W. L. GLAZE ELECTED JUDGE

General Assembly Picks Orangeburg Lawyer as Successor to Judge Copes.

W. L. Glaze was to-day elected judge of the first judicial circuit on the third ballot. There were four other in the race—Octavus Cohen, of Berkeley; E. J. Dennis, of Berkeley; P. T. Hildebrand, of Orangeburg; and M. S. Connor, of St. George. The name of Mr. Cohen was withdrawn after the first ballot; and those of Messrs. Hildebrand and Connor after the second, leaving the third ballot between Messrs. Dennis and Glaze. Of the 159 votes cast on the ballot, Mr. Glaze received 87 votes and Mr. Dennis 72, a majority of 15 for Mr. Glaze. Judge Glaze succeeds Judge Copes, who resigned.

Judge Ernest Gary, of Columbia, having no opposition, was re-elected judge of the fifth judicial circuit. Major W. L. Glaze has been for many years a prominent lawyer at the Orangeburg bar. He was formerly the partner of the late Judge Izlar in the firm of Izlar, Glaze & Herbert. He has been for many years the senior of the firm of Glaze and Herbert.

May Not Accept.

In spite of the very flattering election by the general assembly when he was not a candidate before that body, and after positively declaring that he would not be a candidate, nor accept the position if offered to him, there is yet some doubt about his acceptance of the judicial ermin, and his friends have been able to secure from him no more than a promise that he will not now state that he will not accept the election and serve the State.

Many friends, including those who were urging and advocating the election of Mr. Octavus Cohen, have been busy since the election in an effort to persuade Major Glaze to accept, as they all feel that in Major Glaze the State would have an ideal judge.

Major Glaze is in the city for the purpose of attending the meeting of the State bar association, in which he is an active member. To a reporter for the Record he said that were he ten years younger, and in good health, he would have no hesitancy in accepting the very great honor that has been conferred on him, but he doubts his physical ability to stand the strain that would be put upon him in the judgeship. He recognizes the duty of any son of the State to respond to a call for service, if he be able to give it, and such questions as these, rather than personal inclination, govern and will govern him in this decision.

The joint assembly convened for the election of judges, superintendent of penitentiary and three directors of the same institution.

Gen. James put in nomination for judge of the first circuit the name of Octavus Cohen, of Berkeley, which was numerously seconded. Senator Laney nominated E. J. Dennis, of Berkeley, with seconds from all sides. Senator Lide placed in nomination the name of P. T. Hildebrand, of Orangeburg, which caused many endorsements. Senator Gross, of Dorchester, put in nomination the name of M. S. Connor, of St. George, and he was strongly seconded. On ballot the name of W. L. Glaze, of Orangeburg, was introduced by Senator Carlisle, of Spartanburg.

On the first ballot 161 votes were cast, $1 being necessary for election. The result of the ballot was as follows: Dennis 46, Hildebrand 43, Glaze 30, Connor 28, Cohen 15.

Gen. James then withdrew the name of Octavus Cohen, leaving only four in the race for judge of the first circuit.

The second ballot resulted in a dead lock. The total number of votes cast was 163, necessary for choice $2. Dennis received 53, Glaze 53, Hildebrand 33, Connor 24. Therefore a third ballot was necessary.

Senator Lide, of Orangeburg, withdrew the name of P. T. Hildebrand, and announced that the Orangeburg delegation would vote for W. L. Glaze.

Senator Gross, of Dorchester, withdrew the name of M. S. Connor.

On the third ballot W. L. Glaze, an attorney of Orangeburg, received 87 votes, which, being the majority, elected him judge of the first judicial circuit. The total number of votes cast was 169, of which Mr. Dennis received 72.

Senator F. H. Weston, of Richland county placed in nomination for judge of the fifth judicial circuit the name of Judge Ernest Gary to succeed himself. Many seconds were recorded, after which, there being no other nominations, the rolls of both houses were called. Judge Gary received 151 votes—all cast—and was declared elected.—The Columbia Record.

Women Win in Nevada.

Carson, Nev., Jan. 24.—Woman's suffrage passed the general assembly here to-day with but three dissenting votes. The measure will go to the senate on Monday and should it pass, as is generally expected, will be submitted to popular vote at the next general election.

KILLED WHALE IN RIVER.

Monster Stranded on Bar is Attacked by Japanese.

An extraordinary event is reported from Sin Anju, a railway town in north Pyong-an province, in the Seoul Press. About noon when the tide was high, villagers at Wangpong Li, Tong Kyon, in the Kasan district (of the same province) were amazed to see a big black object swimming in the River Tallyong, running near by.

They did not know what the monster was and watched its movements with great excitement and interest. Soon after, the monster sent up a column of water and disappeared.

On the following morning at about 7 o'clock Tomizo Tashiro, a Japanese railway linesman in service at Sin Anju station, while patrolling the line, was astonished to see a whale struggling to go down stream at a point about five cho above the railway bridge on the Tallyong river. It was low tide and the water having considerably receded the river was only about five feet deep. The whale had evidently stranded on a shallow place and was unable to move.

Tashiro was overjoyed to find the unexpected spoil and tried to kill it by firing at it with a fowling piece he was carrying. He fired at it 18 times, but the whale seemed to be none the worse in consequence. Tashiro concluded that it would not do to try to kill it in that way and running to the nearest village collected several Koreans, told them of his find, and each armed with an axe, they returned to the spot.

The whale was still there, the water having further receded. They rushed into the stream and by striking the monster on the head with the axes they at last succeeded in killing it. The whale was about 35 feet in length and was valued at about 1,000 yen.

SHERIFF'S SHOT PROVES FATAL.

Negro Wounded by Georgia Officer Dies at Greenwood.

Greenwood, Jan. 23.—Ed Butler, a negro, died here Tuesday night from a bullet wound received a week ago at the hands of the sheriff of McDuffie county, Ga. Butler came here and spent the time previous to his death at the home of a negro woman named Sallie Williams. Coroner Dock Owen empaneled a jury yesterday morning, and while the taking of evidence was in progress the negro's mother arrived and told how he had been shot. It appears that Butler had stolen a mule and was trying to escape arrest when the sheriff shot him. Butler's brother, who was with him at the time, received a bullet wound in the leg.

ACCEPT COMPROMISE.

Plans to Wind-up Affairs of Defunct Leesville Bank.

Lexington, Jan. 23.—At a meeting of depositors of the People's Bank, of Leesville, which closed its doors on November 27 last year, held in the town hall at Leesville to-day, the depositors decided to accept a compromise offer of $8,000 from the relatives of Dr. E. J. Etheridge, the former president of the defunct institution whose indebtedness to the bank amounted to about $18,000. This means, it is understood, that the depositors will receive 50 cents on the dollar, this amount to be paid out on Saturday next.

A committee of three, consisting of J. P. Able, D. J. S. Derrick and Attorney E. L. Asbill, was named to marshal the assets and collect the funds as rapidly as possible. The committee is to have three months in which to wind up the affairs of the bank, but those who have been in close touch with the situation declare that it will take a much longer period to close up the business.

The meeting to-day was attended by stormy periods, certain depositors objecting strenuously to the compromise. The acceptance of the compromise means that the former president, Dr. Etheridge, will be relieved of all obligations and that no criminal proceedings will be instituted. While the depositors will receive dollar for dollar, it is generally conceded that the stockholders will lose all.

WOMAN ATTACKS WOMAN.

"Sis" Jackson, White, Wreaks Vengeance on Spartanburg Woman.

Gaffney, Jan. 23.—A mix-up occurred at the home of Will Turner, near the City Hospital, yesterday, when a woman named "Sis" Jackson made a murderous assault upon a Mrs. Bessie Sealy, of Cherokee Springs, Spartanburg county. Mrs. Sealy was visiting Turner's daughters at their town house, while "Sis" was at the country place, a few miles from town. Evidently resenting the presence of the visitor at Turner's home, "Sis" hooked up a mule and drove to town. Finding Mrs. Sealy seated in the house, "Sis" flew upon her with a bottle, inflicting a number of painful cuts on the head. The combined efforts of three women were required to get her off the victim and she was "stood" with a pistol until the police arrived. Dr. J. N. Nesbitt was summoned and rendered Mrs. Sealy medical assistance. The physicians state her wounds are not fatal.

"Sis" was arraigned in Magistrate William Phillips court and given a hearing, being sentenced to a fine of $35 or 30 days. She took the days. All of the persons involved are white.
