KISSING A CRIME

That is When it is Done by Force or Without Consent.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., June 22.—Former Principal Edward Sullivan, of the Exeter schools, was found guilty today of assault and battery because he kissed Miss Agnes Finn, one of the school teachers.
She declares that he was violent, and that, moreover, she objected as far as her strength would allow to being kissed by Sullivan. She told the jury that he entered her school-room at recess time and as she sat in a chair threw his arms around her and kissed her several times against her will.
The jury did not take kindly to the suggestion of the defense that it was no crime to kiss a school-teacher, and found Sullivan guilty of assault and battery, but recommend him to the mercy of the court. He will be sentenced later.

HOLD-UP IN ROCK HILL.

Pockets of Young John Lindsey are Searched But No Booty Found.
Rock Hill, June 27.—A holdup within 50 feet of Main street in the main business block of the city is Rock Hill's latest sensation. This occurred Friday night about 10:30 in a dark alleyway, between the Beach-Idrie jewelry store and the Western Union telegraph office.
John Lindsey, the 14-year-old son of Mr. J. C. Lindsey, the marketman, was returning home from the picture show and took a near cut through this alleyway. It is very dark in there, and when he had gotten, perhaps, half way along the building a man stepped out of the darkness and ordered him to throw up his hands. This he did and the robber went through the boy's pockets.
John is a right manly boy and rather tall for his age and was probably taken for a man by the robber. It is not recorded what was found in the pockets but no money was there. After searching the boy the man told him to burn the wind. This the boy did in a very much agitated frame of mind. He could not say whether his assailant was white or black as the spot where it occurred was very dark. Neither could he say whether the man had a pistol.

NEGRO KILLS WHITE MAN.

Result of Row Over Objection by Black of White.
Chicago, June 29.—Because he objected to the arrest of a white man by a negro policeman and led a number of men in an attack upon the officer, Edward Smith, a teamster, was shot and killed by Policeman Mitchell Parker at West Madison and Aberdeen streets to-night.
Parker had attempted to arrest Thomas Quigley, driver of an ice wagon, who had broken down a barrier erected before some freshly laid asphalt pavement and started his team across the street. The foreman in charge of the work appealed to Parker, and the officer pulled Quigley from the wagon, declaring him under arrest.
Quigley attacked Parker, and at the same time called on several other teamsters for help. Led by Smith, several men attacked the policeman, who was knocked down and kicked. Quigley broke away and ran, but Smith and his companions continued to beat the policeman, who drew his revolver and fired two shots at Smith. The shots took effect, Smith dying instantly. Parker is held pending the coroner's investigation.

GROVER CLEVELAND DEAD.

EX-PRESIDENT PASSED AWAY SUDDENLY AT PRINCETON.

He Had Been in Bad Health for Several Months But Not Considered as Serious.

Princeton, N. J., June 24.—Ex-President Grover Cleveland died suddenly at his home here at 8:40 this morning. While his death was unexpected, he had been ill for a number of weeks and his condition was weakened. Only yesterday Dr. Joseph T. Bryant, of New York, paid a visit to Mr. Cleveland's home but the information was subsequently given out that the visit was not occasioned by alarming condition of the former president.
Ex-President Cleveland had been invited to attend the conference of governors at Washington, but was too ill to be present. Through all the long fight for health, the one bright spot in the battle against disease has been the devotion and untiring attention of Mrs. Cleveland. She was constantly at her husband's bedside and no fatigue was too great if it alleviated the suffering of her husband.
At once after her husband's death Mrs. Cleveland collapsed. It marked the end of a terrible struggle, which had been waged for years in the interest of her husband's health. However, the wife rallied.
Dr. Bryant, who has been the Cleveland family physician for years, issued an official statement to-day in which he said:
"For many years Mr. Cleveland has been a sufferer from gastro-intestinal troubles, complicated with liver and kidney complaint. The cause of his death to-day was heart failure complicated with liver troubles."
Before noon today messages began to pour in expressing sorrow over the death of Mr. Cleveland. Among the first received were from President Roosevelt, at Oyster Bay, and Secretary W. H. Taft, at New Haven. All through his illness Mr. Cleveland's mail was filled with letters expressing sympathy and wishing him a speedy recovery.
Among the chief events in the life of Grover Cleveland none will be so well remembered as the repeal of the Sherman silver purchase act, which forced the government to buy a certain amount of silver monthly. He attributed the panic of 1893 to the measure and immediately did away with it.
In 1893 he delivered his famous Venezuelan message and caused England to stop encroaching on the territory of that country.
He took the position that the Monroe doctrine made the United States supreme in the Western Hemisphere. In both of his elections to the presidency he opposed thousands of Democrats who were for the free coinage of silver.
He was elected mayor of Buffalo, and his record was such he received the nomination for governor. He made a record here, too, which led to his nomination for the Presidency.

Praise from Sir Hubert.

The Bamberg Guards Win.

The following is taken from the Charleston Sunday News of June 21:
"AT Battery Jasper yesterday there were three companies engaged in the firing of the 10-inch rifle battery, installed at that fortification, and the rivalry between the men was very intense. The different positions in the work of aiming and firing these large weapons of war were entirely in the hands of the militia, and some splendid records were made. It will be very gratifying to the many friends of the Bamberg Guards, which is known on the roster of the National Guard as Company I, 3d South Carolina infantry, that the men of this splendid command won the contests by a very fine score. The members of this organization, which by the way, is on the island for the first time, having only lately been assigned to the 3d regiment, carried off the honors in all three of the contests held. The best time made by the militia commands was one minute and forty-five seconds, and this was done by the outfit from Bamberg. The company came to the encampment with one of the largest complements in either of the regiments, there being fifty-five men on the rolls. Capt. John F. Folk is commander of the organization, and First Lieut Frank Bamberg, a graduate of Clemson, is one of the officers."

Shot His Wife While Drunk.

DOUGLAS, GA., June 29.—Dennis Paulk, Jr., who is highly connected in Coffee and Berren counties, is in jail here, while his wife lies fatally wounded by her husband. Paulk came home Saturday night under the influence of drink and aimed his gun at a negro servant. His wife said: "Dennis, don't do that," when he turned the gun on her, saying "I will kill you, then," and fired the whole load of shot into her breast. Paulk eight years ago killed a friend, named Floyd, and was later pardoned out of the penitentiary. He is believed to be crazy.

Could Show Him a Stall.

"Where is the man who runs this livery stable?" asked a large, flashy man, in a tone of voice that was decidedly offensive to the boy in charge.
"He isn't in, sir, just now," replied the lad, "but if you are very hungry I can show you to a stall."
