The State could gain more of a reputation for fairness had it not based its comments on the Hughes verdict on the testimony of the defense, ignoring entirely the State's side of the case.

The Columbia State has been having a good deal to say about juries failing to convict white men of crimes, which is well, but it grows hysterical when a mean negro is convicted of killing a white man. Queer consistency!

The Bamberg county law and order league, which was organized some time ago, will no doubt find some work to do now that the dispensariies have been closed. Is prohibition to be a force or a farce in Bamberg county? The answer to this question is with the officers of the law Chester Kennedy, whose appeal is now before the court, testified at the to the world that prohibition will prohibit. We can do so if we will.

THE MEN OF ILLINOIS.

We confess that we have a better opinion of the men of Illinois now than we had before they lynched the negro who outraged and murdered the young saleswoman at Cairo. It may not be right; in fact it is not right in the eyes of the law, and we are always a stickler for law; but we do like the since his graduation from the naval Illinoisians who killed the brute better for it. We are not defending them. Perhaps they ought not to have done it, and ought to have let the law "take its course;" but they didn't, and we think more of them because That's just the way we feel about it; and no doubt many thousand men and women feel the same way.-Newberry Observer.

We are a little surprised but none the less pleased to have the above expression from the editor of the Observer. Every white man who is the right sort of man thinks of the lynching just as Editor Wallace.

CHESTER KENNEDY APPEALS.

Supreme Court Asked to Review Case of Barnwell County Murderer.

History of the Case.

At the spring term of court in Barnwell Quitman Johnson and Fermurder of Ussery and a verdict of guilty was rendered, Grubbs being recommended to mercy. A motion for a new trial was made by their counsel, A. H. Ninestein, and Judge Watts, then presiding, the solicitor consenting, ordered that the verdict be set aside and a new trial granted; whereupon the solicitor entered a noll pros upon the indictment and handed to the grand jury at the summer term the indictment upon which the defendants were later tried. When the case was called for trial at the July term, it is stated, the State moved to sever the case and try the defendant Kennedy first. This motion was granted. The jury failed to agree and a mistrial was ordered. The case was again called for trial and Kennedy was found guilty and sentenced to life imprisonment, having been recommended to the mercy of the court.

It is now claimed that the verdict was "influenced entirely by passion and prejudice, engendered by false and erroneous statements made and circulated outside of the trial of the cause" and that "there was an absolute failure of evidence to support the verdict of the jury; that the testimony of the alleged principals was entirely uncorroborated by other testimony, positive or circumstan-

BOY BANDITS ROB A BANK.

Got $800 Dollars After Shooting Fred of Bamberg. Starr, the Cashier.

At Eudora, Kansas, on Friday Earl Bullock, a boy bandit of Lawrence, Kan., accompanied by William Mc-Kay, 15 years old, of Jacksonville, ploit of a month ago, robbed the Eudora State bank of $800, after shooting Fred Starr, a banker, and later probably mortally wounded himself when closely pressed by armed citi-

Although Starr offered no resistance to the hold-up, Bullock shot him through the jaw. dinand Grubbs were tried upon an Snatching more than $800, Bullock indictment charging both with the and McKay fled. Each youth had two revolvers.

Wilson spread the alarm and citizens, armed with shotguns, rifles and revolvers, pursued the bandits across the fields. In attempting to swim the Kaw river the boys lost ground and a few minutes later the pursuers were at their heels.

McKay surrendered, but Bullock, wrenching the revolvers from his faltering partner's hands, sped on into the woods. John Miller, a farmer, who knew nothing about the pursuit, stepped into Bullock's path, and the boy thinking him a pursuer, fired several shots that barely missed Miller. Seeing that the youth was ready to shoot at any one, the pursuers fired a score of shots at Bullock, who returned the fire.

Thus the chase continued for some time, none of the shots taking effect. The hunted robber gradually losing ground, he stopped and shouted:

"I have only one bullet left, but I'll beat you yet." Then he fired his remaining bullet through his own head. Thinking Bullock dead most of the pursuers turned their attention to McKay with the intention of lynching him, some announced.

Officers, however, hurried McKay to the Lawrence jail in an automo-
