Several of our farmers have sold some cotton for delivery this fall.

The dispensary at Midway has been re-opened with H. W. Walker as dispenser.

The salary of the post master at Denmark has been increased from $1,200 to $1,300 a year.

Mr. H. G. Delk has opened an ice house in the building recently occupied by the Bamberg Banking Co.

The salary of the Midway dispenser is $20 per month, and the rent paid for a building is $3 per month.

The Herald's advertising patronage is not what it should be these days. Our merchants do not support a newspaper as they should.

Remember The Herald office when you need job printing. We have the equipment and do first-class work. Orders filled promptly.

The new building of Mr. J. A. Spann is being wired for electric lights. Both stores and all the offices upstairs are being wired.

FOR SALE.—Two buggies and two sets of harness, cheap for cash or on easy terms. E. T. LAFITTE, Bamberg, S. C.

The oats crop in this section appears to have been a right large one. This is very well, as the corn crop last year was not as large as usual.

Rev. Peter Stokes performed a marriage ceremony at Honea Path last week, and also addressed the Y. M. C. A. of that place Sunday afternoon.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Home Mission Society will be held next Tuesday afternoon at five o'clock in the ladies' parlor of the Methodist church.

Rain, wind and hail storms did much damage in Clarendon, Lee, Edgefield and Orangeburg counties Tuesday afternoon. Growing crops were greatly injured.

If you can't go to the play at the Opera House tomorrow (Friday) evening, buy a ticket anyway and thus contribute something to the Confederate monument fund.

Bamberg ought to have an ice factory and laundry. If the two enterprises were combined under one management, no doubt the enterprise would be a paying one.

There was a game of base ball here last Thursday afternoon, on the Fitting School grounds, between the small boys of Denmark and Bamberg. Denmark won by a score of 8 to 3.

Be sure to attend the play at the Opera House tomorrow (Friday) evening. You will be well entertained, and the proceeds are to go to a good cause, the Confederate monument fund.

Invitations have been received here announcing the approaching marriage of Mr. Charlie H. Moutson to Miss Carrie Muckenfuss at Ridgeville. The ceremony will take place June 26th.

Mr. W. S. Miley has been appointed game warden for this county, and he proposes to see that the laws protecting birds and fish are obeyed. Better be careful how you violate them hereafter.

Mr. L. C. Price presented us last Friday the largest cabbage we have ever seen. It weighed 22 pounds and nine ounces, and was certainly a fine specimen. Mr. Price grew the cabbage in his garden.

Mr. Love, who lives out on the Charleston and Augusta road, a few miles above town, lost his house by fire last Friday morning about eleven o'clock. He was off at work and found his house burned when he came home at noon.

Cards are out announcing the marriage on June 19th of Mr. Earle Monroe Stokes at Durham, N. C. Mr. Stokes was formerly a student at the Carlisle Fitting School and has many friends here who will be glad to hear of his intended step.

John Henry Moody, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moody, died at their home in this city last Saturday afternoon, after a long and painful illness. He was twenty-three years old. The burial took place Sunday afternoon at South-end cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. A. J. Foster.

Mr. B. F. Folk, of the Midway section, lost his dwelling house by fire last Thursday night. He does not know how the fire originated. Very little furniture and household effects were saved, and it was only by hard work that the kitchen and corn house were saved. There was insurance of $950 on the house and contents.

City council has been considering the matter of purchasing nineteen feet of land from Mr. S. W. Johnson between his hotel and the railroad, for the purpose of widening the street, but action has been deferred. The lot is 136 feet in depth and the price asked is $400. While the land is now open and is used for a street Mr. Johnson has enclosed it at intervals so as not to allow his title to lapse.

The Bessinger reunion will be held at Spring Branch church as usual, July fourth, in remembrance of Mr. William Bessinger. Friends and relatives are cordially invited to attend. Remember the date, July 4th.

We have stopped the papers of some mighty good men recently, but we could not avoid it. They were fully able to pay and are good pay, yet they neglected us. We cannot afford to send The Herald on long credit, no matter who you are or how much money you are worth. It does us no good unless we can get what is coming to us.

The play to be given by the young ladies in aid of the Confederate monument fund has been postponed from Thursday to Friday evening of this week, and it will take place at the opera house. Be sure to go. Admission, children 15c, adults 25c. Be on hand early and secure a good seat. This is a most worthy cause, and there should be a crowded house.

COMPANIES MUSTERED OUT.

Possible That They Will Be Able to Come into Service Next Year.

Adj. Gen. Boyd is still receiving letters in regard to his action in mustering out of service the companies at Bamberg and at Bennettsville. Gen. Boyd's action does not mean the companies are permanently out of commission but that they can not secure a share in the appropriation this year. Next year should the companies present a creditable appearance they may be placed in service again. A number of citizens of Bamberg have already started agitation for another company.—Columbia State.

Morning Marriage.

Miss Mabel Felder, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Felder, was married Monday morning, at the home of her parents in this city, to Mr. A. M. Watson, of Whitmire. The marriage was a very quiet one, only the immediate family of the bride being present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. Foster. The young couple left on the 8:30 train for their future home at Whitmire, carrying with them the good wishes of numerous friends.

Misplaced Anatomy.

Mother was in the butler's pantry preparing some dainties for a luncheon and amongst them a Camembert cheese.

In rushed a 5 year old maid on a tour of inspection, all curiosity. After commenting on the various articles she came to the cheese. It was riddled with the odor all Camembert lovers delight in.

"Mama," she quaintly remarked, "If your nose wasn't so near your mouth you could eat that"—Harper's Magazine.

VOTING CONTEST AT MOYE'S

For Most Popular Young Lady and Gentleman in Bamberg.

The voting contest for the most popular young lady or girl in town, and also for the most popular young man, which started at Moyer's soda fount last Friday promises to eclipse anything of the kind ever held in Bamberg. The boys are all out for the girl of their choice and vice versa. The contest began last Friday and will continue through Monday, July 8. One vote is given with each drink taken at the fount. The vote will be published each week in the Herald from now until the close; the vote as given each week will be for the week ending Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The following is the standing up until Monday afternoon of this week. Remember however, that this means only for the three days Friday, Saturday and Monday, and that the contest is just beginning, so do not be discouraged if the one of your choice is not in the lead now.

And remember that handsome prizes are being offered to the winners. Messrs. Ben Wyman and M. W. Brabham will act as managers of the contest.

SHE PINES FOR KISSES

Iowa Girl's Peculiar Penchant Lands Her in Jail.

KISSES EVERY MAN SHE SEES

Even Embraces Judge Who Sentences Her to Three Years in Prison and Tries to Hug Sheriff on the Way There.

A passion for kisses has cost pretty Huldah Truffel of Des Moines, Ia., her liberty for three years. Huldah, who is only eighteen years of age and of a peculiar type of beauty, wants to kiss every man she meets.

She stops them on the street to throw her arms about their necks and plants a resounding smack upon their lips. She patronizes the street cars in order to sit down in the lap of the first attractive looking young man she sees, and even old men have difficulty in escaping the young girl's affectionate embraces.

Huldah is a psychological puzzle. She has been worrying the police and humane society for nearly a year.

The police thought that the girl was starting on a criminal career as a second "Painting Bertha," but when none of the victims of her affectionate complaints that he had been robbed the police were more puzzled than ever. They could not arrest the girl, for under the city ordinances it is no crime to kiss a man in the street unless the man himself files charges. And none of the men, young or old, who were recipients of the handsome young lady's kisses had either the desire to object or to make charges which would get them into the limelight and bring down a shower of wrath from wife or sweetheart.

And so the girl continued her kissing career uninterrupted. Not even then did her mania wear off nor did she lose her passion for kissing, and finally the humane society decided to arrest her and send her to the reform school under the juvenile law.

The girl, hearing of the search for her by the police, calmly came to the police station, gave a fictitious name to the chief of police and while the city was searched from top to bottom remained safely hidden in the police matron's room. She was captured by accident next morning just as she was leaving the station and was hailed before Judge Brennan on a charge of incorrigibility.

In the courtroom she repeated her kissing stunts on a bunch of newspaper men and then embraced Judge Brennan, who lost no time in sentencing the girl to the industrial school for three years at Mitchellville, where the authorities hope she may be cured.

On the way to the reform school she again attempted to kiss all the good looking men on the car, but the sheriff restrained her, and she then attempted to embrace him. Physicians who have made a study of the girl's case are greatly puzzled over her. It is the opinion of many of them that she is insane and that she was not responsible at that time for her actions. The girl possesses an uncontrollable temper and fought furiously when told that she would have to go to the reform school. Then she cooled down and remarked sweetly: "Just wait until I make love to that old superintendent. He doesn't know what love means yet."

The superintendent's wife happened to hear the remark, and there is already more trouble brewing for the young girl.

Whole Family Goes Mad.

A strange case of collective madness is reported from Bellavilliers, France. After partaking of the midday meal the members of a family named Aubry developed queer eccentricities. A woman, imagining that her hands were dirty, spent the whole afternoon in washing them. Another made her bed in a heap of smoking straw. Two men occupied themselves in emptying and filling a rain tub for the rest of the day. The youngest member of the family wandered all day and all night with one of his feet bare. Another man saw imaginary balloons, which he wanted to show to everybody. Fortunately this madness was of short duration, for when the doctor arrived the members had returned to their normal condition. Some poison in their food is believed to be responsible.

SHE EMBRACED THE JUDGE.
