Makes no difference what kind of a Buggy you want. Bamberg has it, or will get it for you. We buy in car load lots for cash, so we can make close prices.

We Want Everybody to see our $65.00 Buggy.

This is a buggy that we are making our leader. By buying so many we got them so we could sell at $65. Certainly the best we have ever seen and believe you'll agree with us. Come look them over. Everyone guaranteed

A Word About Bamberg's Harness Department

In our large new store we have one of the largest and best arranged Harness Departments in the State. We take especial pains in buying our leather and seeing that every set of harness is up to the mark. Some people say we carry more than necessary, but like our other lines, we can't buy a little, must buy in large lots to get the price, and then our customers get the benefit of it. Bring your horse to Bamberg's and let the horse milliner fit him up with a new Fall set of harness. We can give you anything you want in Buggy or Wagon Harness. We have the best $10, $12.50 and $15 harness ever brought to Bamberg county. Come to see us and get our prices. We want your business and everything bought from us must be as represented or your money back. Make our place headquarters while in the city.

LEE FALLAW FOUND GUILTY Sentenced to Five Years or Pay a Fine of $800.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 9.—After a closely contested trial lasting two days in the general sessions court here, Lee Fallaw was found guilty of assault and battery with intent to kill and was sentenced to five years imprisonment or pay a fine of $800. The crime was committed upon George W. Mabus on April 13 last at Batesburg, and thereafter he was killed in Aiken county, where the said Lee Fallaw and others were tried a few weeks ago for the murder and were acquitted. There was a score of witnesses on either side at the trial here and the testimony was conflicting on some points.

Putting Cotton in Warehouse

YORKVILLE, Nov. 10.—One day the past week quite a handsome sight was presented on our streets. It was the arrival of 12 wagons loaded with five bales of cotton each from the Tirzah plantation of Mr. S. M. Jones of Chester. The cotton was brought here and placed in the warehouse of Latta Brothers, cotton buyers. It is said that on some portions of the Jones place 25 to 30 bales of cotton to the plow were made. Mr. Jones used fertilizers pretty extensively.

Safecrackers At Ninety-Six.

NINETY-SIX, Nov. 12.—News has just reached here that R. A. Ellison had his safe blown open last night by safecrackers who secured $54 in cash. All the show cases and other breakables in the store were shattered by the explosion to the damage of $200. Mr. Ellison conducted a business about three miles east of Ninety-Six and his many friends sympathize with him in his misfortune.
Two suspicious characters were seen loafing around the store on yesterday afternoon. This is the only clue to the robbery.

CUT IN THE BACK BY NEGRO.

Mr. C. T. Nelson, of Florence, Given An Ugly Wound.
FLORENCE, Nov. 11.—Mr. C. T. Nelson, a well-known bridge foreman on the Atlantic Coast Line, was standing on a street corner speaking with one of his negro laborers Saturday night. Just at that time John Stafford, a negro passed along and "butted" in. Mr. Nelson remonstrated with the darky, who became obstreperous. Mr. Nelson had to strike him with a stick in order to make the negro desist, and the negro in turn slashed Mr. Nelson across the back with a large pocket knife, cutting an ugly wound in the back. Stafford was arrested later by Chief Koopman and locked up. Mr. Nelson had to be sent home, after having his wound dressed.

Kind Words.
Congratulations to Brother A. W. Knight, of the Bamberg Herald, on his determination to print all his paper at home. We have often wondered why he did not cut out the "patent inside." The editor of the Herald is one of the brainiest newspaper men in the State and fearless in expressing his opinions. His influence is felt, too, at home and abroad.—Walterboro Press and Standard.
