"The following charge is made: "There is too much drinking out there." Also, 'the faculty sets the pace.' Surely every friend of the school, familiar with its personnel and work, must know this is a slander against the institution; and to those who are not faniliar with the institution, it becomes my duty to say in reply to such statements that I have never known of any member of the faculty being under the influnce of liquor.

"As to the student wody, there is no. college dormitory in the United States which is more closely looked after as egards the habits and hours of stulents. In the fifteen years of the school's existence there has never been a case made in police court or of the city against a student of the institution for drunkenness or disorderly conduct. Surely this is a record which cannot be surpassed. In the fifteen years of our existence there has been only one or two cases of students having been found under the influnce of whisky, and the penalty has been expulsion.

Professor Turner Talks.

Professor Frank C. Turner, of the ech, and treasurer of the alumni asociation, gave out the following rathtart interview in regard to the tatements of Dr. Broughton: "As an alumnus of the school and a nember of the alumni association I express the sentiment of the association in saying that this villainous attack is beneath our notice. "Such charges against our school

"It will probably be recalled that his reverend gentleman a few years since made an attack upon the young ady stenographers of this city, which attack is summed in his statement that 'it was as well to give a young lady a straight passport to hell as a diploma from one of our stenographic colleges.' These words were thrown back into his teeth. Not satisfied with trying to smirch the virtue of some of the fairest young women of the state. According to Mr. Bailey, Mr. Cleveland made the following statement: "I have never spoken to anybody on the subject of a fourth candidacy; have never written to a single political friend one way or another, nor have l been written to or spoken to by them. There is not a political leader of any prominence endeavoring to advance any movement to nominate me in any state, so far as I have been advised, nor do I anticipate that any such offer will be made by any leader, prominent or obscure, in any locality of the coun-

"In this respect the situation is more than pleasing. In earnestly desiring the democratic party to become strong and united as of old, committed to the simple traditions and sound principles which made it aggressive and victorious, no thought of personal interest has disturbed me.

"I have on several occasions within year undertaken to perform the lador which usually falls to the private in the ranks, but there has not lurked within me the hope of any reward save the consciousness of having made an effort to assist in bringing about salutary conditions in the party."

Mr. Cleveland, Mr. Bailey said, would talk no more politics, but in response to a remark that southern people were pleased with what he had recently said on the race question, the face of the former president kindled with interest as he said it was indeed gratifying to him to know this. He said he had received hundreds of letters conveying kindly sentiments from the southern people since he had spoken on the race problem, and, believing he has fairly appreciated the difficulties with which the southern people ond is his hearty desire for the unity a sensational dispatch. It says: "From a source that is reliable and authentic, it has been learned that the full details of the offer of $5,000 to Captain Ewen to perjure himself, was communicated to State Inspector Hines upon his last visit here, and that he reported those facts to Governor Beckham last week. The facts, in substance, are that a man went to Captain Ewen, made him the proposition to pay him the sum stated if he would either leave the county, or would swear on the witness stand that he did not recognize the assassin of Marcum. Captain Ewen told him that he would have to think the matter over, and made an appointment for the man to come to his house and told him to bring the money. Arrangements were made that when the emissary returned everything he said or did could be heard and seen by witnesses. He returned at the appointed hour and brought five $1,000 notes. He repeatwith him five $1,000 notes. He repeated his offer. Captain Ewen refused it and told the man to take the money back and that he could not use it. Upon his refusal, the emissary lost his temper and said it was the worst mistake Ewen ever made; that he would be burned out, destroyed and absolutely wiped out of existence."

Captain Ewen Lionized.

Captain B. J. Ewen was escorted to the Elks' ball in Lexington Wednesday night and given an ovation. He was brought into the room by a Knight Templar, whose lodge was giving a reception in honor of the sponsors and maids of honor from all over the state. The dance was stopped short and a rush made for the feud refugee. Scores of young women clasped hands with him and declared him the bravest man in Kentucky. "You are right, everybody is for you," was the chorus.

Captain Ewen was asked to go where the wines were flowing freely. He went, but would not drink. He has never tasted intoxicating liquor | in Atlanta Thursday.
