeks. That is business.

When the Circus Comes.

The Rev. Dr. Leibelter, who is supplying the Baptist church, filed the following announcement last Sunday: "I am of the opinion that it will be useless to undertake to hold prayer meeting in this church next Wednesday night. I do not want you to think I am a backslider, but I really hope you will keep yourselves straight, and not get in the cooler or cause the police ambulance a run in your behalf.

What I want you to do is to enjoy the beauties of the carnival in such a way as will educate you in the resources and advancements of our State and show you the possibilities of our people. Thus you will do something out of the week that will get your soul good."

Our subscribers should remember that while the amount each one is owing is small, in the aggregate they foot up several hundred dollars.

If we could collect all this it would help us very much, so we hope each one will do his part. We owe money and want to pay our debts.

It begins to look like Bamberg county will not be represented at the Charleston Exposition. If our people will not take some interest in the matter, it is certain that the commissioners cannot get up an exhibit alone. They have given the opportunity, and if our people do not respond, it is not the fault of the commissioners.

Headmaster W. E. Willis of the Carlisle Fitting School has resigned in order to take a further course in his specialty, mathematics. His successor is Mr. H. G. Sheridan, of Holly Hill, son of the first Headmaster of this school, and a teacher of most successful experience. Associated with him will be Mr. M. N. Sully, of Orangeburg, who has been in the school several years, Mr. C. E. Boyd, of Spartanburg, who has been attending work, and Mr. P. Stevens, whose reputation in the school room in Bamberg is a most enviable one. Mr. F. E. Dibble, who has been in the school for several years in the Columbia Female College.—Carolina Teachers Journal.

200 Orphans.

Needed and very much needed. What? For help, dear friend, in making provision for our big family.

Two hundred children have come to our sheltering roof.

We are overwhelmed with necessities. There is not even one dollar in the treasury.

We need clothing, food of every sort, especially flour, molasses, bacon, meal and all things of that kind.

We need our crib more always open to the dear little people who do not know that the treasury is in such a plight.

God and his people have always cared for them so why should they fear?

Trusting Him, they may never find daily bread and they have never yet found it lacking.

And they are not going to find you, lacking, now they do, so quickly.

Friend, what you are doing to support a child, giving him board, clothing, education, and mother-care.

Send your checks or money orders to Wm. P. Jacobs, Bamberg, S. C.

Send your clothing or to Thornwell Orphanage, Clinton, S. C. Ask your railway authorities for free transportation.

Death of Mr. Daniel Padgett.

WALTERBORO, Oct. 9.—News has just reached here of the death of Mr. Daniel Padgett, at his home at Williams, in this county, early yesterday morning.

Mr. Padgett was a member of a very large and influential family in this county, and his death is very much deplored. He was known as the peacemaker in his community, and it is said that the poor had him in him a true friend. His smoke never developed into a violent epilepsy, and he was 69 years of age, and leaves five children and a large concourse of friends to mourn his death.

His remains will be interred at the Padgett burying ground near Smeaks to-day at 11 o'clock.

Over Ten Years Spent in Sleep.

STOCKBRIDGE, Mich., Oct. 10.—One of the most remarkable cases on record is that of one Mary E. Slater, who for ten years has battled against sleep and has won.

While attending a business college at Ypsilanti in 1890 Miss Slater, at the time 22 years old, sustained injuries to her spine by a fall upon the icy pavement, which caused an abscess in her side. She was removed to her home ten miles from this village and placed under the care of Dr. Herman E. Brown. Her case soon developed into a violent epilepsy, and she has had from one to fifty convulsions in a day. Then began her long sleep, and for twenty days she slept while the doctor worked for hours trying to awaken her, and only for a few moments would she remain awake when she would relapse into a deep slumber. For years no one was able to awaken her but the doctor, although many tried to do so.

She is now 32 years of age, and is as alertly awakened by any one.

Dr. Brown found the ride of ten miles through all kinds of weather too much for him, and so he had her removed to his residence in town, where for the past three years she has remained. All this time her faithful sister, Carrie has been her constant attendant.

During her long illness she lost the use of her limbs, but the doctor thinks she will regain it in time. For the past few years she has occupied a wheelchair. At one time during her sickness she was reduced to 65 pounds, but now tips the beam at 120 pounds.

Death of Mr. E. F. Slater.

The entire community was shocked Sunday afternoon at the unexpected announcement of the death of Mr. E. F. Slater. Mr. Slater was well as usual in the morning and at dinner with his family Sunday. After dinner he went out to his office at his lively stables in the rear of his house and he was while in his study, he was struck with apoplexy. He was alone when stricken and remained so until some member of the family, attracted by a strange noise, went out to the office and found him in this condition. Several physicians were hastily summoned and they used most heroic means to revive the dying man, but to no avail.

Mr. Slater was about 51 years of age and was well known throughout the county. He was a member of the Baptist church and was a genial, good-hearted man who had many friends in his wide acquaintance. He leaves a wife, two daughters and two sons, one of whom, Dr. Ernest Slater, is holding an important position in the American army in the Philippines.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. E. M. Lightfoot in the Baptist church, and the remains were interred in Sunnyside cemetery.

The bereaved family have the warmest sympathy of the entire people in the sad and sudden affliction which has befallen them.—Orangeburg Patriot.

McLaurin for Cabinet.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—There has been a good deal of talk in quiet way about the President offering Senator McLaurin a cabinet portfolio. Not until today, however, has there been any public indication of this important step.

In the Star this afternoon it is stated that many callers and a large number of letters have been received by the President suggesting Senator McLaurin for the Southern States.

Prof. Lanier, the Southern States' most prominent one before the President since he became president. It is equally true that Senator McLaurin is by far the foremost man from the South in politics and the capital. Coupled with this, the fact that the President has given many callers, both from South and North, expressions of his high regard for Senator McLaurin, gives color to the now public expression of what is the newspaper men at the White House say, has been long in the air.

Senator McLaurin does not know anything of the matter other than the published statements that have appeared in the papers this afternoon. He declines to say anything of the matter. It is known, however, that the President has asked him to make a special call at the White House on Thursday on important business.

WINE OF CARDUI

The greatest ambition of American men and women is to have homes blessed with children. The woman afflicted with female disease is constantly menaced with becoming a childless wife. No medicine can restore dead organs, but Wine of Cardui does regulate derangements that prevent conception; does prevent miscarriage; does restore weak functions and shattered nerves and does bring babies to homes barren and desolate for years.

Wine of Cardui gives women the health and strength to bear healthy children. You can get a dollar bottle of Wine of Cardui from your dealer.

144 Market Street, Memphis, Tenn. April 14, 1901.

In February, 1901, I took one bottle of Wine of Cardui and had one child of Theodor's Black-Draught. I had never married fifteen years and had never been big and healthy and my husband felt as well as any born child could feel. My baby weighs fourteen pounds and is without Wine of Cardui in my house again.
