SHORT LOCALS.

Brief Items of Interest Throughout the Town and County.

The circus will be here next Tuesday.

Remember to mention The Herald when patronizing our advertisers.

The Southern trains from Charleston to Columbia came by Bamberg last Wednesday, on account of a wreck at St. Matthews.

We understand that there is a probability of a Lutheran church being erected in this city some time in the near future. We trust this is true.

Rev. J. H. Graves arrived in the city last Saturday night, and is conducting a revival meeting at the Methodist church this week, he assisting the pastor, Rev. W. H. Hodges.

It is no small undertaking to get out a sixteen page paper instead of an eight page, without extra help. But you may be sure that the entire office force from editor down to "devil" has spent no idle time this week.

The government building at Aiken is nearing completion, and it is expected that it will be ready for occupancy some time in December. Bamberg is the next town in the second district which should get a government building.

Our advertisers this week are too numerous to mention individually, but we hope our readers will remember them when buying goods. Those who use our columns have inducements to offer you, and will give you value for your dollar.

Mr. L. M. Ayer has bought the house and lot of Mr. George A. Jennings, corner Church and Elm streets, and will occupy same soon. Mr. Jennings has bought from Mr. Jno. H. Cope the cottage on Bridge street, now occupied by Mr. E. Dickinson.

Pastor W. H. Hodges calls attention to the revival services at the Methodist church this week, and cordially invites all the people to attend. Two services a day are held, one in the afternoon at four o'clock and in the evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. J. H. Graves is doing the preaching.

Miss Ruth Holman, of Orangeburg, who taught in the graded school in this city two years ago, will be married to Mr. H. O. Dawson this week. The ceremony will take place in St. Paul's Methodist church at Orangeburg. Mr. Dawson is agent for the Southern Express at that point.

The resignation of Rev. O. J. Frier as pastor of the Baptist church came as a great surprise to the people of Bamberg generally, and his many friends among all denominations regret very much that he will leave Bamberg. He has done a good work and his place will be hard to fill. He has not decided where he will locate.

We take pleasure in calling attention to the county fair of the negro farmers of this section, to be held November 15th. Those at the head of this enterprise are striving earnestly to develop their race along agricultural lines and to make better citizens of the negroes, and they should be encouraged in their efforts.

We just happened to ask last Saturday as to what the price of cotton was in Bamberg, and were told by one of the buyers on this market that some cotton had sold as high as 9 1/2 cents the pound, which is considerably more than the prices paid the same day at other markets in this section. Bamberg's market is way ahead of others.

Presiding Elder Chas. B. Smith preached at Trinity Methodist church in this city last Sunday night, and held the fourth quarterly conference for this charge Monday morning. This is his last official visit to Bamberg, as he has served the district the limit of four years and will be transferred at the approaching session of the annual conference.

The patrons of the electric light plant responded very nicely in regard to mailing checks or calling at the bank and paying their electric light bills. A few days latitude were given this month about cutting out lights when bills were not paid by the 10th, but next month lights will positively be cut out by the 10th if the bill is not paid by that date. The board will not put on a collector, as it is an unnecessary expense.

No, we are not going to have a county fair in Bamberg, but the beautiful Confederate monument is to be unveiled next Thursday, the 26th, and we expect visitors here from several counties. The occasion will be a great day for Bamberg and the old veterans, and everybody who comes will be made heartily welcome. Lay aside your business for this day and attend these exercises and assist in honoring the old heroes of the sixties.

Carter-Jenkins.

Married, Rev. T. G. Phillips officiating, on the 3rd instant at the residence of the bride's parents Miss Lydia Belle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Jenkins, of Kline, and J. F. Carter, Esq., of Bamberg.

The congratulation of a host of loving and honoring friends go to add to the happiness of these so deservedly popular young people. The fortunate groom is a gentleman of high character, fine promise of ripening professional distinction and most attractive personality. His bonny bride is one of Barnwell's loveliest daughters, rich in all the gifts and graces and culture and character and personal charm.—Barnwell People.

Souvenir for Veterans.

The Bamberg Banking Company has a lot of souvenirs for the old Confederate veterans who will be here next Thursday, the 26th, to attend the unveiling exercises of the Confederate monument. This souvenir is free, and the bank wants every veteran to have one. Call at the bank for it, and it will be given with great pleasure.

Our Birthday.

Sunday, the 29th day of this month, is the birthday of the editor of this newspaper, and we want every subscriber to The Herald to make us a birthday present in the shape of a renewal, or, if you are already paid far in advance, as a number are, send us a new subscription for a friend or neighbor. Never have we needed money more than recently, and it will help us materially if we could have several hundred renewals during the next week. We are not as young as we once were any more, but if we can be remembered in a substantial way by our subscribers, we shall not mind the fact that we are getting older.

Stores Will Close.

We, the undersigned merchants of the town of Bamberg, hereby agree to close our stores at 6:30 o'clock in the afternoon during this week, thereby giving all who may desire to do so, an opportunity to attend the special services at the Methodist church. The services commence at 7:30 o'clock, and this will give time enough for proprietors and employees to get supper and be present at the song service and revival service.

NOT CAUSED BY SMOKELESS.

"Maine" Explosion not Like that of Liberte," Bureau Says.

Washington, Oct. 17.—Positive announcement was made to-day, by the ordnance bureau of the navy department that the battleship Maine was not wrecked by the explosion of smokeless powder and that there was absolutely no ground for drawing a parallel between the cause of the destruction of the battleship and that of the Liberte, of the French navy. The report does not attempt to fix the actual cause of the explosion.

Baptist Church News and Notices. DIRECTORY.

NEWS AND NOTICES.

The Sunday-school attendance ran over a hundred Sunday morning, and the attendance was good at both morning and evening services. The pastor preached at both hours as usual.

Pastor Frier announced his resignation as pastor of the church Sunday morning. It came as a shock to many, and there were many expressions of regret after the service closed. The resignation will be acted on formally at conference next Sunday, and the date fixed when it shall finally go into effect. He has no place in view for future work at present.

There will be no prayer meeting service at our church this week on account of the special services at the Methodist church.

The Barnwell Baptist Association is in session at Ghent's Branch church this week, convening on Tuesday. Several delegates went from here.

The Sunbeam Band is preparing an interesting program for the fifth Sunday night.

Fourth Quarterly Conference.

The fourth quarterly conference of the Methodist churches in this city was held Monday morning at the office of Bamberg Banking Company, Presiding Elder Chas. B. Smith presiding. The various departments of church work were inquired into, and encouraging reports were made by the pastor, the treasurer, and the missionary societies.

G. O. Simmons, A. M. Brabham, and J. A. Murdaugh were added to the board of trustees, this board now being composed of the gentlemen named, with H. J. Brabham, D. F. Hooton, D. J. Delk, and W. M. Brabham.

The following were elected stewards: H. J. Brabham, J. A. Byrd, C. R. Brabham, Sr., W. D. Rhoad, C. R. Brabham, Jr., J. W. Stokes, F. M. Stubbs, H. F. Bamberg, Dr. J. J. Cleckley, and A. W. Knight, the last named being elected recording steward.

N. B. Adams and J. D. Sandifer were elected stewards for Southside church.

W. D. Rhoad was re-elected district steward.

The matter of a superintendent for Trinity Sunday-school, to succeed Mr. M. W. Brabham, who will leave Bamberg some time next month, was left open for the present.

Mr. J. Q. Adams was re-elected superintendent of the Sunday-school at Southside church.

The following officers of the Epworth League were confirmed: J. C. Guilds, president; D. L. Betts, 1st vice president; Miss Mary Livingston, 2nd vice president; Miss Eula Rowell, 3rd vice president; Miss Bessie Lee Black, 4th vice president; Miss Camille Price, secretary; Miss Alice Smoak, treasurer; Willie Hodges, Epworth Era agent.

Mr. H. J. Brabham, who has been chairman of the board of trustees and the board of stewards for a number of years, tendered his resignation on account of his health, and he was re-elected on both boards over his protest, he not being present at the meeting. Mr. Brabham will insist on retiring from both positions. He has done faithful work for a long time, and his colleagues hate to give him up.

Honor Roll Bamberg Graded School.

On account of an oversight on the part of the superintendent, the following names were left off of the honor roll published in last issue:

Lucile Hunter, Gussie Hutto, Samuel Rowell, Marian Simmons, Helen Free, Cassie Bell Sandifer, Robert Sandifer, Elbert Sandifer, Sallie Tyler, George Price, Natalie Hooton, Finckney Smoak, Francis Rice, Carey Graham, John Henry Adams, Theresa Fowler, Beulah Jennings, Clyde Sandifer, Ralph Richardson, Myrtle Black, Elizabeth Free, Aline Hutto, Clara McCue, Gladys McMillan, Thelma Morris, Carrie Simmons, Emile Smoak, Harriet Wiggins.

The Cotton Market.

Cotton is selling in Bamberg today (Wednesday) for 8 1/2 cents. Notwithstanding, the drop in the price of cotton, the bales keep coming, for there were 311 bales weighed this week.

Attend the unveiling next Thursday.

Married in Charleston.

At 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon the wedding of Miss Lily Nina Eisenmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Van A. Eisenmann, to Mr. George Hammond Bamberg took place in St. Luke's church, the Rev. Louis G. Wood, rector, officiating. The church, tastefully decorated with ferns and palms, was filled with friends to witness the ceremony, and promptly at the appointed hour the wedding march, played by Mr. Jno. B. Reeves, organist, announced the arrival of the wedding party, which entered in the following order: Messrs. William R. Johnson, Charles Rose, Jr., Dr. L. B. Robson, Mr. A. Cramer Koster; the ushers, who were followed by the bridesmaids and groomsmen, Misses Julia Privette, of Wilson, N. C., and Irene Cochran, with Messrs. A. Chambliss Connelly and Mr. George L. Coogan. The maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Eisenmann, a sister of the bride, came after, and was followed by the bride with her father. At the chancel the groom and his best man, Mr. Greaton E. Bamberg, his brother, awaited the bride, who was given away by her father. The bridesmaid and maid of honor wore beautiful gowns of champagne messaline, trimmed with fringe and baby Irish lace, their hats being large picture hats, with handsome willow plumes, one black, the other white. The bride was gowned in champagne eoline over messaline silk, and wore a close hat to match, which was heavy with elegant plumes. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of large white chrysanthemums tied with chiffon streamers; the bouquet of the maid of honor was pink roses with chiffon, and the bride held a lovely bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The party left the church directly for the train, the bride and groom going to New York, Washington and elsewhere for their honeymoon trip. Before returning to the city Mr. and Mrs. Bamberg will stop in Bamberg, the home of the former, to visit his family there; on their return they will entertain at a reception at their apartments at No. 94 Church street. They will be out of town for two or three weeks. Among the many beautiful wedding gifts of silver, cut glass and china were a number of substantial checks, also gold currency.—Charleston Post.

THE HERALD MUST LIVE.

Again we beg to remind our friends that all notices relating to money-making enterprises, for church, school or any other cause, are charged for as advertising at one cent a word. All cards of thanks, for any purpose whatsoever, are charged for at the rate of one cent a word. It would save us a good deal of trouble and embarrassment if you would just count the words and send the money along with your "copy," as it hardly pays us to keep books on these little items. Yet in the aggregate they mean a considerable loss to the paper if not collected, and they are so easily overlooked.

Shoots Wife, Kills Self.

Arlington, Ga., Oct. 16.—After mortally wounding his wife with a pistol, John Batts, aged 45, a well-to-do farmer, to-day shot and killed himself with a shotgun, at his home, ten miles south of here. Batts is said to have been drinking heavily.

An Army of Clowns Will be Here.

The Sanger's Combined Shows present along with their comedy department this year, numerous prominent jesters, commonly called "clowns." Delfugo is the principal jester, and associated with him are 45 kings of the clowning world. Along with these funny chaps, others also assist with comical antics.

When intermingling with citizens on the street none of them would be suspected of wearing the loose robes of a fool, but when they are in the ring with their makeups on, they laugh and the crowd laughs with them. A jolly lot, and they have certainly helped to unload at least temporarily the cares from the minds of thousands of people.

Clowning is an art of itself, the best clowns are born, not made. The fun making department of the Sanger's Combined Shows is fully up to the high standard of its other departments; in fact, many a person will testify to the statement that the clowns with this show are worth the price of admission. Their work is appreciated, as the present strenuous life of most people causes them to relish a little pure nonsense now and then.

Everything in all departments of the Sanger Combined Shows this year is positively new, refreshing and up-to-date.

Sanger's Combined Shows is the only big circus coming this way this year.

The big show will exhibit in Bamberg Tuesday, October 24th.

F. H. Hunter, a colored shoemaker of Orangeburg, has opened up a shop below the postoffice, on Main street. He learned the trade at the State colored college, and has also worked under other first-class workmen. He guarantees first-class work at reasonable prices. Shoes half soled and repaired, also all kinds of harness work and repairing. Give him a trial. Will call for and deliver work if notified.

Mayor's Court.

It seems that Chief Hand had run up quite a few cases for trial in the mayor's court Monday. Let this be a lesson to evil-doers in Bamberg. The following were arraigned before Mayor Smoak:

Hodges Brabham and Horace Hightower were tried for jumping on and off trains. They were fined together $3, which they paid.

Joe Whitmore and Victoria Graham for cursing and disorderly conduct on the streets. A fine of $3 each was placed upon them which they paid.

Jake Small, for being drunk and disorderly at church, was fined $5 which was paid.

Ben Holmes was next brought up on the charge of selling whiskey, to which he pleaded guilty and was fined $100 which was paid.

The last case to be tried was the State against Johnny Johnson on a charge of larceny which was transferred to Magistrate H. D. Free for trial.

All the parties tried were negroes.
