"Night Riders" Taken as Joke.

Anderson, Sept. 29.—The gin house of Caleb Pruitt in Varenness was placarded last night with a "cease operations" sign signed "Night Riders." The placard was first seen by a negro employed at the gin as he was entering the gin house to start the machinery early this morning. The discovery was reported to Mr. Pruitt, who ordered the machinery to be commenced and the gin ran without interruption throughout the day. The placard admonished Mr. Pruitt to cease operation at once or suffer his gin being burned. Mr. Pruitt attaches no significance to the threat. He fears no attempt to burn his gin on the part of any one and he intends to keep his plant in operation. Mr. Pruitt is one of Anderson county's best citizens. The best people in the county are not the least bit worried over the "Night Riders" business. The notice on Mr. Pruitt's ginny contained misspelled words and those who have seen it have ridiculed the whole affair.

Cotton Crop Short.

Atlanta, Sept. 29.—"The cotton crop of Georgia will be the shortest in years," said Commissioner of Agriculture Hudson today. "A conservative estimate of the total yield is 1,300,000, as against 2,100,000 bales last year." According to Commissioner Hudson's statement the decrease for the year will be 800,000 bales.

POSTMASTER SHOOTS INSPECTOR

Was Short in His Accounts Several Hundred Dollars.

Postoffice Inspector Charles Fitzgerald, of Jackson, Miss., was shot on Tuesday by W. A. Sorsby, clerk in the Clinton postoffice, dying that night. Fitzgerald had been to Clinton two days, checking up that office, of which Mrs. Cabaniss is postmaster. Sorsby married her daughter and has been running the office. Fitzgerald is said to have checked him up short several hundred dollars and had started back to his home in Jackson. While on way to the train Sorsby suddenly appeared before him, stuck a pistol to his side and fired before his victim could raise his hand.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
