SHORT LOCALS.

Brief Items of Interest Throughout the Town and County.

Some much-needed work has been done on the road between this place and the new bridge on the Edisto river.

The public will greatly appreciate the raising of the sidewalk in front of the post office. It is a great improvement.

The spring season is here and now is the time to clean up around your premises. Let's make Bamberg a clean town.

The firm of H. G. Delk & Co. has been dissolved, Mr. Delk having bought the interest of Mr. Clarence B. Free, Jr.

This is the season of the year when you need to swat the fly harder than ever. A crusade against flies is badly needed in Bamberg.

Several from here went to Charleston Monday night to attend the hearing Tuesday in the United States Court in the matter of J. A. Hunter.

According to the report of Commissioner of Agriculture E. J. Watson, Bamberg county has seventy-eight automobiles and Barnwell 146.

If a few persons were arrested and fined for sweeping trash and waste paper in to the street we believe the practice would be largely discontinued.

Presiding Elder M. L. Banks preached at the Methodist church last Sunday and held second quarterly conference for this charge Monday morning.

Mrs. W. D. Rhoad requests that all who have contributed to the fund for a new carpet at the Methodist church will bring or send their contribution to her without delay.

The pension money for this year has been distributed by the comptroller general. The amount for Bamberg county pensioners is $2,577.80. We publish the list in another column.

Mr. A. C. Free, who lives in the Olar section, had the misfortune to lose his dwelling house and contents by fire last Friday afternoon. Only a bed and a few other articles were saved. Mr. Free carried no insurance, and the loss falls heavily on him.

The regular monthly meeting of the Francis Marion Bamberg Chapter, U. D. C., will meet with Mrs. J. C. Moye next Tuesday afternoon, April 15th, at four o'clock. A full attendance is requested, as there is much business to come before the chapter.

Now that longer days have come and the stores will soon close at six o'clock, the fire department ought to do some practicing. Take an interest in the organization, young men, for there is none more important to us all. There is no telling when your services will be needed.

The base ball team of the Carlisle Fitting School went to Charleston last Thursday and played two games there Thursday and Friday with the team of the Porter Military Academy. The Fitting School won the first game by a score of 12 to 4, but they lost the game Friday afternoon, the score being two to one.

In another column we publish the fish law. It would be well for those who have been violating this law to read the digest. It will be seen that no nets, traps, or other appliances for catching fish can be used between the first day of April and the first day of August, and during that time no game fish can be offered for sale, even if caught with hook and line.

We think it is time that the insurance rates for Bamberg were being revised, and we trust that those in authority will take up the matter with the insurance trust right away, and see if they cannot have the town re-rated and some reductions made. We have never been satisfied with the re-rating made a few years ago, just after the water works were installed.

Sheriff S. G. Ray is now looking after the sanitary condition of the town, he having been appointed by city council for the work of health officer. The sheriff is determined to see that everybody keeps their premises clean, and he has full authority to force compliance. Therefore we would advise every citizen to co-operate with him in making Bamberg a clean town.

Mr. Joseph Kinard came very near losing the sight of his right eye last Wednesday evening. While on his way to the show, in company with several friends, he was run into by a colored woman just as she was passing the store of the Bamberg Furniture & Hardware Co., and the pin in her hat struck Mr. Kinard in the right eye. While he will not lose the sight of the eye the wound is very painful.

Coming Wedding

The Beta Gamma club met with Miss Atlanta Gibson Friday afternoon, when she announced the engagement of her sister, Miss Bess Gibson, to Bissell Beach of Bamberg, the wedding to take place in June. The hostess served refreshments of salads and ice cream, mints and coffee.—McColl correspondence The State.

Miss Gibson is well known here, having taught in the primary department of the Carlisle Fitting School last year, and has many friends. Mr. Beach is one of our most popular young men, being liked by young and old.

With the amount already subscribed, the dormitory is assured, and preparations will begin at once for the erection of the building. It is hoped to commence the actual work on the building during the summer. If you want to contribute to this cause, and everybody in Bamberg should, don't wait for any committee to call on you but see or 'phone them the amount of your subscription. Sunday evening subject: Victors in the Great Day.

The Missionary Voice is the periodical of all the missionary forces of our church, home and foreign. It is the voice of the church at work. May it be the "voice preparing the way of the Lord!" No one can be an intelligent christian who fails to interest himself in the great movements of his church. No one can call himself intelligent whose horizon is bound by his native land or commonwealth. Outside of the spiritual uplift that comes from the study of "other peoples and other tongues" in relation to the gospel of Jesus, the intellectual help is beyond comparison.

So our Missionary Voice goes out month after month with its wealth of broadening, strengthening, food for mind and soul. But in the multitude of magazines and periodicals that bring only a passing entertainment the Voice is hushed, amid the many voices that speak only of the passing things of a day.

"These things ought not so to be." Let us no longer neglect our paper, but as we open its pages let us open our hearts and hear "what the Lord God will say to us" through his servants; and let each of us be a voice for the Voice, trying to make it an open book to others who now neglect it.

The subscription list of the Voice is growing slowly, four hundred more subscribers in 1912 than in 1911; and in 1913 five hundred more than 1912.

Engine Jumps the Track.

Last Friday morning about six o'clock an engine pulling an extra freight train from Augusta to Charleston, left the track near the crossing at the Baptist church on Railroad Avenue in this city. The engine had backed into the siding to take on a car load of cattle, and as it was coming out of the siding it left the track, falling broadside into a ditch by the side of the track. The accident was caused by the switch being left open when the engine went in the siding. The fireman got out, and while the engineer stayed with the engine during its fall, neither was hurt. The damage to the engine was not very great. A wrecking crew with a crane came up the same afternoon, and soon had the engine and tender back on the track.

Base Ball.

Barnwell and C. F. S. will cross bats Thursday afternoon, April 10th, at Rhoad's Park. This will be the first game played on the new grounds, which was presented to the school by Mr. W. D. Rhoad. The new grandstand is completed and the fans will be comfortably seated. The Carlisle team has just returned from a series of games with Porter Military Academy, Charleston, in which they broke even, winning the first game by the score of 12 to 4, and losing the second 2 to 1. Prof. Anderson, the coach, is working the squad every afternoon, and they seem determined to win from the Barnwell bunch. The new uniforms have come. The boys make a splendid show in the red and white. Barnwell has a strong team of high school et cetera, and the game promises to be very exciting. Everybody is invited to turn out and enjoy the game. The management intends to ask the merchants to close so that all the clerks may attend. The game will be called strictly at 4.30. Tickets twenty-five cents, ten cents extra to grand stand.

Fire Wednesday Morning.

The house belonging to Mr. B. F. Free, situated on Railroad Avenue, next to the home of Mr. H. D. Free, was totally destroyed by fire yesterday morning about eight o'clock. The fire is supposed to have originated from the chimney. Mr. H. W. Walker and family were occupying the house, they having recently moved here from Midway. Some of the furniture and household goods were saved. We did not learn as to whether there was any insurance on the building or contents.

Memorial May 8th.

Some of our readers cannot understand exactly the date for the memorial services at Rivers' Bridge, as the date was first published in this paper as April 24th and last week as May 8th, and as so many people depend on The Herald for exact information, we will state how it all came about. The notice was sent in by Capt. J. W. Jenny, secretary, and the date in his notice was May 8th. We had the notice put in type, but on press day a gentleman from the Ehrhardt section, who is a member of the Association, came into our office and stated that the date had been changed to April 24th on account of a conflict with the Lutheran picnic at Mt Pleasant church. We asked him if we had best change the date, as we had it from the secretary as May 8th, and he said he thought it would be well to publish the date as April 24th, which we did. Then Capt. Jenny wrote us calling attention to our changing the date, and we wrote him explaining why we had done so. As we have not heard from him since, we rightfully assume that the date is May 8th, and we so changed it in our last week's issue.

Held in Lexington Jail.

Lexington, April 5.—W. C. Lee, a white man, of Darlington, is in the Lexington County jail, charged with obtaining money under false pretense, having been committed by Magistrate A. H. Blease, of Batesburg, in default of $200 bail for his appearance at the June term of the General Sessions Court. Lee was arrested at his home in Darlington on Wednesday by Sheriff Sim J. Miller, of this county. Lee, who claims to be a contractor and builder, is alleged to have secured $100 from Dr. J. A. Watson, of Batesburg, some few weeks ago for doing a piece of work. The work was never completed or satisfactorily done, it is said, and Dr. Watson issued a warrant.

Petition Dismissed.

Tuesday of this week a hearing was had before Judge H. A. M. Smith in the United States Court in Charleston in the matter of the bankruptcy petition filed against Mr. J. A. Hunter, a hardware merchant of this city. The result of the hearing was that the petition was dismissed, the presiding judge refusing to declare Mr. Hunter a bankrupt. Only three witnesses were examined, Messrs. Hunter, H. N. Bellinger, and F. M. Simmons. W. H. Townsend, of Columbia, and E. H. Henderson, Esq., appeared for Mr. Hunter. Mr. H. M. Graham, of Graham & Black, appeared for the petitioning creditors. W. E. Free, Esq., of Mayfield & Free, was also present, representing a mortgage interest. No witness testified in behalf of Mr. Hunter, although several were present, the judge ruling that it was not necessary, as the showing made by the petitioners was not sufficient. Messrs. J. R. Owens and B. S. Johns, of this city, were among those who attended the hearing.

—Mr. J. A. Peters, Jr., of the Ehrhardt section, was in the city last Saturday.

Are Getting Ready for Second Count, April 21st.

The Bamberg Herald's great piano voting contest is reaching normal proportions now. It has come to where you can't tell who is leading. So many have brought in subscriptions and received their votes, and some have so many that no one can even guess which one has the most. There is quite a demand for merchants' coupons, too. These are little jokers that will probably tell the story in the end. And this is the way our readers can help. It does not cost you a cent when you buy groceries, dry goods, hardware, clothing, furniture, drugs, or whatever the advertisers in the contest have to offer, and then as the contestant comes to you, you will have a pleasant little surprise for her; that will prove you a person who thinks of others, and it will make her pleased with you. Every one of the ladies who is out for that piano wants it, and they are honestly trying in every honorable way to come in possession of it. It is simply a question of which one you like best. Of course you like them all, and Bamberg and vicinity have nothing nicer than these contestants, and what is nicer for a lady, whether old or young, and her family and circle of friends, than a nice piano—and such a one for instance, as The Herald is going to give to the lady that the people of Bamberg and vicinity like the best.

Bear in mind that the ballot box is closed for the second count at 6:00 p. m. on April 21st. Be sure and have your votes all in by that time so that you will have a fair chance to show what your standing is.

The following bonus offer will continue and remain unchanged up to Monday, April 21st, so take advantage of this splendid opportunity to secure votes:

For every 7 new one year subscriptions 10,000 extra bonus votes, making a total of 14,200 votes.

For every 7 one year renewal subscriptions 8,000 extra bonus votes, making a total of 11,500.

For every bunch of 40 merchants' coupons 500 extra bonus votes will be given, making a total of 1,500 votes.

These coupons may be collected from any and all merchants who are in the contest.

Remember and have your friends trade with merchants giving coupons. Their ads. appear in this issue in connection with our wonderful offer.

The following are the enterprising merchants who give coupons:

- E. A. Hooton, The Bamberg Pharmacy, Rentz & Felder, The Millinery Store, C. R. Brabham's Sons, Mrs. A. McB. Speaks & Co., A. Rice, W. D. Rhoad, J. D. Copeland, J. A. Murdaugh, Peoples Drug Company.

BARKLEY RUSH REACHES HOME.

Again Declares He Doesn't Know Where Tindal Is.

Elloree, April 7.—Barkley Rush, who, with his former employee, A. J. Tindal, figured in the Santee River mock tragedy, passed through here this morning on the train from Orangeburg. The news of Rush's appearance in Orangeburg yesterday afternoon reached here last night and there was a large crowd at the depot this morning to see one whom many, for a time, thought dead.

Rush got off the train at Parler, where, on the night of March 13, he and Tindal left for parts unknown. He drove back to Elloree this morning and spent several hours here. Rush was non-communicative and little more than the story carried in to-day's papers could be gotten out of him. He declared that Tindal is still alive, but he does not know his whereabouts, they having parted company in Augusta about two weeks ago. He declares that if he knew of Tindal's whereabouts he would not tell; that he would go to jail first, but "I do not know," he stated, "if they want to find him let them hunt him."

He declares that Tindal did not have much money when he left, that it was so little until it was not worth mentioning.

"He gave me $10 and told me to go and hunt a job," said Rush, who found the job, but growing weary and disgusted he determined to return home.

"Man, I have been working ever since I left here," he declared, exhibiting a set of corn bedecked palms, which corroborated his statement that handling heavy railroad irons was no cinch. Rush declares that he and his former employee did not have a falling out and holds out that he and Tindal were on the best of terms.

Rush is now safely nested at his home at Millicans, while the whereabouts of Tindal is still a mystery.
