SOME INTERESTING HAPPENINGS IN VARIOUS SECTIONS.

News Items Gathered All Around the County and Elsewhere. Ehrhardt Etchings.

Ehrhardt, July 8 .--- Quite a number of our town's folks were away last week. Some to the bankers convention, others visiting parents a bid for national support in Novemand near relatives, others out for pleasure at Isle of Palms and pleasure places in Florida, and those that were not fortunate er ough to go away on trips, went and enjoyed themselves at fish fries.

Big meetings and college reunions are being planned for later on, so you see something is being worked up to fill in the time for the summer.

The Hacker Mfg. Co. shut down for a week in order to repair some parts of the machinery and give some of the bosses time to visit their homes.

Miss Annie Carter and William C. Ehrhardt were married at the residence of Rev. E. A. McDowell Sunday morning.

The Carolina Gin Company have their gin building under headway and will be ready to install their machinery and ready to separate the seed from the lint for the farmers.

The cotton crop in this section is not showing up for an abundant crop this year, and will not require an extra amount of work to gather nor handle it. Cotton don't seem to grow off and put on fruit as it should. Wind and rain have gotten the best of it this year.

Judge J. C. Copeland had a novel case before him week before last. Mr. W. L. Warren, of Bamberg county, sued David Proveaux and Ben Kinsey for working on the Sabbath. It seems as if David hired Ben to move his Pa., both appear to have an enthuhousehold and kitchen furniture from Mr. Warren's, where he had contracted to run a farm during 1912, and he selected Sunday to do the job. The coust pronounced both guilty of the offence, "breaking the Sabbath day by doing work which could have been done on another day," and fined them accordingly. Look out, Sab-JEE. bath breakers!

two interurban cars on the Marion, Bluffton and Eastern Traction line, Conisbrough, England, July 9 .in this city, this afternoon. The dead: The bodies of 69 victims of a series William Lentz, Jarion, glass workof explosions in the Cadeby colliery this morning have been brought to the surface. It is feared that a further search of the mine will increase the death roll to 80. Of the killed, 30 were mine workers; the others were men who went into the pits to rescue those entombed. Among these were three government inspectors, including William Henry Pickering, chief inspector of mines, Yorkshire and north Midland district, who was to have explained to King George and Queen Mary this afternoon the workings of another Yorkshire colliery.

The king yesterday visited a colliery adjacent to that in which the explosions occurred to-day. The presence of their majesties in the district greatly minimized the fatalities, because the miners were celebrating and had taken a holiday. Therefore, instead of the usual 136, only 32 men were working in that part of the mine where the accident happened. Thirty of these were killed outright and one, the manager of the pit, was brought up alive, but died to-night. The first explosion which killed the miners occurred early in the morning. It was followed by an explosion about five o'clock in the afternoon which resulted in the collapse of the roof, overwhelming the entire rescuing brigade.

The King and Queen visited the scene to-night and personally expressed their sympathy.

An accumulation of gas which was ignited by the firing of a shot is believed to have been the cause of the disaster.

ELECTRIC CHAIR ARRIVES.

Legal Instrument of Death to be Installed at Once.

Columbia, July 8 .- The electric chair, for use at the execution of criminals, has arrived and the work of installing it will begin at once under the supervision of State Electrician T. Q. Boozer, and C. F. Adams, of the New Jersey firm, which has the contract for installing the chair. Work on the death house was completed to-day, and as soon as the house has been wired the work of putting in the chair will begin.

The first electrocution will take place on August 6, when a Charleston negro, convicted of rape, will have to pay for his crime by dying in the electric chair.

Govan Gossips.

Govan, July 9.-The 4th passed off quietly but very merry. There were a great many picnics around. A crowd of young folks, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lancaster and Mrs. Annie Lancaster, had one on the banks of Little Saltkehatchie river, the crowd going on lever cars, which were kindly loaned by H. E. Gunnels, section foreman.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hutto, of Sycamore, were in our happy midst Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. I. R. Wheeler, of Webster, Fia., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Ray Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Rosa Hay is visiting relatives at Springfield.

PAPER MONEY MORE POPULAR. Displacing Silver Coin, Formerly A stump was pulled over in stretching Preferred in South.

Washington, July 7.-Paper money is becoming the medium of circulation in the South, displacing silver coin, which for years was preferred in that section.

This change has taken place in the past few months. It began, officials assert, when the government ceased paying for the transportation of coin to banks. Banks now apply for currency, which is less expensive to transport. By compelling bankers to pay the expressage on money, the treasury expects to save about $200,-000 annually.

Another serious charge by Judge Gary is that it is not real whiskey, but a chemical stuff that makes peopple foolish. Nobody would dispute that this would sooner or later kill the drinker. But before this is done he might kill somebody else. Why could we not have a law that would subject all whiskey shipped into this State to an analysis? We understand that such a bill' was introduced last session. We hope that candidates for the legislature will inform themselves on this subject and discuss it during the campaign .-Laurensville Herald.

Wearing Slippers.

One of the very best customs to adopt in the home, whether the familv be large or small, is that of always wearing slippers. In the first place slippers are more comfortable than shoes, and they are considered more healthful. Also, this will appeal to the ladies, slippers can be far more becoming than shoes.

We all realize that the streets, sidewalks and even our own yards are full of germ-laden dust. This dust, to a certain extent, adheres to the bottom of the shoe, is brought into the house and we have to live, with it. Perhaps our systems may be strong enough to throw off the ill effects of any germs that are in the dusty floor coverings or air; then again, our children may play about the floor and not be so fortunate.

Sickness and disease follow, and we wonder where they caught the infection.

In England, among all classes, it is a household law to wear slippers, and we should do well to adopt the custom as one of our own.

We will soon grow to like it so well that the wonder will be how shoes were ever tolerated in our homes at all .- Augusta Chronicle.

Newberry, July 8 .- J. P. Lawson, who has become well known here through his dealing in "near beer," was arrested this afternoon by Sheriff Buford charged with dealing in alcoholic beverages. He was released more than a severe shaking up and under bond of $300. It is said Lawson will resume his business and in that case Sheriff Buford says he will
