And it's all over—even the counting.

Will John Gary Evans move to make it unanimous?

The South Carolina Smiths evidently went to the polls last Tuesday.

Looks like they suspended the rules and elected Smith by acclamation.

Tillman and Smith—that will be a great pair in Washington, now won't it?

The disbarment of John T. Duncan should serve as a warning to over-zealous attorneys.

The next legislature ought to pass a statute forbidding John Gary Evans from wasting his money running for the United States Senate.

Over in the Georgia Senate a few days ago Senator Knight made a speech which cost the State one thousand dollars. He's no kin to us.

In its issue of last Tuesday morning the Spartanburg Herald said the race for United States Senator would be close. It was. Smith came close to getting all the votes.

No, Anxious Inquirer, "Gatling Gun" Smith is not one of the noiseless kind. He makes lot of fuss when he shoots, and you will no doubt hear reports from him when he gets to Washington.

Governor Ansel's course in the matter of granting pardons suits us admirably. He is slow to pardon men who have slain their fellow-man, and by his course he is making life safer in South Carolina.

There were a number of surprises in the primary of last week. One was the large number of votes polled, about 110,000, while the number of close races in the county contests was remarkable.

The address of Mr. C. C. Featherstone at the Methodist church in this city last Sunday morning was a very fine presentation of the prohibition question.

Barnard B. Evans, a brother of John Gary, ran for the legislature in Saluda county, and while he succeeded in getting into the second primary, he was defeated.

Sweet Revenge.

A man unaccustomed to anything at home was making the most of his opportunity in a large restaurant by sending the waiter back on the slightest pretext, by complaining of everything that was brought to him, and by "cussing" generally.

"How is that?" asked the man. "See this cup of tea, sah? Well sah," and the negro grinned from ear to ear. "I just done spit in it, sah!"—Ladies Home Journal.

FINAL FIGURES IN STATE

SMITH BEATS EVANS NEARLY TWO TO ONE.

Caughman Re-elected by a Small Majority—All Congressmen Re-elected.

UNITED STATES SENATOR.

Evans 39,657

Smith 69,318

SUPT. OF EDUCATION.

Mellichamp 48,219

Swearingen 61,288

RAILROAD COMMISSIONER.

Cansler 54,612

Caughman 55,409

With the largest vote ever polled in South Carolina, E. D. Smith gets the nomination of the Democratic party for the United States senate with a total of 69,318 over his opponent, John Gary Evans, who received 39,655.

The majority in round numbers is 30,000. This is the greatest landslide and most overwhelming defeat ever known in this State.

Mr. Jno. E. Swearingen gets the nomination for the position of State superintendent of education by 61,288 to 48,291 for his worthy opponent, Mr. Stiles R. Mellichamp, the majority being 12,999.

But the most exciting finish of all was that in the race for railroad commissioner. In this E. L. Caughman of Saluda was nominated by a majority of less than 800 out of 110,000 votes.

Wednesday, Mr. Caughman admitted his defeat. Thursday again he declared he was beaten when the heavy vote for Cansler came in from Greenville. It was known that a few votes were out in Greenville, but the vote for Cansler overwhelmed Caughman.

Finally there came another twist to the returns and Caughman went ahead again, there to stay with a final majority of 797 over his opponent.

Proctor A. Bonham 9,364

J. J. McSwain 8,154

TWELFTH CIRCUIT.

W. H. Wells 6,758

C. P. Quattlebaum 3,831

The final returns show that every congressman in South Carolina is nominated to succeed himself. Finley and Ellerbe have safe majorities.

There was a surprise in the last returns for solicitor: Stoll defeated McLaughlin by 130 votes. Cobb had an easy victory in the fifth circuit, and Wells was re-elected in the twelfth. All of the votes from the tenth circuit were not recorded, but Bonham's nomination over McSwain is sure.

OUR SPECIAL EDITION.

Some Compliments from Our Brethren of the Press.

The Carlisle Fitting School issue of The Bamberg Herald was as perfect and handsome a paper as was ever published in this State. Col. Knight is surely a master of the art preservative.—Barnwell People.

We congratulate Editor Knight, of the Bamberg Herald, on his special edition in the interest of Carlisle Fitting School. It was perfect in every way. And we believe that the press work is the best in the State.—Greenwood Journal.

We are in receipt of a special edition of the Bamberg Herald. This was gotten up in the interest of the Carlisle Fitting School, and in addition to the excellence of the articles contained it is one of the most artistic specimens of the printer's art we have seen.—Branchville Journal.

The Bamberg Herald issued a special edition last week devoted to the Carlisle Fitting School, and contains many cuts and information about the school. The edition is neatly printed and reflects much credit upon the genial editor, Mr. A. W. Knight, and the hustling town of Bamberg.—Dorchester Eagle.

We are in receipt of the educational number of the Bamberg Herald, a special issue of September 5, given to the Carlisle Fitting School of Wofford College, located at Bamberg. This is one of the neatest educational numbers we have ever seen of any paper. In point of mechanical get-up it is one of the best we have ever seen. Brother Knight is a master mechanic in a print-shop, and it is evidenced in the paper he issued Saturday.—Walterboro Press and Standard.

The special edition of the Bamberg Herald which came to us last week was an artistic stroke of enterprise on the part of that excellent paper. It contained among other good reading matter an excellent write-up of the Carlisle Fitting School located at Bamberg, and it should be a splendid advertisement not only for the school but for the splendid town where it is situated. Editor Knight, by the way, is getting out one of the most creditable weekly newspapers in the State and it is to be hoped that the business men of that progressive town realize the importance of such a good paper and will give him the patronage he deserves.—Anderson Intelligencer.

Insect's Bite Fatal.

Spartanburg, Sept. 11.—W. I. Harris, a prominent citizen, died to-day after an illness of several weeks. He was a candidate for register mesne conveyance, and while in the campaign in July was bitten on the leg by a spider or some other poisonous insect. Blood poisoning developed, which resulted in his death this evening. For many years Mr. Harris was a well-known merchant and enjoyed the confidence and esteem of hundreds of citizens. He was president of the Fairmont Cotton Mills until a few years ago.

CONRAD EHRHARDT DEAD.

Prominent Citizen of Bamberg County Called to His Reward.

Bamberg, Sept. 14.—Conrad Ehrhardt, one of the most prominent citizens of Bamberg county, died at his home in Ehrhardt yesterday morning, the summons coming suddenly and unexpectedly.

He was 76 years old, having been born in Germany, December 13, 1832.

When quite a young man he came to America and located in what was then known as Parnwell county, (now Bamberg,) and by honesty and industry began at once to build up a name and a fortune for himself. In both of these undertakings he has been eminently successful, being at the time of his death one of the wealthiest as well as one of the most influential citizens of the county.

Though he never sought office of political preferment of any kind, he was called upon to serve old Barnwell county for four years as a county commissioner and one term as county treasurer. In both of these positions he measured up fully to the responsibilities of the offices, but could never be induced to offer for any position of honor or trust again, except to serve as mayor of Ehrhardt, a town which he founded and of which he has always been recognized as the father and the leader.

He was devoted to his business, but always found time to attend the religious services of his church, and perform any duties that is imposed upon him. He was a devoted member of Mount Pleasant Lutheran church, and has been one of its official members and chief supporters for more than a half a century. In its beautiful little cemetery, near by, his body was laid to rest to-day, and many hearts will be filled with sorrow over the departure of this truly good man.

He is survived by his devoted wife, to whom he was married 56 years ago, three sons and one daughter. His sons, Charlie, Jacob, and Henry, reside at Ehrhardt, and his daughter, Mrs. Jno. F. Folk, lives in this city.

Many Wounded in Family Row.

Columbus, Ga., Sept. 8.—A bloody fight was waged at the home of John Brown, in Girard, Ala., in which three persons, one a woman, were seriously hurt and a number of others severely bruised.

The fight, which was a family row, started as a result of the efforts of Mrs. Clegg, a neighbor of the Brown family, to make her husband return home.

Clegg and Brown were said to be drinking at the time.

The fight shows the following results: John Brown has a broken leg, a tomahawked head, a slashed arm and a cut side; Jim Clegg, his brother-in-law, is spitting blood; Mrs. Clegg is blue with bruises, and other members of the Brown family are nursing ailments.

When she went for her husband, Mrs. Clegg says Brown insisted on his having another drink. She opposed, and Mrs. Brown also urged her husband to let Clegg go home.

Brown then, it is claimed, threw his wife off the porch, then pushed his daughter off and struck his mother-in-law.

Clegg and wife started home and the latter says Brown followed them, striking her with a buggy whip, finally seizing her hair, jerking her to the ground and pommeling her with a brick.

In the meantime Clegg cut Brown's arm and also stabbed him in the side.

After Clegg and his wife got home they heard Brown coming and barricaded the door. Mrs. Clegg says that Brown tore a picket off the chicken house, broke down the door and bursting into their room, beat her with the plank until she was blinded by the blood that streamed down.

In the meantime Clegg got a hatchet and struck Brown in the head, but without disabling him.

A neighbor came in, separated the two men and pushed Brown down on a bed. When Brown arose he slipped and, falling down, broke his leg.

The plank which Mrs. Clegg says Brown hit her with has a long nail on the end.

Mrs. Brown, the first person to be injured in the series of accidents, is Clegg's sister.

Indicted on Arson Charge.

New Orleans, September 9.—Julius Lipps, manager; Abe Wolfe, secretary and treasurer of the Central Glass company of New Orleans, and John Eckert, an employee of that company, were to-night indicted by the grand jury on the charge of arson in connection with a fire which about 10 days ago burned a portion of three blocks in the business section of New Orleans, causing a loss of $1,500,000. The fire originated in the building occupied by the Central Glass company.

The fact that the fire began when it was generally known throughout the city that only half crews were on duty at the engine and truck houses on account of the firemen's annual picnic, together with evidence that the fire alarm wires had been tampered with, led to an immediate investigation, which terminated to-night in the grand jury room.

The bonds of Wolfe and Lipps were fixed at $5,000 each. Eckert's bond was made $250.

Two little bootblacks who were in the neighborhood just before the fire started were supposed to be the star witnesses before the grand jury, but the nature of their testimony could not be learned.

A Missouri newspaper proprietor quickened the memories of his subscribers in the following manner: "All persons knowing themselves indebted to this office are requested to call and settle. All those indebted to this office and not knowing it are requested to call and find out. Those knowing themselves indebted and not wishing to call are requested to stay at one place long enough for us to catch them!"

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO.

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

Mrs. J. Q. Adams, N. Main Street, Bamberg, S. C., says: "I have been using Doan's Kidney Pills for several weeks and can say that nothing I ever tried has given me as much relief as this remedy. I have suffered from kidney trouble for the past three years. There was always a dull pain across the small of my back and at times I felt very dizzy. The kidney secretions were very irregular in action and caused me added annoyance. Upon hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills, I sent to the People's Drug Store and procured a supply. The contents of three boxes have helped me so much that I am going to continue their use, knowing that they will not fail to cure me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
