Negro Wanted in Connection With Harrelson Murder.

M. L. Rowell, Rural Policeman Sam Cole, and a Mr. Dennis, of Florence, arrived in Dillon tonight about 8 o'clock with John Johnson, the ne-Johnson as the man wanted in Dillon. They captured him and rushed toward Florence with the fugitive, but on nearing Florence they decided to come on to Dillon as Johnson seemed unconcerned about his arrest. As they neared Dillon Officer Rowell stated that Johnson asked him if the woman was dead. Johnson was connected with the murder of the Rev. Hugh Harrelson, according to a statement by Mrs. Harrelson, who declared at the time of the crime that he was the negro that beat her.

Tracks around the commissary where the murder was committed, it ing him of the petition from the is stated, were recognized as those of Johnson. Johnson had had some trouble, it is asserted, with the Rev. Hugh Harrelson a few days before the crime for which he had been reported to the rural policeman.

Johnson has been lodged in jail and has been identified as the man wanted. Johnson was well known in Florence as "Bully Howard."

He has served several chaingang sentences in that county. A reward has been offered for Johnson's capture by local men and by Governor

An Automobile Tax.

Would it not be a good idea for the legislature at the next session to provide for an annual license tax on automobiles, the money thus raised to be devoted to road purposes. It is a well-known fact that automobiles are harder on the roads than any other kind of vehicles; and all the States in the union except South Carolina, we believe, provide for an an--Anderson Mail.

"Cured'

Mrs. Jay McGee, of Stephenville, Texas, writes: 'For nine (9) years, I suffered with womanly trouble. I had terrible headaches, and pains in my back, etc. It seemed as if I would die, I suffered so. At last, I decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and it helped me right away. The full treatment not only helped me, but it cured me."

TAKE

Cardui helps women in time of greatest need, because it contains ingredients which act specifically, yet gently, on the weakened womanly organs. So, if you feel discouraged, blue, out-of-sorts, unable to do your household work, on account of your condition, stop worrying and give Cardui a trial. It has helped thousands of women,-why not you? Try Cardui.
