Brief Items of Interest Throughout the Town and County.

See the new ad. of the Carlisle Fitting School in this issue.

Mr. J. C. Folk, Jr., announces his withdrawal from the race for Sheriff in this issue.

Use Insect-I-Cide for bed bugs, fleas, moths, roaches, and chicken lice. Sold at Peoples Drug Co.

The Misses Hiers, of Atlanta, after having spent some days with relatives in Colleton county, are now visiting their cousin, Miss Arrie Hiers, of our city.

We regret not being able to attend the county campaign meeting at Denmark to-day, but it was impossible.

Dr. Geo. F. Hair asks us to notify the public that he will be out of his office from the 18th to the 26th of this month. He will visit his farm on Young's Island.

See Klauber's half page ad. He will have a great sale, commencing Wednesday, July 22nd, and continuing until August 1st. Note the prices quoted in his ad.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Home Mission Society will be held next Tuesday afternoon, in the ladies parlor of the Methodist church, at 5:30 o'clock.

The first county campaign is to be held at Denmark to-day (Wednesday.) No doubt a good crowd of the voters will be present. The entries of candidates closed Tuesday.

The editor of this paper has been sick since last Thursday morning. While he has been up most of the time, he was in no condition to get up editorials or news matter.

If a newspaper had to depend on the merchants of Bamberg for a living, it would have a pretty hard time. The town never will do the business it ought to until our merchants learn to advertise.

The motor for our big newspaper press has arrived at last, and we will move the press to our new building the latter part of this week. Unless something prevents this will be the last issue printed in the old building.

Mayor Hair wishes through The Bamberg Herald to notify those who have been shooting pistols on the streets of the town that his next fine for the offense will be $25.00, and in case the offense is repeated the fine will be $50.

Mr. J. Belton Watson, of Anderson, was in the city last Thursday and made an address to a small crowd in the court house in the interest of the Farmers' Union. He merely explained the purpose of the organization, and did not attempt to organize a union in this county.

Use Insect-I-Cide for bed bugs, fleas, moths, roaches, and chicken lice. Sold at Peoples Drug Co.

On Monday afternoon about three o'clock the whole town was alarmed and set in motion by the cry of fire. The fire was caused by a defect in the flue in the kitchen of Mr. J. O. Patterson, Jr. No serious damage was done, however, as all was over when the crowd and the fire engine arrived on the scene.—Barnwell Sentinel.

A summer school for the colored teachers of Bamberg county will be held in this city, commencing next Monday morning, the 20th, and continuing until the 31st of the month. G. W. Moore will be in charge of the school, and the sessions will be in the colored graded school building. He urges the colored teachers of the county to attend.

Use Insect-I-Cide for bed bugs, fleas, moths, roaches, and chicken lice. Sold at Peoples Drug Co.

Rev. R. A. Yongue requests us to state that the third quarterly conference will be had at Mizpah church on Saturday, July 18th. Preaching also on Sunday at 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. Dinner on the ground. The protracted meeting will begin on Sunday. Revs. C. B. Smith and G. W. Davis will do the preaching. Mr. Yongue writes that he is returning from Glenn Springs much improved in health.

Go to Chicago.

J. F. Carter, Esq., left last Saturday morning for Chicago, where he goes to take a special law course in the University of Chicago. He will be away about seven weeks. Mr. Carter's brother will be in charge of his office while he is away, and will be in close communication with him and all business will be promptly attended to. Mr. Carter went by way of New York.

Annual Reunion.

The annual reunion of Co. G, 1st S. C. V., will take place again on the 30th of July, 1908, at Bethesda church. Everybody is cordially invited to attend with well filled baskets, especially all old Confederate veterans are expected to attend. Distinguished speakers have been invited to speak on the occasion. The same committees that served last year are expected to serve this year again. Let us have a full attendance.

TWO NEGROES KILLED.

Slayers Were Negroes, and There Was a Woman in Each Case.

Last Saturday night Albert Curry shot and killed Henry Orr, both negroes. The killing occurred over a woman and took place on the outskirts of town not very far from where Andrew Bennett lives. There was very little of a quarrel between them.

All the trouble arose it seems over a woman named Queenie Barnes, although both men had wives. Orr it appears had gotten the woman and started out of town towards his home, he and Curry both living on the plantation of Capt. W. A. Riley at Cedar Springs. Curry followed and caught up with them at the point where the shooting occurred. Few words passed between the men, but Orr told Curry not to shoot him as he was not armed. It seems that Curry fired without cause, the bullet taking effect in Orr's body, causing his death next day. Curry has been arrested and is in jail.

Some time Saturday night a negro named Abram Williams was killed on the plantation of Jones A. Williams a few miles above town, his slayer being a negro named Cape Kearsa. Williams it seems had not been living with his wife for some time, but had been staying at Woodford. He came home Saturday night and found Kearsa there, lying on a pallet asleep. Williams woke Kearsa up and asked what he was doing there, as he didn't allow negroes to be staying at his house, when Kearsa raised up from the bed with a pistol in his hand and fired one shot, the bullet striking Williams in the heart and killing him instantly. Kearsa was also arrested and is now in jail. From the accounts we have been able to get of these affairs it looks like there will be a couple of hangings in this county after the fall term of court.

News from the Mill Chapel.

For some time the children of our Sunday-school have been looking forward to the 4th of July and Saturday all their anticipations were realized, for we had a beautiful day, perfect order, and everybody from the president and superintendent down to the smallest children seemed to thoroughly enjoy themselves. At 8 o'clock we assembled at the church from which the carriages and bugles carried us out to "Old Edisto."

As for good things to eat, listen, there was plenty of everything. In addition to the good things, there was plenty of fried fish, red horse bread etc. Mr. Fred Vouga, our cook, had experience in the army and still has the art of getting up a good meal. About 225 gathered around the table and feasted on the good things there, after which the children played their simple games while the old people looked on. There was swimming, boat racing, and high diving from the river bridge ten feet above the water, and various other amusements. Much of the credit for the good order and pleasure of the occasion are due our pastor, Rev. S. W. Danner, and our Sunday-school superintendent. Never before have we experienced a more pleasant day and enjoyed more brotherly love and friendship.

The Orangeburg mill ball team crossed bats with the Bamberg boys, the score being 15 to 8 in favor of Bamberg.

This morning our pastor went into the mill yard looking for the superintendent and found a man who said he was in trouble. He was in love with a girl whom he wished to marry, and asked him if he had the "tar" with him to stick them together. He was told to get the girl and they came to the office and there in the presence of the president and bookkeeper Mr. John Wilson and Miss Kate Wilkinson were in about two minutes made one. She changed the first part of her name but is still a "son."

Groom Bids Bride Goodbye and Goes to Prison for Ten Years.

Paris, June 9.—An extraordinary scene of a wedding where the bridegroom was married in handcuffs has been witnessed at St. Martin, Ile de Re.

Theophile Fray, aged thirty-four, had recently been caught in a daring burglary and sentenced to ten years' hard labor. His fiancée, Alexandrine Sadelman, aged nineteen, was heartbroken at the news and declared that nothing would induce her to give up her sweetheart.

She accordingly petitioned the authorities to allow the marriage to take place at once. Her request was granted and the prisoner was conducted by four detectives to the mairie, where his bride and her friends were awaiting him.

After the ceremony he bade her farewell for ten years, and was taken back to his cell, while the bride returned to her parents' home.

Suit Against Telegraph Co.

Des Moines, Ia., July 13.—The Western Union Telegraph company of New York, is made defendant in a suit for $900,000 brought against it by state of Iowa for alleged violation of the state laws in regard to foreign corporations. The petitions filed by Attorney General Byers consists of two counts.

The first count is for $100,000 for alleged failure to pay the customary fee on the capital stock of the corporation, and the second for $798,500 represents the penalty fixed by law for each day the company has been doing business in the state in purported violation of law.
