SHORT LOCALS.

Brief Items of Interest Throughout the Town and County.

Miss Lynn Riley, of this city, has been elected a teacher in the Greenwood graded schools.

Last week Mr. W. D. Rhoad captured the largest trout of the season. It weighed nine pounds.

The annual meeting of the Young Men's Building & Loan Association is to be held next Tuesday, June 3rd.

The commencement exercises of Greenville Female College will be held June 1st to 5th. Miss Ottie Simmons will graduate with the degree of B. L. Miss Urna Black will also receive a special diploma in piano, she having already graduated in the literary course.

The commencement exercises of Columbia College will be held next week. Misses Mae Brabham and Ruth Byrd will receive certificates for work in art. Misses Jerolyn Bruce, Ruth Byrd, and Mae Brabham will receive certificates for completing one or more literary courses.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Thos. Black, Jr., we received last week an invitation to attend the annual commencement of the University of Maryland, Baltimore, which will take place May 31st. Mr. Black has already graduated in pharmacy, and graduates this year in dentistry, being now a Phg. and D. D. S.

Prof. Duncan gave a sumptuous supper on Wednesday night, the 21st instant, complimentary to the base ball team and the ladies who so ably assisted in the dramatic performance given for the benefit of the base ball club of the Carlisle School. There was a large attendance and the affair was a complete success.

Thursday, the 22nd, the Gum Log Club gave a fish fry complimentary to their out-of-town guests. Among those present from Barnwell were: Col. Harry D. Calhoun, Dr. Wooly, Messrs. Owens and Kelly. Those from Branchville were: Messrs. G. W. Miley, L. D. Fairay, and L. H. Fairay. The fry was one of the liveliest of the season.

In consequence of the high price of living and the healthfulness of the community and also the small collections made by them, due to hard times, the physicians have been compelled to raise their rates on the first of June. It is with extreme reluctance that they have come to this conclusion. They want to live so that they may be able to give us their services to keep us living.

Mr. C. K. Walker, of the firm of Kaiser & Walker, Aiken, S. C., plumbing, heating and tinning contractors, was in the city Monday. He was here to estimate on the heating and plumbing for the new Carlisle dormitory. They are thinking of locating in Bamberg, and we trust they will do so, as it is mighty hard to get work of this kind done now, an out-of-town contractor having to be employed.

It is at last settled that Bamberg will have a new and up-to-date post office building with good equipment, the government having agreed to sanction this move. A new building will be erected, and work will begin as soon as possible. However, it will be some time this fall before it can be finally completed. Getting this building has been a long and tedious job for the post master, but he is gratified that he has been able to accomplish this for the town and the patrons of the office.

Bad Negroes.

The negroes in the Denmark and Blackville sections seem to be getting very impudent. A short time ago a negro cursed Mr. Matthews, of the Blackville section, and threatened him with a knife, Mr. Matthews being unarmed. Later a brother of the negro who shot the policeman at Denmark Saturday night was very impudent on the plantation of S. D. M. Guess & Son, and we understand that he was taken out and given a round hundred lashes. Negroes should remember that they will be treated all right as long as they stay in their place, but insolence and threats on their part will not be tolerated. We learn that the negro who threatened Mr. Matthews was arrested and lodged in jail at Barnwell.

School Closing.

The pupils, patrons and teacher of Pine Grove school invite the general public to attend their annual picnic on Friday, June 6th. There will be some exercises by the pupils to begin promptly at 10 o'clock. Senator J. B. Black, of Bamberg, and Col. F. N. K. Bailey, of Edgefield, have been invited to address the children and the older folks respectively. Come with a full basket and all enjoy the day together.

Shower for Miss Rentz.

Last Wednesday afternoon the hospitable home of Dr. and Mrs. George F. Hair was thrown open to a large number of guests, bidden to a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Elise Rentz, a fair bride-elect of this place. For the occasion the lower floor was thrown en suite, lavishly decorated and fragrant with flowers.

Here and there through the rooms tables were arranged for Rook. Mrs. W. P. Jones won the prize for best playing, a handsome embroidered towel. Miss Dobson was the recipient of the first prize for young ladies. To Miss Rentz a hand embroidered guest towel also was presented. Immediately after the game, delicious refreshments, consisting of a salad course, followed by ice cream and cake, were served. Two lovely little girls, Natalie Hooton and Evelyn Brabham, entering, bore an immense clothes hamper laden with gifts for the prospective bride. Many and varied they were—exquisite hand-embroidered articles for personal adornment and decorative purposes, dainty dress accessories, lingerie, cut glass and silver. At this juncture Mrs. Hair presented her guest prize, handsome hand-embroidered sheets and pillow cases, at the same time making a happy little speech of congratulation and good wishes.

Miss Rentz responded, thanking Mrs. Hair and the donors of all the gifts, and their manner of showing their good will. Mrs. Hair sustained her reputation for hospitality and her guests enjoyed a most delightful evening.

Fish Fry.

On the 21st instant Mr. D. Russell Steedley, of Branchville, gave a fish fry at the Edisto in honor of Mr. H. N. Folk, father of Hon. H. C. and Col. J. F. Folk. Just as the fires were started it commenced to rain, which caused everyone to seek shelter. The fires were again started and the savory odor of frying fish permeated the atmosphere. Mr. Steedley acted as manager and chef, and was ably assisted by Mr. J. M. Grimes. Col. J. F. Folk stated that in view of the fact that there was such an abundance of fish that every guest was expected to do his full duty. Among those present from Bamberg were Messrs. R. S. Simmons, J. M. Grimes, J. R. Owens, and others.

Death of Miss Camille Price.

Miss Camille Price died at the home of her brother, Mr. E. B. Price, in this city, last Wednesday night, after an illness of about two weeks with typhoid-pneumonia. While her condition had been serious for some days, her many friends hoped that she would rally, and the news of her death came as a great shock.

The burial took place at Restland cemetery Thursday afternoon in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends, and the floral offerings, which were unusually numerous and beautiful, attested to the love and affection of her very large number of friends. The services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. H. Hodges, she having been a faithful member of the Methodist church for a number of years. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. R. A. Ayer, B. T. Felder, C. R. Gilliam, W. D. Coleman, H. L. Kearse, and C. F. Black.

Miss Price was the only surviving daughter of the late E. B. Price, and she was a sister of Messrs. E. L., L. C., J. W., and E. B. Price, of this city, and J. A. Price, of Denmark. Since the death of her father and mother, some years ago, she had made her home with her brothers here, and she was a most lovable and popular young lady. Scores of hearts are sorrowing because of her untimely death, and to the ones so sorely bereaved our sympathy is extended.

Delightful Fish Fry.

There was given a fish fry at Edisto Tuesday, the 27th instant, complimentary to the ladies of Bamberg. The dinner was prepared by Mr. Griffith, and numbers of gentlemen waited on the ladies. Messrs. Klauber and Copeland distinguished themselves by their assiduity in attending to the wants of the ladies, all of whom seemed to thoroughly enjoy the feast. All of the gentlemen were highly pleased by being honored by such a large attendance of ladies, and will regard this fry as the best and most pleasant one of the season.

Trinity Sunday-School.

Among the most interesting of the various celebrations held by Trinity Sunday-school was the Bible boys and girls exercises Sunday afternoon at 4.10 o'clock. There was present a large and interested congregation, and the exercises were very much enjoyed by all who were there. The church was decorated in an unusual and beautiful manner and the tasteful and lovely arrangement of flowers, potted plants and ferns drew favorable comment from many. The song service was also a feature of the afternoon, as was the solo of little Harriet Wiggins and the recitation of Nell Bamberg.

After the opening song, and the processional of boys and girls who took part had been seated, Supt. A. B. Utsey explained to the congregation the meaning of the exercises and gave a brief outline in a few well-chosen words. Following was the programme and the names of those who took part:

THE THIRD COUNT.

Miss Elma Chitty Wins Special Prize of $10.00 in Gold.

The third count in The Bamberg Herald popular voting contest was held Monday afternoon at The Herald office and resulted in Miss Elma Chitty winning the special prize of ten dollars in gold for having made the greatest gain in votes since the second count. The business at this count showed a decided increase in the interest that has been taken in the contest and the outlook for a lively skirmish for the handsome and desirable Obermeyer piano is promising. There is no doubt that several contestants will do some real work from now until the close, the latter part of June. It will pay to work hard for this magnificent prize, and it will take hard work to win, for several of the young ladies are determined to take this instrument home with them on the evening the contest closes. The contestants are so close together that neither of them has any real advantage and it all depends upon the interest they take which one comes out ahead.

And again there is a good chance for some of the contestants further down the list to come up and win the prize, which is often done. No one has any sure thing in this contest. The bonuses from now until the close of the contest will be as follows:

For every 7 new subscriptions 8,000 bonus, a total of 12,200 votes.

For every 7 renewal subscriptions 6,000 bonus, a total of 9,500 votes.

For every 40 merchants coupons 1,000 bonus, a total of 2,000 votes.

Extra Special.

For every three five-year subscriptions 25,000 bonus, a total of 40,000 votes.

For every two twenty-year subscriptions 75,000 bonus, a total of 135,000 votes.

These bonuses will continue until the close of the contest, the date of which will be announced next week. The ballot box will close promptly at 3 o'clock p. m. on the closing day.

The following is the vote received by the various contestants at the third count and the total vote and standing of contestants to date:

Miss Elma Chitty 65,900 80,900
Miss Cleo Kearse 59,600 70,600
Miss Hattie Bessinger 44,050 70,450
Miss Thelma Kearse 58,900 60,575

Brother Sims, of the Orangeburg Times and Democrat, can rest assured that we will gladly answer any questions he may put to us, in regard to the free pass question, at the press association meeting. In fact we shall be pleased at the opportunity to give him and others who may desire it, all the information we can. However, we shall insist that inquirers conduct the examination in good faith.

Policeman Shot.

Last Saturday night a negro named Elliott Glover, from near town, shot Mr. D. W. Barr, the policeman at Denmark. The policeman had arrested Glover and taken him to the guard house for being drunk, and while unlocking the door the negro grabbed the policeman's pistol and ran off a short distance and turned and fired at Mr. Barr twice, one bullet entering the left arm and making a painful flesh wound. Glover then made good his escape. Sheriff Ray was at once notified and he went up to Denmark, but later he arrested the negro here in town, he having come back to Bamberg immediately after the shooting. After Glover was arrested he told the sheriff that he had passed him on the road while Mr. Ray was on his way to Denmark. He was put in jail where he now is and will no doubt remain until court, as his employer will not go on his bond.

Glover worked for Mr. E. C. Hays and was in town Saturday afternoon, going up to Denmark on the 8 o'clock train that night. He got into trouble soon after he reached there. While Mr. Barr's wound is a painful one it is not necessarily serious. The policeman's pistol, a 45-calibre Colt's, was taken off Glover when he was arrested.

Washington, May 26.—Senator E. D. Graded School Closing.

The closing exercises of the Bamberg graded school took place this week, commencing Sunday morning with the baccalaureate sermon at the Baptist church, which was preached by Rev. J. H. Graves, of Latta, S. C. Mr. Graves preached Sunday night at the Methodist church, both sermons being enjoyed by large congregations. Mr. Graves is well-known and has many friends in Bamberg, and it was a great pleasure to see and hear him again. The music was especially fine, the Dixie Orchestra being assisted by the high school chorus.

Monday evening the graduating exercises took place in the school auditorium. There was a large crowd present, standing room being at a premium. Rev. W. H. Hodges opened the exercises with prayer. There were two choruses by the high school girls, and several instrumental selections by pupils of the music department, and in each instance the careful and painstaking work of the instructors was evident. An instrumental duet by little Misses Natalie Hooton and Adelle Brabham was especially pleasing, as these little ones are of tender years.

Essays were read by the graduates, Miss Marian Simmons and Messrs. Samuel Rowell and J. B. Rice, after which Superintendent Allen, in a few well chosen remarks, presented them their high school diplomas. C. E. Black, Esq., on behalf of Mrs. J. A. Murdaugh, in a neat speech, presented a medal to Miss Eunice Hunter, this being an award for the highest average scholarship for the year of any pupil in the grade taught by Mrs. Murdaugh.

The graduating address was delivered by Rev. R. E. Gribben, of Grace Episcopal church, Charleston, and while his remarks to the graduates were especially timely and interesting, his argument for a better support of the public schools was the strongest feature of his address. Those people who think the free schools should have heard him, and the skintflint who wants to grind the lady teachers down to a salary that they can barely live on would no doubt have experienced a change of heart could he have heard the facts as presented by Mr. Gribben. To our mind, it was essentially such an address as should have been made at a school closing, and we hope it will do good.

The school has closed a most successful year, and it is gratifying to the patrons that most of the faithful and efficient teaching force will be with us again next year.

Tall Story of Tall Corn.

The big corn yield in Kansas last fall recalls the story of big Kansas corn at the Philadelphia centennial. Among the Kansas agricultural exhibits at the fair was some corn on the stalks grown in the Neosho river bottoms. It was twenty feet high and the ears looked as long as stove wood, says the Kansas City Journal.

An old lady from Vermont gazed at it and declared that the stalks were spliced. Then she took another look and changed her mind. "But," said she, "it didn't grow that big in one year. It must have grown for two seasons."

The man in charge of the Kansas exhibit was somewhat of a prevaricator himself. "Lady," said he, in great solemnity, "we are almost ashamed to exhibit this corn. This has been a hot, dry year in Kansas and we have not been able to raise very large corn. But we felt that it wouldn't do to have a Kansas exhibit without corn, so we brought this little stuff along. In a really good year the corn grows so high in Kansas the eagles build their nests in the tassels knowing full well that they are out of range of the farmers' guns."

JUDGE NOT.

Plain Rules that Help to Make People Better.

To impute to no man insincerity of purpose simply because he does not agree with me.

To give every man credit for the general tendency of his life in spite of the occasional mishap which temporarily halts his progress.

To pay no attention to gossip, unless the bearer of the tale is willing to tell it to the one accused.

To remember the pit from which I was dug, before I pass judgment upon any other man.

To judge no man unless I am willing to be judged according to the judgment of the Just.

To lift up the man who has fallen, probably because he was carrying a heavier burden than I.

To give to life the largest meaning, with no narrow outlook either for myself or for my fellows; to believe that every other man is worthy of the best that is mine; and to try earnestly to see that he gets it.—Rev. Charles Stilzle.
