Black, Tatum, Towill and Boykin Democrats Will Support Martin's Make Demands.

ASK FOR TRIAL.

In Richland county court last Wednesday John Bell Towill, W. O. Tatum, John Black and L. W. Boykin, formerly directors of the South resolution offered by Senator Martin, Carolina State dispensary, demanded, of Virginia, on behalf of the Demothrough their attorneys, that the cratic steering committee providing cases now pending against them be for a reinvestigation of the bribery tried. with a number of other dispensary officials. John Black, one of the men demanding a trial, was convicted in Chester county on one count, but afterward granted a pardon by Cole L. Blease, governor of South Carolina.

Attorney General Lyon was out of the city Wednesday, and therefore a statement as to the reply that would be made could not be obtained. M: P. DeBruhl, assistant attorney general, could not say as to whether the case would be ready for trial at the next term of court. The attorney general is expected to return to the city before the week is over.

Bank Cashier Found Dead.

Charlotte, N. C., May 24.-R. M. Spruil, cashier of the Merchants' and Farmers' bank at Columbia, Tirrell county, and superintendent of the county schools, was found dead in the woods some distance from that town to-day, with a bullet in his brain. By his side was a note stating that two men whose names the authorities are withholding were responsible for his suicide and directing the disposition of his money and property. He had been dead for some time. Immediately search began for Spruil.

Gives Away Fortune.

Chicago, May 23 .- This week will see the complete retirement of Dr. D. K. Pearsons, the great Chicago philanthropist, who has finished giving away his millions. He has made the benefactions of Rockefeller, Carnegie and others look, in proportion, petty. While they only give a portion of their vast income, Dr. Pearsons has practically freed himself of his entire fortune, $6,000,000. Early this week he will go into retirement at the Holiday Sanitarium with only an income of $6,000 a year to supply his needs the remainder of his life. He was 91 years old April 14.

There is but one transaction that Dr. Pearsons has to close before he leaves. To-day, or by Wednesday at the least, he will put up his beautiful estate at Hinesdale at auction. The highest bidder will get the house and contents. Following this act, Dr. Pearsons will enter the sanitarium, and in the society of a few chosen friends will await the end of his career. Dr. Pearsons' health has been remarkably good, and he proposes to take the best care of himself and to be constantly under the scrutiny of physicians.

In the company of friends, reading, walking and watching the growth of the institutions he has founded or endowed, are to be his amusements. Dr. Pearsons characterizes the sum he has given to the colleges as his debts.

"When my house is sold," he declared, "and my last debt is paid, I shall have been my own executor, and shall have closed the estate entirely. There will be no dispute after I have gone; that is what I want to be sure of. I propose to get ahead of my friends, Rockefeller and Carnegie, and make provisions for a complete clean-up."

Lorimer Inquiry Plan.

Washington, May 25 .-- After four hours caucus to-day the Democratic senators voted 24 to 1 to support the tors Bailey, of Texas, and Martin, of New Jersey, featured the caucus.

Mr. Bailey contended that more than two-thirds of the caucus favored the Martin resolution and it was thus the duty of all Democratic senators to abide by that decision. Mr. Martine replied that while willing to compare his party record with the Texas senator's he was unwilling to be bound by a party caucus on a moral question. He said he understood that the meeting was a conference and not a caucus and he had no understanding that any binding action was to be taken.

Saying he would not bandy words regarding the character of his own Democracy as compared with that of another senator, Mr. Bailey insisted that senators were in duty bound to abide by the two-thirds decision of the caucus.

Mr. Martine replied as pointedly and the colloquy continued until Mr. Martine withdrew from the caucus relterating that he would not be bound by it on any except a political question.

Almost every other Democratic senator participated in the debate. It developed that the regular Republicans had practically agreed to abandon the Dillingham resolution in favor of the Martin measure and the provision as a matter of party discipline. The caucus supported the Martin resolution with the understanding that any senator should be free to offer and support amend-

It was expected that the question would come up in the open senate to-day, but it was crowded out by other questions. Senator La Follette expects to conclude his speech tomorrow and after one or two brief speeches in reply it is expected a vote will be taken. The prospect now is that the Martin resolution will be adopted without material amendment.

DIAZ RESIGNS.

Mexican Revolution is Finally Triumphant.

Mexico City, May 25 .- President Porfirio Diaz, in a letter read by the president of the chamber of deputies this afternoon, resigned the presidency of the republic of Mexico and at exactly 4:54 o'clock the acceptance of the renunciation by the deputies was announced. Every one had expected an uproar and demonstration when the announcement should be made, but within the chamber the words of the president announcing the event were followed by a dead silence. The deputies seemed awed by what had taken place. Streets leading to the hall were filled with people, and the news that Diaz was at last no more the president was the signal for the wildest shouting and manifestations. There was no violence nor destruction of property.

The motion was offered to accept the president's resignation. One hundred and sixty-seven deputies voted aye, while two of them did not express themselves. They were Benito Jaurez, a descendant of President Jaurez, and Conception Del Valle. As their names were called the legislators arose and bowed their affirmation.

In similar fashion the resignation of Vice President Ramon Corral, now in France, was unanimously accepted, and similarly Francisco Leon de la Barra, late ambassador to Washington, was chosen provisional president. The latter will take the oath of office at noon to-morrow in the yellow parlor of the national palace. NEGRO CUTS A WHITE MAN.

Grand Lodge Meets Next Year in Why Lynching Bees are Resorted to by the White People.

> Charles Henry McLamb, a worthy white farmer, was assaulted and almost fatally cut by Smith Boykin, a burly negro, in Clinton. Mr. Mc-Lamb had taken a seat in a chair on the side of the street where Boykin was delivering fertilizer and was ordered by the negro to get out of the chair.

After a few words the negro turned the chair over and drew his knife and cut McLamb twice, making two long wounds, penetrating to the abdominal cavity. The wounded man was taken to the office of Drs. Cooper and Holmes where surgical attention was given. It is believed the wounds will not prove fatal.

The negro was promptly arrested and lodged in jail to await the results of the injuries inflicted by him before a hearing is had in the case. It looked at one time as if summary measures would be resorted to by angry friends of the injured man, but the advice of cooler heads prevailed and the law will very likely be allowed to take its course.
