The dispensary contest is over and we are glad of it. Some feeling was doubtless aroused in the heat of the campaign, but that should all be forgotten now. Let us drop the question, as it is settled as a county matter, and go to work to build a cotton which the line was to run. Prohibition in Chesterfield.

Mr. W. J. Hanna, of Chesterfield, one of the leaders in the fight made in that county for prohibition, resulting last week in voting the dispensary out of the county by a vote of two to one, was in the city yesterday.

"We won a victory squarely and fairly," said Mr. Hanna, "but the dispensary folks are dying hard. I understand that they have employed Mr. Pollock, of Cheraw, and it is ham in the city. given out that a bitter contest will be made. But the prohibitionists are game and don't propose to sit down and allow these folks to do as they please. We have employed Hon. E. D. Blakeney, of Kershaw, and those who know him know that he will fight to the last ditch.

"At Chesterfield the ladies and children stayed near the polls all day long, praying and singing. They would hand ballots labeled 'Against Sale' to every person that came along to vote and pleaded with them to help vote the the dispensary out. Some of the dispensaryites, I understand, are trying to claim that by doing this they were 'intimidated.'

that the dispensary folks want to make. I don't believe any election in Chesterfield county was ever conducted more strictly in accordance with the law. If there were a few irregularities here and there they were merely incidental and certainly no one will charge that the prohibitionists designed them."

The board of canvassers will meet at Chesterfield on Tuesday of this week to canvass the vote of the 13th. —Columbia State.

Comedy in a Back Street.

About 10 o'clock one morning two calling each other names. One finally called the other a liar, and the two men were about to grapple when a woman opened the door and said: "Gentlemen, are you about to fight?" 'We are!" they answered together.

"Then have the kindness to wait a moment," she continued. "My husband has been sick for weeks, and is now just able to sit up. He is very down-hearted this morning, and if you'll only wait till I can draw him up to the window I know he'll be very grateful to both of you.

She disappeared into the house, and after one look into each other's face the men smiled, shook hands of all classes of society were invited. and departed together.

"A tramp stopped at the door to-day," said a Bamberg woman, "and ward the thousand mark.

"I just couldn't help it; he reminded me so of you. I asked him if he'd saw some wood for me, and he said he was tired."

Dispensary Wins by Small Majority.

The election on the dispensary question in Bamberg county Tuesday resulted in favor of the dispensary by the small majority of 27 votes. The election passed off quietly, and a very light vote was polled, although much interest was manifested in the town of Bamberg, which resulted in a good vote at this place. Only 600 first insertion, 50c. for each subsequent votes were polled in the county, less

WOMAN WHO TALKED "PARK"

Scheme to Secure Her. City a Beauti ful Pleasure Ground.

Had it not been for a woman's idea Bay City, Mich., would probably not now be preparing to convert a nine acre strip of river front, occupied by business houses, into a public park, says the Detroit Free Press. The woand, are trying to claim that by man is Mrs. Alfred E. Bousfield, wife of one of the wealthiest residents of any property, write THE CAROLINA Bay City. Mr. Bousfield is one of the REALTY & TRUST COMPANY, Bishthree men who brought the $250,000 opville, S. C. hotel and auditorium project to a successful issue.

Mrs. Bousfield began talking "park" in earnest to her husband. The latter became impressed with the idea, and he broached it to S. O. Fisher, president of the board of trade, and C. A. Eddy, EVERY THURSDAY 8:30 P M his associates in the hotel project. The three gentlemen presented the scheme to the public, and it was ratified at the polls election day by a 4 to 1 vote.

As a result of Mrs. Bousfield's idea the new hotel will cost $50,000 more than originally planned, fourteen new men met and began threatening and business blocks in the business district are in the hands of the architects, over $400,000 has changed hands in downtown realty, business property has increased in value from 25 to 100 per cent, and buildings valued at $125,000 are to be torn down. Interest in the hotel and park proposition, however, had aroused people generally in matters of civic improvement, and Mrs. Bousfield, always more or less interested in municipal improvement work by local clubs, took a leading part in the organization of the new Woman's Civic Improvement league.
