CORLEY'S VERSION OF TROUBLE.

Claims That Cooper was Threatening Him When He Shot.

Aiken, Oct. 28.—Howell Cooper, a young merchant of Salley, was shot last night, and is thought to be fatally wounded. The pistol was in the hands of Henry H. Corley, also a young merchant of that town. Cooper was hurried to a hospital in Columbia and very little hope is entertained for his recovery. He was shot twice.

Carley states that last night Cooper came into his, Corley's, store in a drunken condition. He says that Cooper began to curse him in a vile manner and drew his pistol from his pocket and threw it on the floor. Corley picked up the gun, whereupon, he claims, Cooper heaped abuse on him for taking advantage of him. Corley states he then gave the pistol back to Cooper, and that a party of men carried Cooper away from Corley's store. Corley says he then locked up and went away with several friends, and that Cooper, who, he says, was behind him. Corley claims Cooper was snapping his pistol at him and that later his attention was called to Cooper said he was going to follow him and kill him. Corley states that it was then that he pulled his pistol from his pocket and fired.

The unfortunate affair is deeply deplored, as both young men are from the best families in Salley. Cooper is about 22 and Corley is about 20 years of age.

An Oconee county man announces that he intends to run in the Democratic primary next summer for congress from the Third district on the platform of a "high tariff on cotton."

Arthur Penland, a 14-year-old boy of Woodruff, was found guilty in the United States court in Greenville on Saturday of robbing the mails and was sentenced to a fine of $100 or 30 days in the reformatory.

GOES CRAZY, CUTS PASSENGERS.

New York Man Loses Mind on Illinois Central Train.

New Orleans, Oct. 29.—Becoming violently insane while a passenger aboard an incoming train on the Illinois Central near Magnolia, Miss., this morning, Harry Creiger, a machinist of New York city, suddenly sprang from his seat in a crowded car and wielding a large pocket knife slashed six other passengers before he was overpowered by train men. With the exception of A. B. Middleton, of Brookhaven, Miss., who was brought to this city for attention, none of the wounds of the others is believed to be serious.

T. R. Freed, stock-claim agent of the Southern Pacific with headquarters at Lafayette, La., besides being cut about the face, was struck on the head with a cuspidor, causing a severe scalp wound. Crieger's other victims were W. W. Wolf and T. P. Wolf, of Brookhaven, Miss., and Will Reynolds and H. I. Preston, of New Orleans.

Crieger, who is 35 years old, was on his way to New Orleans to visit his wife. He was lodged in the house of detention here on the arrival of the train.

POSSE SEARCHES FOR NEGRO.

Maltreated Two White Women in Bibb County, Ga.

Tuscaloosa, La., Oct. 25.—Sheriff Oakley, of Bibb county, and a big force of citizens of Bibb and Tuscaloosa counties, with bloodhounds, are to-night trailing an unknown negro who seriously mistreated two women near Erline this afternoon. The negro went to the home of Mrs. J. T. Filgo and demanded money. When told there was none in the house he knocked Mrs. Filgo unconscious and then attacked her daughter.

The Herald gives all the news for $1.50 the year.

WRECKS HUSBAND'S CAFE.

Wife of Umpire Frary Does Carrie Nation Act.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 26.—Mrs. Ralph Frary, wife of the National League umpire, to whom attention was attracted during the season just closed, by his cool defiance of a Brooklyn mob of fans, is a second Carrie Nation. She appeared in front of the Mecca Cafe, an elaborately fitted up resort owned by her husband and demolished all the plate glass windows and mirrors in the place. Then she made charges against the resort, its license was revoked and it was closed down yesterday.

Frary is now in Spokane and has not been heard from.

Football Player Dies.

Helena, Mont., Oct. 28.—Charles Lange died to-day from the spinal injuries he received from a kick on the neck three weeks ago during a practice game of football.

While he was dying the woman's club, of which Lang's mother is president, was adopting resolutions declaring football to be "on a plane with pugilism and bull fighting and as dangerous as war," and asking the co-operation of the woman's clubs of the State to abolish the sport.

Moves to Anderson.

Mr. William Banks will become editor of the Daily Mail on November first, succeeding Mr. A. M. Carpenter, who will return to Washington to resume his duties as assistant librarian of the house. Mr. Banks is already well known in Anderson and is a fine newspaper man and will keep the Daily Mail up to its high standard. He has already moved his family to the city, and will spend the next few days getting his household matters in shape. Mr. Banks will occupy the J. M. Sullivan residence on East Hampton street.—Daily Mail.

LYNCHED OR ESCAPED?

Fate of Alleged Georgia Assassin Seems in Doubt.

Augusta, Ga., Oct. 29.—Dave Walker, the negro farm hand charged with assassination of C. S. Hollenshead, at Washington, Ga., last night, it is reported, was taken from Sheriff Bobo, on the public square, and lynched. A mob has gone after another negro said to be implicated in the crime.

At 1:30 o'clock this morning there is division of opinion as to whether the negro was lynched or not. He was captured ten miles from Washington and turned over to Sheriff Bobo, at Hollenshead's store, and was brought to Washington, where a mob had followed and which overpowered the sheriff and his deputies and took the negro. The negro was carried to the woods, about a mile distant, and it is said he escaped, though some who were present affirm he was lynched. Search will continue for the other negro implicated in the killing.

Mr. Hollenshead was one of the best known and most prominent men in Wilks county and the people were much enraged over his assassination.

Lyncher Gets Life Sentence.

Newark, Ohio, Oct. 25.—The jury in the case of Walter Diehl, charged with being a principal in the lynching of Carl Etherington, anti-saloon detective, found the defendant guilty of second degree murder. The verdict carries a sentence of life imprisonment. Etherington, who was a native of Washington county, Kentucky, was lynched in July of last year after he had been dragged from the county jail.

The State department of agriculture estimates that, on account of the spring drouth, the oat crop in South Carolina is 50,000 bushels short.

NOTE FORETELLS SUICIDE.

River Will be Dragged in Search for Woman's Body.

Thomasville, Ga., Oct. 28.—Police to-day searched this city for Miss Zettrue Gaddy, who disappeared during last night. A note was found in her room, at the home where she was visiting, reading:

"When you find me I will be cold in death, in the river."
The Ocholocknee river will be dragged, near here, to-morrow. The missing woman is 32 years old.

TYLER'S WOUND FATAL.

Springfield Prisoner Dies in Orangeburg Jail—Inquest Held.

Orangeburg, Oct. 28.—Wade Tyler, the negro who was shot at Springfield Thursday night while in the custody of the sheriff, and who was brought here and lodged in jail, died last night as a result of his wound, after an operation. An inquest was held and the jury returned a verdict of death "caused by wound inflicted by parties unknown." The body was turned over to the family of the deceased and will be taken to the country and interred. Nothing of interest was developed at the inquest bearing upon the original trouble.

BODY FOUND ON ROADSIDE.

Foreman of Florida Farm Killed by Workman.

St. Augustine, Fla., Oct. 28.—C. L. Hall, a plantation foreman, was killed by a negro workman near here this morning. The negro was badly cut, presumably by Hall. Details of the duel are not known.

After being stabbed, Hall got into a buggy and started for a nearby settlement. The mule he was driving ran away and overturned the vehicle. Hall's body was found beside the road.
