Election Notes.

There will be general rejoicing throughout the State that Niels Christensen, Jr., has been returned to the Senate from Beaufort. The whiskey element made strong efforts to defeat him, but he won out handsomely.

It was said that Blease would carry Bamberg and Orangeburg counties, but the returns tell a different tale. We never thought so, and stated that Ansel would carry Bamberg, for we know the good people of this section of the State and felt that they could be depended on to endorse the present governor.

The Herald asked Bamberg coun- paint is about $2.62 a gallon. ty voters to give Ansel and Thompson good majorities, and they did it. consumers. People won't pay $1.75 We are not so conceited as to think that our support of these gentlemen was the reason they carried the county so large, and our only reason sides, from $2 to $4 for painting in mentioning it is to thank our voters for their interest in the cause of good government.

In this county some good men were elected and some good men defeated, but they accept the verdict of the voters in good faith, and nobody is sore. This is as it should be, and we are glad to see such a spirit displayed by the defeated ones. Let us all hold up the hands of those elected, and give them our hearty support in all matters pertaining to the good of our county and its people.

Politics Causes Killing.

Walhalla, Aug. 26.—Logan Railey shot and killed "Little Bill" Thrift yesterday at Long Creek. Politics was under the influence of stimulants is said to have been the cause. There and narcotics taken to alleviate the was great excitement at Long Creek and Railey was hurried to jail. Both men are prominently connected. Railey is about 23 years of age and unmarried. Thrift leaves a widow and several small children. Thrift is well known throughout the county and every one deplores the trouble. The coroner, sheriff and several members of the bar left for Long Creek to-day.

Thanks, Voters.

I desire to extend my heartfelt thanks to the voters of Bamberg county for the flattering vote given me in the primary election on last Tuesday. I keenly appreciate the honor conferred upon me by the voters, and in return can only promise that I will endeavor to faithfully discharge the duties of the office and conduct the business in such manner as to merit the confidence reposed in me by the voters of the cir-Gratefully yours, cuit.

JAMES F. BYRNES.

Dear Sir: You may like to know what you pay for the paint in a gallon of "paint," assuming the purepaint part of all "paints" to be alike; which it isn't; and worth $1.75 a gallon.

Of a paint adulterated 10 per cent, the pure-paint part brings $1.94 a gallon. and baines 20 00 a mallen

The average adulteration of paint in this country is about one-third; so, you see, the average price the American people are paying for

It is a game of wits. Adulterators are always too sharp for the bulk of a gallon for paint. So they pay $2.62 a gallon for paint and something that looks like paint mixed with it. (They pay the painter, bethose useless gallons.) Why do they do it? They don't know Devoe.

Yours truly F. W. DEVOE & CO.

Mrs. Webb Convicted.

Chicago, Aug. 12 .- Mrs. Alice L. Webb, divorced wife of Brodie L. Duke, millionaire tobacco manufacturer, was to-day found guilty of defrauding the Great Northern hotel by passing a worthless check. Motion for a new trial was made and will be argued later. If not granted, sentence then will be passed by the court.

Garbed in black, Mrs. Webb was composed and expressed confidence that the verdict would be in her favor. Her plea that the check, which was for $50, was written while she pain of an attack of pleurisy, she believed would be sufficient to influence the jury to bring a verdict of acquit-

At the word "guilty" Mrs. Webb flushed and trembled, but only momentarily. She recovered quickly and was apparently perfectly composed while her lawyer, Alfred E. Case, made his motion for a new trial.

The extreme penalty of the crime of which Mrs. Webb was found guilty is a fine of $2,000 and imprisonment in the county jail for one year. Mrs. Webb was released under bond of $1,000.
