Our people will soon be plunged into the turmoil and excitement of a political campaign for State and county officers, one which promises to be unusually interesting on account of the multiplicity of candidates. We trust, however, that it will be quiet in this county. In the present financial condition of our people they have no time to waste over politics, but should devote their energies to making a to get out of debt.

Senator Tillman is queer sort of a statesman and citizen. In the United States Senate, holding a commission as Senator, he publicly declares that his sympathies are with the Filipinos in their war against the United States. Years ago 'even a private citizen would have been imprisoned for delivering such a treasonable utterance, and the Senator's inconsistency is plainly shown by the diftion and the Filipinos.

It was the union of who is a candidate for United States by the side of his brother, Congressman daughter of Lieutenant Bartlett, of the United States Navy, to a Cuban-gentleman of great wealth, Don Estaban Santa Cruz de Oviedo. As generous as he was hearts when it is learned that Edwin opulent, Oviedo lavished upon the bride more than one hundred thousand dollars worth of pearls and diamonds. The nupital rites were solemnized by Archbisho Hughes: Stedman commemorated the tor and a Christian gentleman. Every event in a poem, and moralists pointed to one loved him and today Denmark is in it as an extraordinary instance of the evils of splendor and luxury that were corrupting American society. So great was the curiosity to witness this wedding that probably for the first time on such and mother nursed her tenderly and she an occasion cards of admission were issued to the church. A squad of policemen was required simply to protect the rushed after them. The magnificient nup tials, it may be remarked, had a melancholy sequel: the bridegroom soon died; his widow, under the Spanish laws, was entitled only to the right of dower, and all the gifts which he had showered upon her were taken away from her on the ground that legally they were heirlooms.

How About Your Heart

Feel your pulse a few minutes. Is it regular? Are you short of breath, after slight exertion as going up stairs, sweeping, walking, etc? Do you have pain in left breast, side or between shoulder blades, choking sensations, fainting or smothering spells, inability to lie on left side? If you have any of these symptoms you certainly have a weak heart, and should immediately take
