DYNAMITE EXPLOSION

Magazine of Mine Blows Up With Terrific Shock.

Gadsden, Ala., Oct. 28.—One man dead, one missing, one dying and four injured are some of the results of a dynamite explosion at the Hammond mine near the business section of the city early to-night. The dead: Henry Kell, Rome, Ga. Missing: Arthur Hood. Fatally injured: Jake Logan, member Gadsden fire department. Seriously injured: McFarrell and Gus Woodliff, chief of the fire department.

So terrific was the explosion that almost every plate glass front in Gadsden was broken. Twenty-four miners' houses in the vicinity of the explosion were leveled to the ground, and many others are damaged.

The fire department, with 40 men, had responded to an alarm, a house being on fire near the mine magazine. Hundreds of spectators were standing near when the explosion suddenly occurred, and every one within a wide radius was hurled to the ground. A stone was blown entirely through the body of Kell, and no trace can be found of Hood. Miners had been drawing explosives from the magazine to-day, but no one seems able to account for the explosion. A number of women and children standing in the vicinity of the fire were more or less injured, but were carried home, and their names can not be procured to-night.

Fire in Factory Village.

Spartanburg, Oct. 28.—At an early hour this morning fire destroyed the stores and stocks of goods of J. G. Griffin & Sons and J. H. Stone in the Spartan mill village, entailing a loss of over $6,000. The meat market of Hall & Hammett and a barber shop in the same building with Griffin & Sons were destroyed also. The store occupied by Griffin and Sons was owned by Johnson & Lankford. It was valued at $3,000 and was not insured.

Griffin & Sons carried $3,000 insurance on their stock, but their loss was over $3,000. Mr. Stone carried $600 insurance on his building and $1,350 on his stock of goods. The cause of the fire is unknown.

The alarm was sent in at 4:30 o'clock. The flames had too much start and though the firemen fought hard they could not save the building.

May Have to Pay License.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 29.—Confed-ate veterans may be forced after all to pay a tax for selling "near beer" in Georgia towns. A few days ago it was announced that the veterans would escape the municipal licenses, but to-day Attorney General Hart said that the State license tax could not be remitted. The license is $200.

BEFORE JUDGE BRAWLEY.

R. Y. Hellams and J. C. Payne Charged with Contempt.

Greenville, Oct. 29.—R. Y. Hellams of this city and J. E. Payne, a well known liquor dealer of Salisbury, N. C., were ruled before Judge W. H. Brawley in the United States district court to-day to show cause why they should not be attached and punished for contempt of the court. The incident which led to the issuance of the rule resulted from a suit by Miller & Co. of New York against Hellams and Payne for money alleged to be due on transactions made when Hellams and Payne conducted a cotton exchange in this city. Ex-Judge W. C. Benet was an attorney for the plaintiffs and F. B. Alexander a witness. As they were coming from court room, it is said, Hellams and Payne met them and abused them, telling Alexander that he had sworn to a lie and using insulting language toward Judge Benet.

Judge Brawley dismissed the rule against Payne and took the case against Hellams under advisement.

All of the parties are well known and the case has attracted a great deal of attention.

Will Probably Go Free.

Greenwood, Oct. 29.—The negroes arrested some weeks ago in connection with the "Ninety-Six affair," being charged with conspiracy against certain white citizens of Ninety-Six, will not be tried at this term of the Court of General Sessions. In fact they will probably never be brought to trial. They were released a short time ago on bond, but these bonds have been cancelled, and they are now out on their own recognizance. The negro preacher, the Rev. "Johnny" Dean, who was the cause of the muss, is still in jail, and will probably have to remain there until next March anyway.

Too Many Dogs.

"Can a married man have a dozen or more dogs about his residence, to the annoyance of his wife?" This was answered indirectly by Judge Brent, in Chicago when he refused a decree of divorce to Mrs. M. Sharp from her husband, Harry G. Sharp, an electrician. The first act of cruelty related by the witness occurred on July 14, 1907, when they were returning from a trip across the lake. Counsel for Mrs. Sharp then began to bring out evidence concerning the dogs.
"He had visitors in four hours to talk about dogs. He never found time to talk to me affectionately. For a time after we were married he kissed me as mechanically as he swallowed, but he was careful of his dogs."

Dealt in White Slaves.

New York, Oct. 30.—Following revelations before Magistrate Crane that hundreds of New York girls have been lured from their homes by an organization that made white slaves out of them, evidence was placed in the hands of the police to-day to the effect that a prominent politician was connected with the organization. The name of the politician has been given to the police and is asserted to-day that he would be arrested as soon as the evidence against him had been completed. The organization which has been dealing in young girls acted as a sort of clearing house for children, who were sold not only in New York, but to other states, as well.

Men prominent in politics and financial circles knew of the existence of these "clearing houses." This was shown before Magistrate Crane in the Yorkville police court, when four women were arraigned by Agent Pisara, of the Children's Society, charged with abduction.

Frances Collins and Martha Collins, seventeen years of age, who are not related, appeared as complainants against the women, who were Frances Taylor and her sister, Mrs. Mary Duncan, Mary Dale and Margaret Sheppard. Frances Taylor and her sister are alleged to have had charge of the "clearing house." In their possession were found the cards of a number of prominent men. One of these is a multi-millionaire, who spends at least six months of the year in his palatial villa in Paris.

Francis Collins, who is not related to Martha, told the magistrate that she ran away from home because of some trouble with her brother. She met Martha Collins, who took her to the home of the Taylor woman.

The girls spent the night in the house, she said, and on the following day, Frances was sent to a Mrs. Keenan in West Sixth street, in which place she said she became a white slave. Martha Collins told a story similar to that of Frances.
"This is the greatest scandal that has ever come before me," said Magistrate Crane.
The women are held.

Killed by Negro Boy.

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 28.—While sitting in a rear room of her home at Pooler, 10 miles from Savannah, to-day Mrs. W. E. Torrence, wife of an engineer, was fired on and instantly killed by Solomon Riley, a negro boy. The boy was arrested.
This afternoon a party of 30 men, bent upon lynching the negro, left Savannah by train for Pooler. Arriving there, however, the crowd found that the negro had been brought to Savannah by Deputy Sheriff R. W. Wescott. The officer had concealed the boy beneath a lap robe and driven into the city in a buggy. Riley is in jail here.

Will Fight Night Riders.

Muskogee, Okla., Oct. 29.—The Texas and Oklahoma Horse Thief association, organized to prevent the stealing of live stock, in convention to-day adopted a resolution pledging its 1,000 members to assist in the arrest and prosecution of night riders. It also decided to memorialize President Roosevelt to stop the shipping of liquors into this State by Missouri and Texas. The officers say that they have information that liquor is shipped into the State to a boy and girl 12 and 14 years old.

CAN'T BE SEPARATED

Some Bamberg People Have Learned How to Get Rid of Both.

Backache and kidney ache are twin brothers.
You can't separate them.
And you can't get rid of the backache until you cure the kidney ache.
If the kidneys are well and strong, the rest of the system is pretty sure to be in vigorous health.
Doan's Kidney Pills makes strong, healthy kidneys.

J. H. Pearson, 62 Sellers St., Orangeburg, S. C., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills several years ago with such good results that I publicly recommended them. At this time I am pleased to say that I still hold the same opinion of them as I believe that they are the best kidney remedy to be had."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
