

FOR LIVE STOCK & VEHICLES

YOU WANT TO SEE G. FRANK BAMBERG. HE HAS BEEN IN BUSINESS HERE FOR MORE THAN FIFTEEN YEARS, AND DURING THAT TIME HAS DEALT WITH PEOPLE ALL OVER BAMBERG, COLLETON, BARNWELL, ORANGEBURG AND DORCHESTER COUNTIES. IN ALL THIS TIME HE HAS NEVER FAILED TO SATISFY EVERY CUSTOMER, AND TO-DAY EVERY ONE WHO HAS EVER DEALT WITH HIM IS A PLEASED CUSTOMER. THERE IS A REASON FOR THIS, IN FACT SEVERAL REASONS. THE FIRST IS.....

HIS GUARANTEE MEANS SOMETHING

When Bamberg guarantees a horse or mule or vehicle, you can rest assured that if it does not turn out right all you have to do is to let him know. He does not handle any cheap vehicles like you buy from the mail order houses, but he carries the best goods obtainable, all built by reliable factories who have a reputation to sustain. You run absolutely no risk in buying from him, for he stands back of every article he sells. Then too, you get.....

THE LARGEST STOCK IN THIS SECTION

to select from. He carries on hand in his large sales rooms more vehicles than most dealers handle in an entire year, and by buying in large lots, for spot cash, he gets the very best prices. Therefore he can and will save you money. Bamberg is known far and near as the largest live stock and vehicle dealer in the lower part of the State, and if you want to see a swell line of BUGGIES, CARRIAGES, WAGONS, LAP ROBES, HARNESS, WHIPS, ETC., come to see him. He will treat you right as to prices and terms, and every article he sells must be as represented. He also has a lot of fine HORSES and MULES on hand, and can suit you in an animal for any purpose.....

Klauber's Big Sale a Success.

Klauber's annual clearance sale opened up this (Wednesday) morning at 9 o'clock, and all day long a large force of clerks have been as busy as bees supplying crowds of eager buyers with goods at unheard of prices. The store was crowded from the opening hour to its capacity, many people coming from a distance of twenty to twenty-five miles to buy their winter supplies at the special prices. This sale of Klauber's bids fair to be the greatest merchandising success of Bamberg's mercantile world, for it is an assured fact that a choice selection of the latest and most up-to-date goods at such prices as he is quoting will act as a magnet in drawing the public to his store. Remember the sale lasts nineteen days longer, and if you want bargains now is the time to buy.

EX-SENATOR CARMACK KILLED.

Shot by Robin Cooper on Account of Politics.

Nashville, Tenn., November 9.—Former United States Senator Edward Carmack, editor of the Tennessean, was shot and killed this afternoon on Seventh avenue, north, in front of the Polk flats, by Robin Cooper, a son of Col. Duncan C. Cooper. Mr. Carmack was going north in Seventh avenue, and Col. Cooper and his son were approaching Seventh avenue in Union street. Soon after they came in sight of one another the shooting began. Robin Cooper, it is said, fired two shots and Senator Carmack one. Col. Duncan Cooper, it is said, drew a pistol, but did not shoot.

Senator Carmack fell to the ground, dying instantly. Robin Cooper was shot in the right shoulder but was not severely hurt.

It is said that the trouble is one of the results of the recent gubernatorial primary, in which Carmack was defeated. Carmack had, since he became editor of The Tennessean, been rather caustic in adversely criticizing what he called the Democratic machine and had printed several editorials about Col. Cooper.

Within the last few days, it is said, Col. Cooper told Carmack that these editorial criticisms must cease. This morning another editorial reference to Col. Cooper appeared in The Tennessean, and this is supposed to have been the immediate cause of the trouble.

As soon as Senator Carmack fell on the edge of the street curbing, Col. Cooper put his arm around Robin Cooper, and both walked a few feet down Seventh avenue to Dr. R. G. Fort's office, where the slight wound in Robin's shoulder was treated.

An ambulance carried the body of Mr. Carmack to an undertaking establishment. The pistol of Mr. Carmack was found lying at his side with two chambers empty and it was turned over to an officer.

Young Cooper was later carried to a hospital, and Col. Cooper is held at police headquarters. Robin Cooper is an attorney and unmarried. He is 27 years old.

Dr. McPheeters Glasgow, who arrived at the scene soon after the tragedy occurred, said to-night: "I found the body of Mr. Carmack lying on the right side of Seventh avenue, as one walks to Church street from Union street. He was lying north with his right arm under his head. His pistol was lying just out of the reach of his right hand and the weapon was pointing south. An evening paper was lying just out of his left hand which held the stump of a cigar, which was crushed. I immediately summoned an ambulance and had the body carried to the undertaking establishment of Finley M. Dorris. The body was without signs of life when found by me and appeared to have been so for about five minutes."

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Ehrhardt Banking Co., held Thursday, November 5th, 1908, the following resolutions were passed:

Whereas, God in his infinite wisdom has deemed it best to remove from our midst our brother and friend, Conrad Ehrhardt, thus depriving us of a loyal supporter and a faithful worker of this institution; therefore be it resolved:

1st. That we bow in humble submission to the will of God and acknowledge the wisdom of his infinite power.

2nd. That we set aside a page in our minute book, and inscribe a copy of same thereon.

3rd. That we sympathize with the family in this their great sorrow, and that a copy of the resolutions be sent them, and also published in The Bamberg Herald.
