Thursday, March 7, 1912.

SHORT LOCALS.

Brief Items of Interest Throughout the Town and County.

There has been a large crowd of people in the city this week, attending court.

The wet damp days continue. When will it clear off sufficiently for the farmers to go to work?

Representative J. A. Hunter announces himself in this issue as a candidate for re-election.

Dr. J. B. Black announces himself in this issue as a candidate for re-election to the State Senate.

J. Wesley Crum, Jr., of Denmark, announces himself in this issue as a candidate for the legislature.

We still have some vegetable seed on hand, and will be glad to give them to those who will call.

The wet weather continues, and in consequence the farmers are being put very much behind with their work.

J. B. Hunter is the name of Bamberg's sheriff and he says he is going to be a candidate for superintendent of the penitentiary.—Newberry Herald and News.

The Bamberg Guards are to be inspected this (Wednesday) afternoon on the Fitting School campus, and Adjutant and Inspector General W. W. Moore is in the city for this purpose.

Mrs. Henry F. Bamberg cordially invites the Mite Box Brigade to meet with her on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The members are requested to bring their boxes, as this is the regular time for the opening of the boxes.

The grading of the railroad between Bamberg and Ehrhardt is practically completed, notwithstanding the bad weather. Crossties have been placed on a portion of the road, and soon the work of track laying will begin.

We are republishing this week the statement of the Bamberg Banking Company, as there was an error in it last week. The footing should have been $310,021.97, yet we had it $301,021.97, an error of nine thousand dollars.

Master H. C. Folk sold a tract of land here Monday in the case of Black vs. Tucker. The tract contained 316 acres, and was bought by Mr. D. M. Eaves for $2,175. At the sale the first Monday in February it brought $2,600, but the bidder did not comply.

A kind note from Maj. Joe Carter, of Lodge, gives his age at 75 years, yet he says he and three families of descendants who live near together all glory in reading The Herald. May the Major spend many more years here to bless and brighten the lives of those around him!

Rev. M. B. Kelly, a well known and prominent member of the South Carolina conference, died at his home in Spartanburg last Thursday after an extended illness. Mr. Kelly was formerly pastor of the Denmark Methodist church, and had many friends in this section.

The next of the series of life-work lectures at the Carlisle Fitting School will be next Friday evening, when Rev. R. S. Truesdale, pastor of Trinity Methodist church, Charleston, will lecture on "The Ministry as a Life-Work." Mr. Truesdale is one of the strongest speakers in the South Carolina conference, and we know that he will delight his hearers.

A reference was held here last Thursday before Referee A. J. Hydrick in the matter of the bankruptcy matter of H. C. Copeland & Co., of Ehrhardt. This matter has been in litigation for about a year, and it seems that it will be some time before it is finally wound up. Among the visiting attorneys attending the reference were W. H. Fleming, of Augusta, and C. E. Gyles, of Aiken.

One of the very best of the life-work lectures at the Carlisle Fitting School was that delivered last Wednesday evening by Prof. W. H. Hand on "Teaching as a Life-Work." No synopsis of this lecture would do it justice, but many of those already teaching should have heard it. Mr. Hand is a most pleasing speaker, a man who is thoroughly in love with the profession of teaching, and it was a great pleasure to have heard him.

We intended to mention last week the magnificent address of Mrs. Atkins, at the Methodist church the previous Sunday, but neglected it. She is really one of the most entertaining and convincing speakers we ever listened to, and it is no wonder that crowds greet her everywhere she speaks. The temperance people are fortunate in having her as one of their speakers. We understand that the local W. C. T. U. will likely arrange to have Richmond Pearson Hobson and possibly Ex-Gov. Glenn, of North Carolina, deliver addresses here in the near future.

It will soon be time to "swat the fly." Begin early, and there won't be so much trouble to get rid of the pest.

Just suppose it should keep on raining this way for a month or so more, what would become of this country?

The time for paying State and county taxes expires the 15th of this month. After that the heavy penalty attaches.

We received a notice of a death this week, but as we do not know who wrote it, we do not print it. People who write for newspapers should remember that the real name must be signed, but it will not be published if the writer does not desire it. A newspaper would soon get itself into lots of trouble by publishing articles written by persons who were unknown.

Little Cornelius VanOrsdell, the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Blume, died at their home in this city Thursday night, after an illness of several months. The burial took place Friday afternoon at Restland cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. W. H. Hodges, pastor of Trinity Methodist church. The little fellow was eight years old, and was a bright and attractive child. The bereaved family have the sincere sympathy of their friends in their grief.

Friday evening of next week the last of the life-work lectures at the Carlisle Fitting School will be given when Ex-Chief Justice Ira B. Jones will speak on "Law as a Life-Work." Mr. Jones is said to be a most entertaining and attractive speaker, and as he is now a candidate for governor, there will be especial interest in his visit, although he comes as a lawyer and not as a candidate and his visit has no political significance. After the lecture a dinner will be tendered him at the boys' hall, which will be attended by a number of gentlemen from in and out of town. The occasion promises to be a most pleasant one.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union held its second meeting for the new year with Mrs. Hays. This proved to be not only an interesting meeting but a profitable one as well. This was a red letter day meeting, commemorating Frances E. Willard's heavenly birthday, therefore the readings which went to make up the literary program were selected with that idea in mind. The meeting was called to order, the president in the chair. After reading the 23rd Psalm, Mrs. Hodges led us in prayer, then followed gems or sayings of Miss Willard, which were read by several members.

The treasurer reported collections and subscriptions Sunday, February 25, 1912, for W. C. T. U. work in South Carolina $113.09. She reported further that she had collected $3.00 dues since the first of the year. The members were asked to bear in mind that she would get out in March to make her yearly collections.

The flower mission report was not so good as it might have been. Owing to the fact that the literature superintendent has been forced to make her home elsewhere, Mrs. Dan Delk was elected to serve the union in her stead.

Five new members have been recently gained; others signed the pledge. Lively discussions were engaged in, and one or more matters of importance were passed upon.

Mrs. Dan Delk invited the union to meet with her in March. Passing from business, we came to the literary, then social part of our program.

Mrs. Hodges read an article entitled: "Object of this Commemorative Meeting." Mrs. G. Frank Bamberg read a clipping on "What the Memorial Fund has Accomplished," which was followed by a well gotten up paper on "Miss Willard" by Mrs. John Jennings.

Delightful refreshments were served, while we enjoyed ourselves socially. B.

Death or Life in Prison.

Memphis, Tenn., March 1.—J. J. Hughes, the wealthy Haynes, Ark., planter, convicted by a jury in the criminal court here to-day of the murder of Thomas Dolan, a jockey, "with mitigating circumstances," will be sentenced by Judge Edgington probably on March 16, either to be hanged or to serve a life sentence in prison.

Counsel for the defence moved for a new trial and the court set March 16 for a hearing on the motion. The motion is formal and is necessary to perfecting an appeal to the higher courts.

Governor Blease is said to have expressed the hope in a speech Friday night at Blacksburg that he would see the day when every white boy and girl would get a common school education, but he declared he was unalterably opposed to spending one copper for "educating baboons and free niggers." Yet the governor is reported by two negro papers in Columbia to have said at a negro meeting in that city that the negroes ought to have part of the fertilizer tag tax that now goes to Clemson college. This statement has never been contradicted.—Orangeburg Times and Democrat.

U. D. C. Meeting.

The regular meeting of the Francis Marion Bamberg Chapter, U. D. C., will be held next Tuesday afternoon, the 12th, at 4 o'clock with Mrs. James A. Wyman at her home on Railroad Avenue. This is the month for paying dues, which the by-laws say shall be paid in advance at the March meeting. Let every member pay dues at this meeting, whether she is present or not. If you cannot go to the meeting, send your dues and save the treasurer the trouble of calling on you for it, and yourself the embarrassment of being dilatory in matters of business.

Our district meeting will be called on the 27th of this month at St. Matthews, and delegates will be elected for this at next week's meeting.

Notice to Confederate Veterans.

June the third, the anniversary of the birth of Jefferson Davis, will be the last occasion for the bestowal of crosses of honor upon Confederate veterans by the U. D. C. All veterans in this county and adjoining counties who have not received crosses and who wish to apply for them will write to Mrs. G. Frank Bamberg, president of F. M. Bamberg chapter, or to Capt. J. K. Risher, commander of Camp Jenkins, for application blanks, fill out and return at once.

And all veterans who have been given honor roll blanks and who have not returned them, will please fill out and return at once to the chapter president, so that she may forward them to Richmond where they are filed in the archives of the U. D. C.

Card of Thanks.

As I cannot see each one personally, I take this means of thanking the many friends who were so kind during the illness of my family and death of my wife. I shall never forget you, and will always hold each one in grateful remembrance.

The Bamberg Herald has quite come around to our way of thinking of the medical inspection bill, but wants to justify its kick and we do not blame our friend. If he can see any way to get the work done as he would prefer it, we would quite agree, all that we or the advocates of the measure generally want is protection, but any other way than the one suggested is impractical, and all good, thinking people are going to come round to it after a while, we even expect Gov. Blease to acknowledge the error of his way and endorse the measure.—Florence Times.
