In another column will be found an advertisement of sale of real estate of the estate of J. W. Brown, to take place the first Monday in December.

We have a sale beginning every Monday morning and lasting until Saturday night of good shoes and other things. Only stop for Sunday. Don't forget the place: RHOAD'S.

See the new ad. of E. Bart Price in this issue. He has opened up a fancy grocery store next to The Herald office. He keeps a nice line, and will pay special attention to city trade. Give him your next order for groceries. He has a telephone.

Mrs. H. J. Brabham has demonstrated that oranges can be grown in Bamberg. The orange was budded on to a hard lemon, and therefore it will stand our climate. The oranges are the Satsuma or kid glove variety, and while the tree is only four years old, it bore forty-two oranges this year. Mrs. Brabham sent us some of the fruit, which was very fine and well flavored.

County Chain Gang.

The county chain gang, which has recently been at work on the roads near town, has done some fine work on the various highways. The new bridge, Binnaker's, Charleston & Augusta, Cannon's bridge, the Ehrhardt road and the new road to Little Saltkehatchie have all received attention. New bridges have been built at Cannon's bridge and the causeway repaired, while the contract has been let for a new main bridge. The bridges and causeways over Lemon swamp at the Ehrhardt and new road crossings have also been put in nice condition. The gang is now at John Green's on the new road, but in a short time will go to work on the road between Bamberg and Denmark. This important highway will be straightened and clayed. It is the intention to make this the finest road in the county, as it is the most traveled of any road in the county. Bamberg has a fine reputation abroad for her good roads, and the present management purposes to improve it on present conditions.

Home Mission Society.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Home Mission Society will be held next Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the ladies' parlor of the Methodist church. It is earnestly requested that every member of the auxiliary be present at this meeting. The delegates to the annual meeting which was held at Manning, will make their report, and these delegates came with a message to each member of the Home Mission Society from our great leader, Miss Bennett, from Mrs. Wait, our beloved State president, from our own Mrs. Kilgo, and also from Miss Finstrom of the Columbia Door of Hope. Let every Home Mission worker come to this meeting, receive these living messages from our leaders and get more enthused than ever before. There is also important business to be acted upon at this meeting.

A Card.

We have lately heard rumors to the effect that we were advertising our home for sale and closing business with the intention of leaving Bamberg.

We would like to state that both rumors are entirely without foundation. We are here to stay, our business is steadily improving, and for the past three weeks we have been working our entire force day and night to fill our orders. We appreciate the patronage given us, and shall in the future, as we have in the past, offer the very best goods in our line at the lowest possible prices.

Yours for business, Mrs. A. MCB. SPEAKS & Co. Bamberg, S. C., Nov. 11th, 1907.

Rountree Wants Bond.

Chas. Carroll Sims, Esq., of Barnwell, appeared before Judge Memminger here Monday and made application for bail for J. F. Rountree, white, who is now in jail at Barnwell charged with the murder of R. F. Weeks. Our readers are no doubt familiar with the case, as we published an account of the killing a few weeks ago. Mr. Sims was assisted at the hearing by C. A. Best, Esq., of Barnwell, who is also one of the attorneys employed by Mr. Rountree. J. F. Carter, Esq., of this city, represented the State. Judge Memminger took the matter under advisement, but up to the time of going to press Wednesday he has not indicated his decision in the matter. It is likely, though, that he will refuse bail.

Married in Columbia.

Mr. R. Herbert Young, who was a valued employee of The Herald for a year or more, but who is now living in Charlotte, he having left Bamberg last January, was married in Columbia on Thursday, October 31st, to Miss Belle Childers, of Camden. Mr. Young has a number of friends in Bamberg, who extend congratulations and good wishes.

The Cotton Market.

Cotton is selling in Bamberg today (Wednesday) at 10 1/2 cents the pound. Receipts of the week, 300 bales, so it seems that farmers are holding their cotton.

Death of Mrs. Eliza Ott.

Mrs. Eliza deChoisuel Ott, wife of Mr. T. O. Ott, of 2300 Gadsden street, this city, died Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, after an illness of about three weeks.

Mrs. Ott was formerly a Miss Dickson of Greenville. She married about four years ago and has lived in this city since that time. Mrs. Ott was in the 26th year of her age, and leaves surviving, her husband and two children.

The funeral services will take place at Branchville this morning at 11 o'clock. The body leaves on the morning train and the pallbearers are Gov. Ansel, Mr. A. M. Gibbs, Rev. R. N. Pratt, Mr. Erank H. Gibbs, Mr. John A. Hamilton, Mr. R. L. Anderson and Capt. T. J. Lipscomb.

Mrs. Ott's demise will be learned of with sorrow by a number of friends and acquaintances, who sympathize deeply with the bereaved family. — Columbia State, Friday, Nov. 8.

In Memoriam.

Jimmie Armstrong is dead, and the place that once knew him will now know him no more forever. In stature he was small, but in character he stood abreast in the front rank with the greatest in size. As a friend he was true to every principle of man. As a husband and parent, faithful to his obligations. By his genial and kind deportment as a gentleman and citizen he built a monument to his own memory—built upon the foundation laid by the tender hands of a mother, a monument not of stone, granite or marble, but a monument built upon all the virtues constituting the Christian gentleman, and one that will reflect credit upon the name from which his family may take comfort and consolation and feel proud of the name they bear. The author of this feeble little tribute was a great admirer of Jimmie for the reason, if no other, that he was always most respectful to the age, and never departed from the teachings of an affectionate and loving mother. FRIEND. Bamberg, Nov. 3, 1907.

SPECIAL NOTICE

On the first day of December, 1907, I will begin a strictly cash business. By so doing I can sell my GREEN and FANCY GROCERIES much cheaper than ever before. Each week I will publish a list of the nice new things I will have that is good to eat. Give me a trial and see how much cheaper you can buy for cash.

KILLED AT CHESTER DEPOT.

Robert White Falls Beneath Train While Stealing a Ride.

CHESTER, Nov. 7.—A horrible accident occurred here this morning at the Southern railway station. Robert White, a Rock Hill boy about 19 years old, in attempting to "ride the rods" of a northbound freight train, fell from his position to the track, the entire train passing over the body, almost cutting it in twain. One arm was completely severed from the body.

The unfortunate boy came here yesterday with a companion named Sam Hammond. They were attempting to return to their homes this morning when this dreadful casualty occurred. The father of the young man is an industrious and respected citizen of Rock Hill.

Coroner Leckie held an inquest today. The body was sent to Rock Hill.

President Roosevelt is going after the paper trust. He will ask the department of justice to make an immediate investigation as to whether the anti-trust laws are being violated, and he will recommend to congress that the tariff be taken off press paper and wood pulp.
